House Solicitation Waited

Cancer Fund Drive Set

Highlight of the annual Cancer Fund drive in East Liverpool — a house-to-house solicitation — will be conducted Wednesday by volunteer women workers.

In the Calcutta area and elsewhere in the Beaver Local School District, the canvass will continue for three days to enable the volunteers to work during daylight hours.

The Calcutta Mothers Club will be in charge of the solicitation. Mrs. Robert Cairns is president. The canvass will include Fredericktown, Apples Corners, the Sub-station, Oakmont, Bloomfield, Grimms Bridge and other outlying areas.

Thomas Doland, city chairman, said, "The fight against cancer is important to everyone. We hope that the public will be thinking of the Cancer Society and its expanding programs when their neighbors call to ask for donations."

The county unit is now providing for 174 cancer patients. Doland said 50 per cent of the funds collected are kept for local use, while the balance is sent to the state organization for research.

The City Hall will be headquarters for the city canvass, with members of the Women's Council of Civil Defense as office workers. The Key Club of East Liverpool High School will serve as aides in the collection.

Area chairmen include Mrs. Carl Allen, Beechwood; Mrs. Carl Metz, Dairy Ln.; Mrs. Charles Fryman, Dixonville; Mrs. Clarence Bryan, downtown district; Mrs. Harold Calhoun, Garfield School district.

Mrs. Charles Thayer, Glenmoor; Mrs. Kenneth Johnson, Horace Mann School district; Mrs. George McGaffic, Klondyke; Mrs. Ralph Haught, Kountz Ave. and Shadyside; Mrs. Donald Derrington, LaCroft; Mrs. Paul Jones and Mrs. Richard Crawford, Lincoln School district; Mrs. Richard Graham, Maplewood.

Mrs. Richard Lamborn and Mrs. Edwin Sisley, McKinley School district; Mrs. Norman Scott, Neville School area; Mrs. Ernest Brown and Mrs. Walter Silliman, Pleasant Heights; Mrs. George Beck and Mrs. Charles Averell, St. Clair Ave.; Mrs. William Laughlin, 3rd St.; Mrs. Fred Hyder, Washington School area, and Mrs. Lawrence Blythe, West End.

Sen. Kennedy Lashes Out At Political Foe

Brings Up Religious Issue Himself In Attack On Humphrey

WHEELING, W. Va. (AP)—An angry Sen. John F. Kennedy has brought up the religious issue himself in his West Virginia campaign and has lashed out at his chief rival.

In an abrupt change of tactics, the Massachusetts Democrat discussed on the stump Monday the matter of his Roman Catholic faith.

He also assailed his only designated opponent in this state's primary, Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey of Minnesota, as an instrument of others who oppose Kennedy.

Kennedy flatly declared that Humphrey could not get the Democratic presidential nomination.

Kennedy said Humphrey is a "man who could not be nominated . . . a man who could not carry a state right next to his own . . . and who is now being used to stop Kennedy."

To applauding crowds on this swing to gain support for the May 10 primary vote, Kennedy struck out at Humphrey directly for the first time.

On the religious matter, he said, "We might as well settle this issue right here in West Virginia."

"One of the issues in this campaign is my religion," he told a crowd in Fairmont, adding, "I don't think that my religion is any one's business but my business.

"Is anyone," he asked, "going to tell me that I lost this primary the day that I was born and baptized 42 years ago? I don't beleive it."

Kennedy eased up on his travel today, scheduling a day of appearances in and around this steel-producing city of 60,000.

This morning Kennedy also spoke briefly at Bethany and West Liberty Colleges.

Meanwhile, Louisiana elects a governor and New Jersey picks nominees for a U.S. Senate seat in election contests today.

Louisiana voters will elect a successor to Gov. Earl K. Long and experts predict ballad-singer Jimmie Davis, a Democrat, will run away with the race.

Humphrey's Challenge Accepted By Kennedy

WHEELING, W. Va. (AP)—Sen. John F. Kennedy (D-Mass) today accepted a challenge from Sen. H. Humphrey (D - Minn) for a face-to-face debate during their campaigning in West Virginia's May 10 presidential preference primary.

Cancer Funds To Be Sought At Wellsville

The Wellsville Women's Civic Club will conduct its annual house-to-house canvass Wednesday in the city's Cancer Fund drive.

Tomorrow has been designated as "C-Day" by the club—because "C" stands for cancer and control.

The drive will be conducted between 6:30 and 8:30 p. m., according to Mrs. Dorothy McCreary, door-to-door chairman.

Each family will be presented a pamphlet containing facts about cancer and its prevention and cure.

Some 70 volunteers will cover the town, headed by team captains from the club. Atty. William Bush is city chairman.

It was pointed out that half of each dollar donated in Wellsville will be used in Columbiana County to provide service for patients with cancer. The money is spent for dressings, medications, transportation for treatment and education. The other half goes into national research.

The county goal is $24,000. Letters have been mailed urging residents to donate.

The Women's Civic Club spearheads the drive each year in Wellsville.

Sewage Plant Bids Due

NEW CUMBERLAND — Bids will be opened Saturday morning at 10 for construction of a sewage disposal plant and interceptor sewer and improvements to the village's water system. The A. R. Todd Associates engineering firm is planning a new sewage disposal system for the town.

Chou Is Told Border Issue Shocked India

Relations Imperiled, Nehru Informs Red Chinese Premier

NEW DELHI (AP) — Chou En-lai arrived today and was promptly told by Prime Minister Nehru Red China's border actions "have been a shock to all our people."

"Our relations have been imperiled for the present and future," he told the visiting Red China premier.

Chou, grim-faced, had voiced hope that the Chinese-Indian border dispute could be settled "in accordance with the principles of coexistence."

Nehru smiled as he made his statement — but his words were tough and sharp.

Near the Indian presidential palace, where Chou will stay, 70 demonstrators who sought to protest with black flags were locked up for an "imminent breach of the peace."

Chou arrived by plane from Rangoon, Burma, for talks with Prime Minister Nehru on 51,000 square miles of disputed territory along the India-Tibet border. The Chinese provoked the border crisis, and Chou is one of the most unpopular visitors in recent Indian history.

An agreement appears unlikely to result from the talks between Chou and Nehru.

Nehru headed a few Cabinet members and other officials greeting Chou at the airport.

Suburban Move Revealed

Preliminary Census Data Shows City Population Dip

East Liverpool has apparently suffered a sharp decline in population in the past decade, according to preliminary reports from census takers.

The obvious trend of residents moving to suburban areas has been revealed in actual figures now being processed as part of the 1960 enumeration.

Ray Neidengard, crew leader for the city district, reported today on his area, but the figures are not final and include only that part of the city which extends to McKinnon Ave.

Neidengard said a noticeable decline was indicated in his original groundwork survey of the downtown, West End and East End areas.

In that area covered by his workers the latest count totals 16,179 compared to the official count of 20,689 of 10 years ago, Neidengard said.

The area north of McKinnon Ave., extending out along St. Clair Ave. to the city limits, lies in the area counted by enumerators under Mrs. Ruth Nicolaus of Wellsville who does not yet have final figures for that district.

However, Mrs. Nicolaus said the area within the city has grown considerably since the past census, and the suburban areas just outside East Liverpool have experienced a "tremendous growth."

It has not been ascertained if the population growth inside the city in the area north of McKinnon Ave. would offset the decline in the downtown areas, but it seems unlikely.

Pay Raises, Insurance Plan Refused

Council Cites Lack Of Funds For Hike Sought By Firemen

Council unanimously accepted a report from its finance committee Monday night rejecting a fire department request for a general 20 per cent wage increase and other concessions and a hospital insurance plan for all municipal employes that would have cost the city an estimated $10,000 to $11,000 a year.

Lack of funds makes it impossible for Council to grant any of the requests, Councilman Clinton R. Seevers, chairman of the finance committee, reported. However, all of the requests were given serious consideration and they will be held in the files for possible future action, he added.

The firemen's request was presented at the meeting April 4 by a committee representing Local 24, International Association of Fire-Fighters. In addition to the 20 per cent pay hike, the firemen requested compensatory time off for holiday work and appropriation to pay replacements for men off duty because of illness.

The insurance plan in which the city was asked to participate was proposed by Local 677, American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employes. Under the union's proposal, the city would have paid the insurance premium for the city workers, who would have been required to bear the cost of covering for their dependents.

Council and representatives of the union met a few weeks ago with spokesmen for the Metropolitan Insurance Co., who outlined a plan they had drafted to cover the city's workers. At present, some city employes have group insurance, but they pay their own premiums.

At the same time, the finance committee formally reported rejection of the administration's request for authority to hire a fifth "Meter Maid" to check parking violations. Lack of funds also was given as the reason.

"There's no use keeping these requests hanging in the balance," Seevers said as he opened his report to Council. "In regard to the insurance program, the cost is estimated at $10,000 to $11,000 a year. We just don't have that kind of money."

"We've given it careful consideration from all angles and we feel the plan is all right, but the funds are not available."

Then Councilman Donald S. Hancock moved to accept the committee's report, seconded by Councilman Donald E. Smith. The motion passed without a dissent.

Seevers then summarized the firemen's requests and added: "We just don't have the funds and we don't see how we can grant any of these requests."

Councilman John Melvin moved to accept the report on the firemen's request, seconded by Coun-

Choking Infant Rushed To Pittsburgh Hospital

Constable John W. Jackson of St. Clair Township rushed an ailing 6-week-old niece to Children's Hospital at Pittsburgh today for treatment after a persistent throat obstruction became severe.

The ailing child is Trudy, infant daughter of the constable's brother and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Jackson, of the Sub-station. They made the emergency trip to the hospital, along with the infant's grandmother, Mrs. Winifred Jackson, also of the Sub-station.

Beginning the trip, the constable stopped at East Liverpool police headquarters and asked officers to telephone the Pittsburgh department to request an escort through the congested area of Pittsburgh to the hospital.

The family said the child has suffered with intermittent choking attacks since birth, but had a severe seizure this morning and it was deciced to take her to the Pittsburgh hospital for treatment.

Martial Law Defied

Scores Killed, Wounded In Bloody Korean Riots

For Negotiations With Soviets

Ike Plans Special Group For Arms Reduction Talks

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Eisenhower administration has decided to create a special disarmament organization to mastermind negotiations with the Soviets on arms reduction.

President Eisenhower has given a go-ahead to the project with the aim of upgrading the importance of disarmament policy in the day-to-day conduct of foreign relations.

Experts from many government agencies and departments are to be grouped into a single staff led by a high-ranking chief whose sole responsibility will be development of disarmament strategy.

Their head is to be a distinguished civilian whose background and reputation will give him easy access to all Cabinet officers as well as stature with foreign government leaders.

Authoritative officials who disclosed this today said the decision has no connection with repeated charges by Sen. John Kennedy (D-Mass) that U.S. negotiators "are ill prepared" and "inadequately instructed" for talks with the Soviets. Kennedy is a candidate for the Democratic presidential nomination.

Administration leaders began considering this move last November, they said.

Kennedy, in a Wisconsin speech March 25, called upon Eisenhower to create an "arms control research institute" to coordinate government-wide planning, research and development in the disarmament field. He said it should report directly to Eisenhower.

Despite Kennedy's advice, the administration has decided that the new disarmament organization is to be put within the State Department and not made part of the President's executive offices.

Rhee Party Charged In Vote Rigging

Unusual Concern Expressed By U.S. Over New Violence

SEOUL, South Korea (AP)—Violent demonstrations against President Syngman Rhee's tactics killed and wounded scores of persons, including several policemen, in South Korea's major cities today.

Rhee called out the army, clamped down martial law and imposed local censorship. But the rioting raged into the night in defiance of the government's moves.

The independent newspaper Hankook Ilbo checked hospitals in Seoul and estimated the dead at 60 to 70. Other unofficial tallies said the wounded ranged between 200 and 300.

The death toll appeared sure to go higher in the outbreaks protesting government strong-arm methods in last month's election.

The riots brought an unusual expression of concern from the United States for the demonstrators' grievances. The United States fought a three-year war in Korea to keep the Communists from capturing the entire country.

U. S. Ambassador Walter P. McConaughy paid a personal call tonight on President Rhee. The embassy said the ambassador sought to "review developments and express his concern that measures adopted to maintain law and order would take into account basic causes and grievances behind the disorders."

Sporadic demonstrations have flared since March 15 balloting to underscore opposition charges of stuffing ballot boxes, restricting opposition meetings, and police brutality. Many of the demonstrators were students, and this pattern of youthful protest continued.

But today's was the worst so far. Raging during the day in Pusan, Taegu, Taejon, Kwangju and this capital, the rioting amounted to virtual revolutionary upheaval. Those five cities were put under martial law.

This is what happened in Seoul:

Thousands of students came marching down the wide avenue leading to Rhee's mansion. They were from colleges and universities, junior and senior high schools.

The boulevard was clogged with the somber black of their school uniforms.

Seven hundred yards from the President's mansion, the students halted. Thirty yards in front of them was a row of armed and helmeted police.

The police had one fire truck, fire hoses, and tear gas bombs.

More and more students poured into the street. Thousands lined the sidewalks and jammed the open area in front of Korea's old Capitol, burned out and still unreconstructed from the Korean War.

Suddenly there were shots. Police were firing blanks and tear gas shells.

The students surged forward, shouting and throwing rocks. The wind blew teargas back over the police lines.

Streams of water drenched the students but still they came on. Their barrage of stones forced the firemen to retreat.

Rocks smashed through windows of two government ministries. Cars were overturned.

Hunt Goes On For Man, 21, In Wounding

Ex-West Virginian Also Sought For Quiz In Double Slaying

WOOSTER, Ohio (AP) — The search for Kenneth Watts, 21, wanted for shooting with intent to kill and for questioning in a double slaying, today neared the four-day mark.

Watts, originally from West Virginia, has been charged with shooting and wounding Mrs. Lewis Wagner at nearby Rittman Friday night.

Wayne County Sheriff Glenn Rike also wants to question Watts in the Saturday night slaying of a man and wife in a farm home at Doylestown, a few miles east of Rittman.

Rike said there is no concrete evidence linking the 21-year-old millworker with the shooting of William W. Fender, 59, and his wife, Bernice, 54.

Officials found Mrs. Wagner's car abandoned in a swamp a few miles from Fender's livestock farm. Mrs. Wagner identified Watts, who had been living in Rittman since last fall, as the man who shot her, authorities said. He was believed to have driven Mrs. Wagner's car from Rittman.

The only Fender property missing was the couple's car, which was wrecked Saturday night in a high-speed chase in nearby Tuscarawas County.

The driver fled on foot into wooded, hilly country near Newcomerstown, triggering an intensive manhunt in that area.

Police found the bodies of the Doylestown couple after tracing the car to them.

Early Monday, a truck was stolen from near West Lafayette, five miles west of Newcomerstown. West Virginia police were alerted to watch for the truck.

Watts' home is near Wayne, W. Va., and officials believe he may be headed in that direction.

Meanwhile, authorities are waiting for the Bureau of Criminal Investigation at London to compare bullets from the Rittman and Doylestown shootings.

Sheriff Rike said no motive for the shootings has been discovered.

Liquor Raid Hearings Continued To Monday

WEIRTON — Hearings have been continued until Monday for four of five persons arrested over the weekend by police for violations of liquor laws.

Police raided the Young Democrats Club and the Serbian Athletic Club Saturday and Sunday and made arrests for being open after closing hours and sale of liquor.

Dominic Orlando, 47, of Weirton, arrested in the Young Democrats Club Sunday at 3:25 a. m., forfeited $106 bond when he failed to appear for a hearing Monday in Municipal Court.

Hearings were continued for Bill Cresco, Jeannette Shreve, Milan Dadasovich and Nick Vuckovich. Police made the raids under orders from Mayor David T. Frew.

Inquiry Slated In Plane Crash Fatal To Nine

STEPHENVILLE, Nfld. (AP)—U.S. Air Force officials today prepared an inquiry into the cause of the crash of a cargo plane minutes after it took off from nearby Harmon Field. All nine crewmen aboard were killed.

The C124 was en route to Mildenhall, England, from Dover, Del., Air Force Base with a cargo that included mail and medical supplies.

Visibility was limited when the aircraft took off from Harmon Field Monday. The plane dropped out of sight on radar screens at Harmon and helicopters were sent out to search.

95 Absentee, Disabled Primary Ballots Issued

Ninety-five civilian absentee and disabled voters' ballots for the May 3 primaries have been issued to date by the County Election Board, Frank R. O'Hanlon, clerk, said today.

The civilian ballots have been available since April 4. They will be available until 4 p. m. Thursday, April 28. To be counted at the polls on election day, the ballots must be back in the board's hands by noon Friday, April 29.

Traffic Light Changes Eyed For Downtown

'Walk' Signal At 5th, Broadway Proposed To Help Pedestrians

The Council street committee was asked Monday night to investigate proposed changes in two downtown traffic signals — an amber arrow to allow leeway for left turns off Jefferson St. onto W. 6th St. for northbound traffic and a "walk" light to give pedestrians a better opportunity to cross the wide intersection of E. 5th St. and Broadway.

Councilman Clinton R. Seevers proposed the changes and asked the investigation. Councilman John F. Kelly, chairman of the street committee, said both problems have been under study and a report probably will be given at Council's meeting May 2.

Seevers said enough funds may be left from an appropriation to modernize the traffic light system through East End to pay for the changes in the two downtown lights. In the annual appropriation ordinance, Council provided funds to modernize and synchronize the traffic light system from the Ohio-Pennsylvania state line to Mulberry St.

Seevers said he feels a "walk" light to hold traffic for a brief extra interval while pedestrians cross might prove the solution to the problem at E. 5th St. and Broadway. He pointed out there have been several accidents at the intersection recently in which autos bumped pedestrians.

"I cross that corner almost daily and I have had to run to get out of the way of cars," Seevers commented. "Everyone seems to think he has the right-of-way."

Frost Prods Memory

Area's Worst April Storm Brought Snow And Flood

It was a frosty morning for the East Liverpool area, with temperatures below freezing, but old-timers with a good memory merely chuckled at the "briefness" of spring.

The overnight low temperatures, a parting gesture from Old Man Winter, seemed to recall the damaging rain, snow and flood which struck the district in 1901 in the worst April storm in local history.

Twenty inches of snow, around 3 inches of rainfall and low temperatures added up to a crippling blanket of frozen slush and snow which downed phone and electric wires, ruined orchards, halted trains and later brought on a damaging flood.

Rain began to fall April 18, followed by 3 inches of snow the next day and 20 more inches on April 20. Rain fell during the same period for 2½ days and when the mercury dropped to below freezing, the weight of snow and ice broke wires and tree limbs and smothered sheep caught in the fields.

Snow piled as high as fences, and trains were halted in some places by drifts and elsewhere by slides and washouts. Thousands of dollars damage resulted to area fruit orchards and farms. A 4-inch layer of slush in downtown East Liverpool brought business to a standstill.

Ed Copeland, U. S. weather observer at Millport, remembers his grandfather telling him oats had to be planted again.

By April 21, the Ohio River rose to 34 feet, inundating lowlands, causing damage to potteries

CHARLESTON — Beer Commissioner R. D. Platt Monday revoked, with forfeiture of $200 bond, the license of Steve Yurka, doing business as Club Daily Double at New Cumberland.

Yuka was charged with illegal possession and sale of liquor.

Suspended for 40 days, to be effective next Saturday midnight, was the license of Okey M. Dyer, Main St. Pool Room, Webster Springs, on a charge alleging disorderly conduct on the premises.

"We've given it careful consideration from all angles and we feel the plan is all right, but the funds are not available."

Then Councilman Donald S. Hancock moved to accept the committee's report, seconded by Councilman Donald E. Smith. The motion passed without a dissent.

Seevers then summarized the firemen's requests and added: "We just don't have the funds and we don't see how we can grant any of these requests."

Councilman John Melvin moved to accept the report on the firemen's request, seconded by Coun-

Choking Infant Rushed To Pittsburgh Hospital

Constable John W. Jackson of St. Clair Township rushed an ailing 6-week-old niece to Children's Hospital at Pittsburgh today for treatment after a persistent throat obstruction became severe.

The ailing child is Trudy, infant daughter of the constable's brother and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Jackson, of the Sub-station. They made the emergency trip to the hospital, along with the infant's grandmother, Mrs. Winifred Jackson, also of the Sub-station.

Beginning the trip, the constable stopped at East Liverpool police headquarters and asked officers to telephone the Pittsburgh department to request an escort through the congested area of Pittsburgh to the hospital.

The family said the child has suffered with intermittent choking attacks since birth, but had a severe seizure this morning and it was deciced to take her to the Pittsburgh hospital for treatment.

For Negotiations With Soviets

Ike Plans Special Group For Arms Reduction Talks

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Eisenhower administration has decided to create a special disarmament organization to mastermind negotiations with the Soviets on arms reduction.

President Eisenhower has given a go-ahead to the project with the aim of upgrading the importance of disarmament policy in the day-to-day conduct of foreign relations.

Experts from many government agencies and departments are to be grouped into a single staff led by a high-ranking chief whose sole responsibility will be development of disarmament strategy.

Their head is to be a distinguished civilian whose background and reputation will give him easy access to all Cabinet officers as well as stature with foreign government leaders.

Authoritative officials who disclosed this today said the decision has no connection with repeated charges by Sen. John Kennedy (D-Mass) that U.S. negotiators "are ill prepared" and "inadequately instructed" for talks with the Soviets. Kennedy is a candidate for the Democratic presidential nomination.

Administration leaders began considering this move last November, they said.

Kennedy, in a Wisconsin speech March 25, called upon Eisenhower to create an "arms control research institute" to coordinate government-wide planning, research and development in the disarmament field. He said it should report directly to Eisenhower.

Despite Kennedy's advice, the administration has decided that the new disarmament organization is to be put within the State Department and not made part of the President's executive offices.

Hunt Goes On For Man, 21, In Wounding

Ex-West Virginian Also Sought For Quiz In Double Slaying

WOOSTER, Ohio (AP) — The search for Kenneth Watts, 21, wanted for shooting with intent to kill and for questioning in a double slaying, today neared the four-day mark.

Watts, originally from West Virginia, has been charged with shooting and wounding Mrs. Lewis Wagner at nearby Rittman Friday night.

Wayne County Sheriff Glenn Rike also wants to question Watts in the Saturday night slaying of a man and wife in a farm home at Doylestown, a few miles east of Rittman.

Rike said there is no concrete evidence linking the 21-year-old millworker with the shooting of William W. Fender, 59, and his wife, Bernice, 54.

Officials found Mrs. Wagner's car abandoned in a swamp a few miles from Fender's livestock farm. Mrs. Wagner identified Watts, who had been living in Rittman since last fall, as the man who shot her, authorities said. He was believed to have driven Mrs. Wagner's car from Rittman.

The only Fender property missing was the couple's car, which was wrecked Saturday night in a high-speed chase in nearby Tuscarawas County.

The driver fled on foot into wooded, hilly country near Newcomerstown, triggering an intensive manhunt in that area.

Police found the bodies of the Doylestown couple after tracing the car to them.

Early Monday, a truck was stolen from near West Lafayette, five miles west of Newcomerstown. West Virginia police were alerted to watch for the truck.

Watts' home is near Wayne, W. Va., and officials believe he may be headed in that direction.

Meanwhile, authorities are waiting for the Bureau of Criminal Investigation at London to compare bullets from the Rittman and Doylestown shootings.

Sheriff Rike said no motive for the shootings has been discovered.

Liquor Raid Hearings Continued To Monday

WEIRTON — Hearings have been continued until Monday for four of five persons arrested over the weekend by police for violations of liquor laws.

Police raided the Young Democrats Club and the Serbian Athletic Club Saturday and Sunday and made arrests for being open after closing hours and sale of liquor.

Dominic Orlando, 47, of Weirton, arrested in the Young Democrats Club Sunday at 3:25 a. m., forfeited $106 bond when he failed to appear for a hearing Monday in Municipal Court.

Hearings were continued for Bill Cresco, Jeannette Shreve, Milan Dadasovich and Nick Vuckovich. Police made the raids under orders from Mayor David T. Frew.

Inquiry Slated In Plane Crash Fatal To Nine

STEPHENVILLE, Nfld. (AP)—U.S. Air Force officials today prepared an inquiry into the cause of the crash of a cargo plane minutes after it took off from nearby Harmon Field. All nine crewmen aboard were killed.

The C124 was en route to Mildenhall, England, from Dover, Del., Air Force Base with a cargo that included mail and medical supplies.

Visibility was limited when the aircraft took off from Harmon Field Monday. The plane dropped out of sight on radar screens at Harmon and helicopters were sent out to search.

Dover Air Force Base officials identified the dead crewmen as: Lt. Donald P. Sheehan, 26, plane commander, Lansdowne, Pa.; Lt. Robert E. Little, 23, co-pilot, Monroe, La.; Capt. Gerald E. Avery, 41, second pilot, Dover, Del., and Modesto, Calif.; Lt. Leon E. Pedersen, 26, navigator, McIntosh, Fla.; Lt. Harold G. Harrison, 31, navigator, McCloud, Okla.; M.Sgt. Ben A. Sharpe, 35, engineer, Burlington, N.C.; T.Sgt. Clark N. Orndorff, 34, engineer, Littletown, Pa.; M.Sgt. Edward T. Retus, 38, engineer, Bentleyville, Pa., and A2C. Wallace M. Williams, 22, loadmaster. 95 Absentee, Disabled Primary Ballots Issued Ninety-five civilian absentee and disabled voters' ballots for the May 3 primaries have been issued to date by the County Election Board, Frank R. O'Hanlon, clerk, said today.

The civilian ballots have been available since April 4. They will be available until 4 p. m. Thursday, April 28. To be counted at the polls on election day, the ballots must be back in the board's hands by noon Friday, April 29.

Traffic Light Changes Eyed For Downtown

'Walk' Signal At 5th, Broadway Proposed To Help Pedestrians

The Council street committee was asked Monday night to investigate proposed changes in two downtown traffic signals — an amber arrow to allow leeway for left turns off Jefferson St. onto W. 6th St. for northbound traffic and a "walk" light to give pedestrians a better opportunity to cross the wide intersection of E. 5th St. and Broadway.

Councilman Clinton R. Seevers proposed the changes and asked the investigation. Councilman John F. Kelly, chairman of the street committee, said both problems have been under study and a report probably will be given at Council's meeting May 2.

Seevers said enough funds may be left from an appropriation to modernize the traffic light system through East End to pay for the changes in the two downtown lights. In the annual appropriation ordinance, Council provided funds to modernize and synchronize the traffic light system from the Ohio-Pennsylvania state line to Mulberry St.

Seevers said he feels a "walk" light to hold traffic for a brief extra interval while pedestrians cross might prove the solution to the problem at E. 5th St. and Broadway. He pointed out there have been several accidents at the intersection recently in which autos bumped pedestrians.

"I cross that corner almost daily and I have had to run to get out of the way of cars," Seevers commented. "Everyone seems to think he has the right-of-way."

Frost Prods Memory

Area's Worst April Storm Brought Snow And Flood

It was a frosty morning for the East Liverpool area, with temperatures below freezing, but old-timers with a good memory merely chuckled at the "briefness" of spring.

The overnight low temperatures, a parting gesture from Old Man Winter, seemed to recall the damaging rain, snow and flood which struck the district in 1901 in the worst April storm in local history.

Twenty inches of snow, around 3 inches of rainfall and low temperatures added up to a crippling blanket of frozen slush and snow which downed phone and electric wires, ruined orchards, halted trains and later brought on a damaging flood.

Rain began to fall April 18, followed by 3 inches of snow the next day and 20 more inches on April 20. Rain fell during the same period for 2½ days and when the mercury dropped to below freezing, the weight of snow and ice broke wires and tree limbs and smothered sheep caught in the fields.

Snow piled as high as fences, and trains were halted in some places by drifts and elsewhere by slides and washouts. Thousands of dollars damage resulted to area fruit orchards and farms. A 4-inch layer of slush in downtown East Liverpool brought business to a standstill.

Ed Copeland, U. S. weather observer at Millport, remembers his grandfather telling him oats had to be planted again.

By April 21, the Ohio River rose to 34 feet, inundating lowlands, causing damage to potteries

Rhee Party Charged In Vote Rigging

Unusual Concern Expressed By U.S. Over New Violence

SEOUL, South Korea (AP)—Violent demonstrations against President Syngman Rhee's tactics killed and wounded scores of persons, including several policemen, in South Korea's major cities today.

Rhee called out the army, clamped down martial law and imposed local censorship. But the rioting raged into the night in defiance of the government's moves.

The independent newspaper Hankook Ilbo checked hospitals in Seoul and estimated the dead at 60 to 70. Other unofficial tallies said the wounded ranged between 200 and 300.

The death toll appeared sure to go higher in the outbreaks protesting government strong-arm methods in last month's election.

The riots brought an unusual expression of concern from the United States for the demonstrators' grievances. The United States fought a three-year war in Korea to keep the Communists from capturing the entire country.

U. S. Ambassador Walter P. McConaughy paid a personal call tonight on President Rhee. The embassy said the ambassador sought to "review developments and express his concern that measures adopted to maintain law and order would take into account basic causes and grievances behind the disorders."

Sporadic demonstrations have flared since March 15 balloting to underscore opposition charges of stuffing ballot boxes, restricting opposition meetings, and police brutality. Many of the demonstrators were students, and this pattern of youthful protest continued.

But today's was the worst so far. Raging during the day in Pusan, Taegu, Taejon, Kwangju and this capital, the rioting amounted to virtual revolutionary upheaval. Those five cities were put under martial law.

This is what happened in Seoul: Thousands of students came marching down the wide avenue leading to Rhee's mansion. They were from colleges and universities, junior and senior high schools.

The boulevard was clogged with the somber black of their school uniforms.

Seven hundred yards from the President's mansion, the students halted. Thirty yards in front of them was a row of armed and helmeted police.

The police had one fire truck, fire hoses, and tear gas bombs.

More and more students poured into the street. Thousands lined the sidewalks and jammed the open area in front of Korea's old Capitol, burned out and still unreconstructed from the Korean War.

Suddenly there were shots. Police were firing blanks and tear gas shells.

The students surged forward, shouting and throwing rocks. The wind blew teargas back over the police lines.

Streams of water drenched the students but still they came on. Their barrage of stones forced the firemen to retreat.

Cumberland Tavern's Permit, Bond Revoked

CHARLESTON — Beer Commissioner R. D. Platt Monday revoked, with forfeiture of $200 bond, the license of Steve Yurka, doing business as Club Daily Double at New Cumberland.

Yuka was charged with illegal possession and sale of liquor.

Suspended for 40 days, to be effective next Saturday midnight, was the license of Okey M. Dyer, Main St. Pool Room, Webster Springs, on a charge alleging disorderly conduct on the premises.

Board Accepts Resignations Of 2 Teachers

Continuing contracts were approved for five teachers and the resignations of two others were accepted when the Board of Education met Monday night.

The continuing contracts were awarded Virginia Edwards, an elementary teacher; Norma Jean Carpenter, Gyla Nicely and Phillip Hunt, junior high teachers, and Harold Bricker, a high school instructor.

Supt. Ralph W. Betts reported the five had met the professional requirements and their work had been deemed satisfactory by their supervisors.

The resignations of Carroll Denny, a junior high instructor, and Mitchell Smith, high school art teacher, were accepted, effective at the end of the school term.

The board authorized the rental of Westgate auditorium on Thursday and April 27 to the Crucible Steel Co. to show a film to its employes.

It approved granting a high school diploma to John Wallace Conley, who withdrew in 1942, needing only one credit to graduate. He is fulfilling the requirement along with other work at a junior college in California.

The board also authorized its building committee to seek bids for painting some school buildings this summer.

A new policy concerning the use of school buildings by Boy Scout and Girl Scout units in the evenings also was adopted.

The board agreed to stand the custodial costs for two meetings per month if the sponsoring school organizations pay the custodial fees on the other two nights.

The resolution provides the cost will not exceed two hours per night and a Board of Education employe must be present in the building.

Board members pointed out they want the buildings to be used, but have an obligation to see they are protected. Because of the school district's financial limitations, however, the board is unable to pay custodial fees for all of the meetings, members added.

Miss Kathryn Liebschner, clerk-treasurer, reported receipt of $222,513 as the final real estate tax settlement, including $43,224 for bond retirement and the remainder for general operating expenses.

She reported a balance of $211,303 in school funds, including $120,668 in the general account. Other accounts include balances of $75,464 in bond retirement, $7,234 in cafeteria, $4,805 in improvement, $15, firemen training; $139, carpenter training; $16, foreman training, and $215, night school. There is a deficit of $1,254 in the workbook account, she reported.

Selections Listed In Program To Be Given By Harpist

Harp selections ranging from "Malaguena" (Lecuona) to "Jesu, Joy of Man's Desiring" (Bach) will be played by Jean Eason Harriman of Columbus at the Westgate School auditorium Wednesday night at 8:15.

Sponsored by the Lincoln School Parent-Teacher Association, the concert will also feature intermission vocal selections by Tom Schneidmiller of Chester, accompanied by Miss Eleanor Jane Bennett.

He will sing "How Little We Know" and "Stranger In Paradise."

Mrs. Harriman, former East Liverpool resident and harpist for various symphony orchestras, will present a varied program.

It will include "Pavane" (Anon), "Passacaille" (Handel-Boen), "Le Bon Petite Roe D'Yaetot" (Grandjany), "Noel Provencal" (Grandjany) and "Valse Romantique (Debussy-Laskine).

"Tango," "Rhumba," "Two In Time Preludes" and "Whirlwind" by Salzedo will complete the first part of the program.

The last half will include "Ay, Ay, Ay" (Freire-Maxwell), "Romance" (Donaldson - Harriman), "Penthouse Serenade" (Harriman) and "Fantasy On Chop Sticks" (Maxwell). Debussy's "Sacred and Profane" dances will also be played in a duet with Miss Bennett at the piano.

The committee includes Mrs. Harry Martin, Mrs. Robert Lutton, Mrs. William Hocking, Mrs. Ray Diddle, Mrs. Allen Emmerling and Mrs. Fred Banfield.

Women's Democratic Club Plans For Event

Plans for a joint fish fry with the Democrat Club were discussed at a meeting of the Women's Democrat Club Monday night in the Washington St. headquarters.

The event will be held April 29. Four new members were received. Mrs. Lillian McKeever, president, presided.

Five candidates spoke. A report was heard on a rummage sale held last week.

The next meeting will be May 9.

J. N. Vodrey's Funeral Set

Services will be held Wednesday at 2 p. m. at the Dawson Funeral Home for J. Norman Vodrey, 86, president of the Moore Furniture Co., who died Monday morning at City Hospital.

The Rev. M. Rudolph Miller, pastor of the Trinity United Presbyterian Church, will officiate. Burial will be in Riverview Cemetery.

Friends may call tonight at the funeral home.

Mr. Vodrey, who resided at 419 Thompson Ave., had been in ill health for several months.

He was born in East Liverpool, the son of James N. and Isabel Jobling Vodrey. Mr. Vodrey received pre-medical education at Adrian (Mich.) College before graduating from the University of Michigan's School of Dentistry in 1897.

He began a dental practice in East Liverpool the same year and continued until 1906, when he joined the Moore Furniture Co. He became president in 1917.

He was in Republican politics at one time and as a candidate for mayor in 1916 won the nomination but was defeated by Democrat Wiltse F. Orr.

He was safety director for the city for two years under Mayor V. A. Schreiber before making the bid for mayor.

He was a member of the Trinity church and Riddle Masonic Lodge 315.

Mr. Vodrey is survived by his widow, Mrs. Myrle Tyler Woodend Vodrey; two sons, Wendell H. Vodrey and Robert Vodrey, both of East Liverpool, and four grandchildren.

Mr. Sullivan leaves his widow, Mrs. Della Sullivan at home; a sister, Miss Catherine Sullivan of Canton, and a niece, Mrs. Thelma Ferguson, and a nephew, Orville Tolson, both of Salineville, who were reared by the Sullivans.

Services will be conducted Thursday at 2 p. m. in the Kerr Funeral Home by the Rev. Gerald Finnie of the Church of Christ. Burial will be in Woodland Cemetery.

Friends may call tonight and Wednesday afternoon and night at the funeral home.

Teachers Urge Classes Be Held On Holidays

EAST PALESTINE — The Board of Education took under study Monday night a request from teachers to hold classes on Washington's Birthday and Veterans Day in the 1960-61 school year and to let school out earlier in the spring.

Schools here will continue through June 9 this year. The board granted leave to James Nesbitt to attend a driver training conference at Columbus April 29.

Plans were made to send delegates to a conference on education at Kent State University.

5 City Drivers Get Hearings

Five city motorists and a Midland driver were among 13 penalized at hearings held by County Judge Earl Spalding of East Palestine Saturday and Monday.

John Blankenship, 24, of Lee Ave. Ext. was fined $10 and costs for operating a vehicle with a loud muffler. Mark Sanford, 26, of R. D. 2 was fined $10 and costs for driving a vehicle with no muffler.

Louis Veglia, 23, of 1702 Alpha St. forfeited a $15 bond on a charge of operating an unsafe vehicle. Lawrence T. Marshall, 52, of 316 Ridgeway Ave. was fined $10 and costs for failure to halt at an intersection.

George O. Hanlon, 43, of Box 283, East Liverpool, was sent to the County Jail for 6 days in lieu of a $10 fine for failure to file for an auto registration.

Robert Schiffhouer, 45, of Midland forfeited a $25 bond for crossing the yellow line.

Fined $25 and costs each for operating with an expired license were Fred Joebchen, 48, and Willard Zellers, 45, both of Columbiana, and Mrs. Anne Possage, 34, of West Point.

Fined $10 and costs for speeding were 4 Youngstown motorcyclists chased by a State Highway Patrol officer at 70 miles an hour Saturday but who got away. He cited Charles Deming, 23, John Eaton, 22, Louis Bernt, 22, and Ronald Hale, 18, later on their way from a cycle meet at Salem.

4-H News

Helen Devitt has been elected president at a meeting of the 4-H Clothing Club of Frankfort Springs. Mrs. Edward Hopkins is club leader.

Other officers are Eileen Griffith, vice president; Bonnie Bailey, secretary; Linda Chambers, song leader; Carole Griffith, game leader, and Dorothy Roberts and Mary Ann Devitt, reporters.

"Cometts" is the name selected for the Clothing Club. Fourteen signed up for the clothing project.

The next meeting will be held April 26 at 7:30 p. m. at the Hopkins Home. New members must be 10 as of June 1 to be eligible to join, the leader said.

Approximately 225 4-H officers and advisors attended the second training session Monday at the Fairfield School, according to Joseph Burger, county extension agent in 4-H work.

Russell Smith, Northeast 4-H supervisor, conducted a session for advisors and junior leaders for more effective work in local clubs.

Other sessions were held for presidents, vice presidents, secretaries, treasurers, news reporters, recreation leaders, health, safety and devotion leaders.

Wellsville Child Hurt By Falling TV Antenna

A Wellsville area youngster was admitted to the Osteopathic Hospital with a head injury suffered this morning when a television antenna fell on him and another Wellsville youngster was treated for scalds.

Donald Marple, 5, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dorsey Marple of Wellsville R. D. 1, is in "satisfactory" condition with a slight concussion suffered when the antenna fell as he bumped it while riding a toy tractor, hospital authorities said.

Allen Russell, 8, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Russell, 1146 Riverside Ave., Wellsville, was treated for second degree scalds to his chest after upsetting a cup of tea at his home.

cilman Clifford Cooper. Again the motion passed unanimously.

The administration's request to add another woman to the "Meter Maid" force was made twice earlier in the year. The first proposal came in a letter from Police Chief Americo Radeschi, who pointed out the number of meters has increased from 475 to 600.

A few weeks later, Safety-Service Director Lee Copenhaver made the same request. It was evident on March 30, when Council enacted the 1960 appropriation, that the fifth "Meter Maid" would not be added, as funds were provided for only four of the women employes.

Melvin, as a member of the finance committee, made the report that funds are unavailable to hire another "Meter Maid." His report was accepted on a motion by Hancock, seconded by Councilman Robert Laughlin. It was passed unanimously.

Reporting on another request from the employe union, Hancock said the ordinance committee still is working on a proposal to authorize deduction of local dues from union member's pay checks, provided they agree to the plan in writing.

Hancock said his committee expects to have a report at the next meeting May 2. He indicated his committee is conferring with Auditor Lawrence C. Applegate, whose office computes city payrolls.

Truckers Injured In $15,000 Crash

Two Ohio truckers were injured and damage was estimated at $15,000 in a rear-end collision of 2 big tractor-trailer rigs early this morning on Route 51, Pennsylvania State Police at Rochester reported.

Richard Schreckengost, 28, of Alliance and Joe Mercer, 30, of Youngstown were taken to Providence Hospital in Beaver Falls after the crash at 4:40 a. m. today 8 miles north of Rochester.

Schreckengost suffered lacerations of the scalp and cheek and possible internal injuries. Mercer received abrasions of the knees and forehead and a laceration of the right cheek.

Both rigs were headed south on Route 51, State Police said, when Schreckengost's empty outfit owned by Industrial Cartage Co. of Warren struck the rear of Mercer's steel-laden truck.

After the crash, Mercer lost control of his rig and it went off the right side and upset over a 20-foot embankment.

Club Fetes Mat Team, Coaches

Members of the Beaver Local High School wrestling team and coaches were guests of the Glenmoor Ruritan Club at a dinner meeting Monday night at the Calcutta Grange Hall.

Some 80 members, wives and parents of team members attended the dinner at which Lee Kirkland, Beaver Local High School principal, was principal speaker.

Kirkland explained the benefits of a good athletic program and the tie-in with academic studies, pointing out several Beaver Local athletes have received scholarships.

An award was presented Kirkland by Howard Adrian, club president.

Coach Jack O'Rourke introduced members of the wrestling team and Bruce Costanza, assistant coach.

A discussion on the school bus safety program also was held.

Actor-Director Dies

SAN MATEO, Calif. (AP)—A. Emory Johnson, 66, actor and director in silent movies, died Monday of burns suffered March 30 in a fire in his apartment. Johnson, a semi-invalid, directed 42 pictures for F. B. O. studios, forerunner of RKO.

In the War of the Revolution Gen. George Washington marched his armies across New Jersey four times.

Girl Injured In Excavation

A Chester girl, hurt in a fall into a cellar excavation, was admitted Monday to City Hospital. Six other youngsters and adults were treated and released.

Karen Thompson, 9, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Thompson of Orion Ave., Chester, is in "fair" condition with a possible back injury received in a fall into the excavation near her home.

Danny Owens, 9, son of Mr. and Mrs. Donzel Owens of McDonald St., Glenmoor, was treated for a laceration of the wrist received in a fall through a glass storm door.

Craig Capwell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Capwell, 415 Monroe St., suffered a laceration of the forehead when he ran against a pole while playing.

Joseph Jackson Jr., 290 Haywood St., was treated for an injury of the right foot received in a fall down steps.

Merl Plum, 11, son of Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Plum of Henry Ave. received lacerations of the nose and lip in a fall from a bicycle.

While playing basketball, Walter Landis, 19, of Calcutta received an injury of the left knee.

Karen Smith, 11, daughter of Robert Smith of Dixonville, was treated last night for burns of the fingers suffered while frying bacon at home.

30 At Session On Problems Of Juveniles

Approximately 30 persons, including school superintendents, attendance officers, police chiefs, patrolmen, county commissioners, juvenile officers, state patrolmen, welfare workers and the sheriff attended a meeting on juvenile problems Monday afternoon at the American Legion home at Lisbon, called by Juvenile Judge Louis Tobin.

A panel was held, composed of Judge Tobin, Dean C. Phillip, attendance officer of Salem city schools; County Supt. James L. McBride, school supt. D. W. Bailey of Columbiana, Police Chief John Hephner of Wellsville and Sheriff Russell J. VanFossan. Asst. Prosecutor J. Warren Bettis was moderator.

Complaints were made on the transfer of juveniles to different schools without proper background data to help school authorities assist the youngsters to adjust to their new surroundings.

Discussed by the panel were procedure in questioning juveniles, who should be present, if questioning should be done at the schools, when should the student be taken away from school, who is responsible for the student and who has the authority to release him to the investigating officer.

A film on a wayward youth, sent to different state institutions, was shown.

Present from East Liverpool were Chief A. J. Radeschi, Lt. Clyde Boso, School Supt. Ralph Betts and Principal George Hargraves of the high school.

Others present were from Lisbon, Salem, East Palestine, Wellsville, Columbiana, Leetonia, Hanoverton and Salineville.

KANSAS CITY (AP) — S. Herbert Hare, 72, city planner and landscape architect, died Monday. Hare had handled projects in many American cities and abroad since he and his father established the firm of Hare & Hare in Kansas City in 1910.

Red Chinese Cancel Leaves, Invasion Hinted

TAIPEI, Formosa (AP) — The garrison commander of the Quemoy Islands has canceled all military leaves, warning that the Chinese Reds may be preparing an invasion of the Nationalist outposts just off the mainland. The order went into effect Monday.

Qualified sources in Taipei believed the warning was not based on any new intelligence information, and they attached no special significance to it. They thought the aim was to counter any feeling that, because the Communists have for months subjected the Quemoys to only occasional light bombardment, they have abandoned aggressive intentions against them.

Party-Split On Public Principle

No better example of voters' responsibility under the two-party system could be found than the proposal to give social security pensioners some form of health insurance this year. A split on public principle is being forced.

Democrats are pushing the proposal as a party measure. They intend to make it a key issue in the 1960 presidential campaign. Their strategy is simple, fool-proof and terrifying in its implications.

They will use their majorities in the Senate and House of Representatives to put a health insurance bill on President Eisenhower's desk —any kind of a health insurance bill. If he vetoes it, the Democrats will accuse him of being heartless about health insurance for social security pensions and, by innuendo, of being heartless about the aged and the ill.

If he doesn't veto it, he will be accused by prudent members of his own party of being indifferent to the grave problems of putting such a proposal into effect. Unsolved would be major problems of finance and social precedent. It would be the kind of reckless approach that has given the Democratic party the reputation of being all profligacy and no prudence—another spend-first-and-think-about-it-later proposal.

DEMOCRATIC stragetists know how Mr. Eisenhower would react. He would veto the bill. They are not gambling anything. They know as well as the President does that the finances and the precedents of the proposal are shaky, but they would shift the blame for saying so to Dwight D. Eisenhower and, indirectly, to the Republican party and its presidential candidate. The only damage would be to the opposition.

This is how the two-party system works. One party's hands are not cleaner than the other's. Republicans repeatedly use civil rights bills to twist Democrats.

The newest proposal to collect more social security taxes in the sweet name of compassion for the aged sick meets all specifications for a political twister. Anyone who opposes it can be labeled heartless and the kind of cold fish who puts arithmetic ahead of human suffering. It is an emotional issue.

BEST OF ALL, the Democratic party has everything to gain and nothing to lose by backing it to the hilt. If it passes, the party can say it helped the sick and it is up to someone else to figure out the money. If it loses, the party can say it tried to help the sick and was blocked by heartless Republcians.

Only voters can save parties from this kind of dilemma. It is being reported in Washington that voters who prefer private security to some further extension of socialized security now are beginning to be heard from. They will need to be heard from by the tens of thousands to convince Democrats that their health insurance proposal isn't the perfect twister they thought it was.

There are, after all, millions who think higher social security taxes are not the answer to anything.

J. Norman Vodrey

Long-time acquaintances of J. Norman Vodrey had this to say upon word of his death Monday: He was a capable businessman, but more than that he always had a kind word for everyone, his friends were countless and he was a gentleman.

A man could ask for little more. Such respect doesn't come without reason.

Mr. Vodrey is another of the "old guard" who will be missed.

Summit Conference For Industrialism

During the steel strike last November, George Meany, president of AFL-CIO, asked President Eisenhower to consider a conference of employers and labor leaders to develop harmony in labor relations.

The Meany proposal was well-received in the Eisenhower administration. It hit a note of favor with public opinion, which had not been convinced of any good reason for a steel strike.

Late last week it was announced from the White House that President Eisenhower and Mr. Meany would meet on April 26 to clear the way for such a conference in June. The Department of Labor and the Department of Commerce have been doing spadework. They have been as busy with preparations for a summit conference for harmony in industrialism in the United States as the State Department has been with plans for a summit conference for harmony in international relations.

THIS WILL be a showdown on a proposition that never has been tackled in the United States — the proposition that in a people's capitalism there is no reason for the industrial warfare carried on bitterly by generations of Europeans. The United States can be different, because the industrialism it has evolved is different.

It does not have to cripple itself repeatedly with clashes between labor and management, because in the American enterprise system the worker has a personal stake in the success of management; he is, himself, an owner by virtue of his savings, his insurance, investments, fringe benefits and the privilege of bearing management responsibilities.

Mr. Meany is not the first labor leader to think about these things, but his position as president of AFL-CIO gives his thoughts special weight and meaning. Inside AFL-CIO he has been at odds with other labor leaders who prefer the techniques of open industrial warfare; who insist there is no other way.

THERE IS THE same division of opinion among management in the United States. So managers believe earnestly in a middle ground where management and labor can look objectively at their common problems and share their ideas for harmonious relations. Some managers deny just as earnestly that reconciliation is possible or desirable.

This will be the subject for discussion in a union-management conference, if preliminary conversations are fruitful. It would be tragic if a conference were held and failed. It would shatter the hope of harmony in U.S. industrialism.

The Once Over

By H. I. Phillips

Now there is "payola" in romance, elopements and honeymoons. "Life" begins at 40 but will give 50 and more if elopers hold out. Gambie Benedict and Andre Porumbeanu had their love story written, directed and routed by magazine, which also gets credit for additional dialogue, costuming, incidental music and scenic effects.

Other publications, including newspapers, have often arranged for "exclusives" of news events, but Henry Luce is first to pitch a shutout.

Even Gambie and Andre had trouble finding out where they were and what they were doing. They couldn't get any information from the press, the courts, the probation officers, mayors or license bureau officials.

THEY WERE THE FIRST big-time elopers to answer every unidentified phone inquiry, "What's new?" with "I can't say until I check my contract." Everything was made easy and fast for the couple. Only grandma, the courts and unofficial photographers had worries.

Porumbeanu may have his faults but he seems to be the first businessman to list an elopment as a corporate interest. One thing Grannie Benedict did was to cancel her "Life" subscription. Love can be wonderful if you tie it into a circulation stunt. Who needs rich relatives or a regular job? Important question: If the marriage turns out unhappily can the couple sue Henry Luce?

Mr. and Mrs. Porumbeanu may sell their story for a novel and movie. "Ben Hurry," we presume. This romance has elements of slapstick, sophisticated comedy, tragedy and farce, with aspects of Keystone Comedy chases, Highway Patrol and most "westerns."

"They went thattaway." — "Only the Indians can stop us now, my gal." — "Who's riding stagecoach with all this gold?" — "They found the horses at the pass but were late locating the riders.")

If the couple ever settle in Florida, Porumbeanu should be at home. He has persistence, big ideas, self-confidence, playboy personality and ambition. It isn't hard to picture him launching a project called "Porumbeanu Isles."

ADLAI STEVENSON'S skimmer is not only floating over the ring but sending back beep-beeps . . . Bandit shoved a note "This is a stickup" into a teller's window, got the reply, "I have no money" and left with a polite "Okay, let me have the note back." (Your Friendly Bank Robber.)

Edward Mulhare, star of "My Fair Lady" got three parking tickets just before the takeoff for Moscow. He was evidently singing, "I could have parked all night." . . . The story of Noah and the ark is to be done on TV. Will this mean taking aboard two of each commercial?

ANDRE SPEAKS

Come live with me and be my love
And we will all the headlines range,
Some magazine will see to it
That grandma's money seems small change.

Connecticut, which for years had no definite speed law and merely asked "reasonable care," is urged by Governor Ribicoff to scrap the idea and fix the speed limit. It's been a long time since any state could let life and health depend on reasonability. Not only are all American roads jammed with folks driving after a few superficial tests in which they have learned little, but all respect for fundamental decencies seems to have disappeared. (Give an auto driver an inch and he will take a life.)

A Bomb Is No Joke

Ever since it was established that one or more airliner crashes were caused by planted bombs, this country has turned up a rash of smart alecks who think it's funny to warn of a "bomb" aboard an airliner.

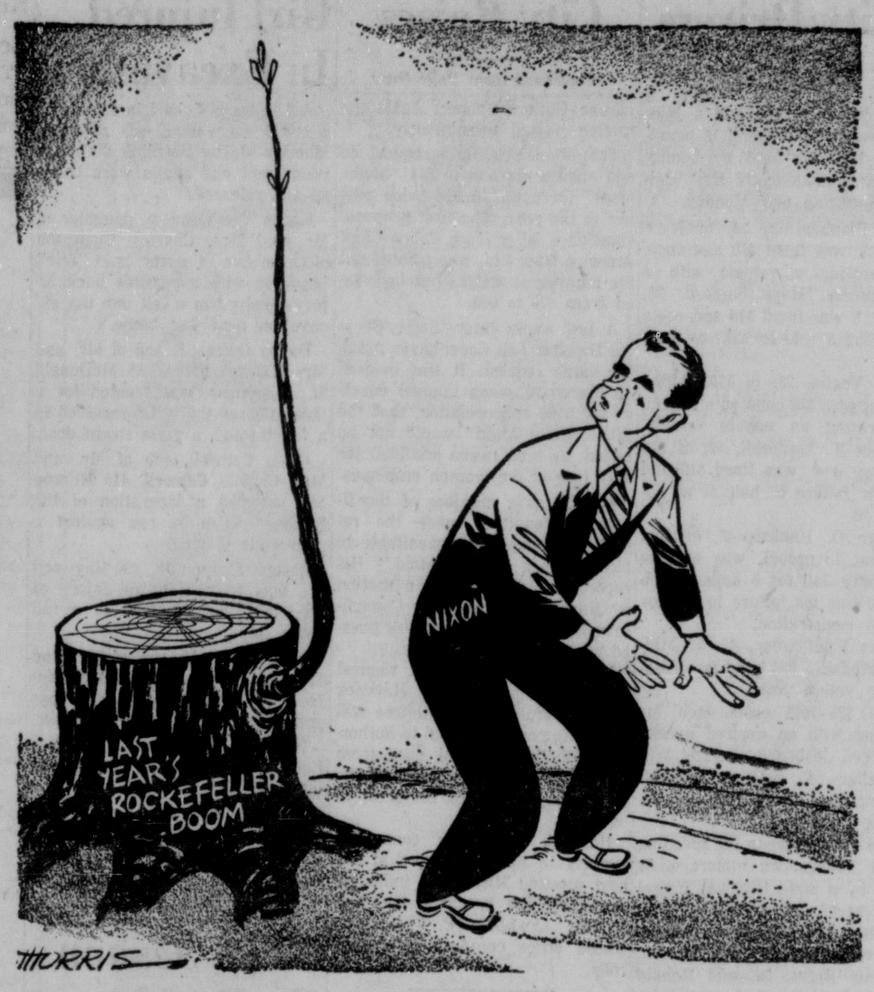

The FBI has taken them in hand. It is a federal offense to make a false bomb report.

We suppose we'll always have a few smart alecks with us. It's not so bad when they confine their jokes to April Fool pranks or other harmless attempts at humor.

But bombs in airplanes are not funny. They are murder. A mere report of such an incident sets in motion a search that consumes literally dozens of man-hours of tedious work, plus inconvenience and delay for the innocent victims of the ill-conceived joke.

If anyone has knowledge of a bomb aboard an airliner, the airlines want to be informed about it, of course. But a false report is no joke. It is tragic. It deserves punishment severe enough to eliminate such crude pranks.

Strike Ties Up Navy's Modernization

By Victor Riesel

BOSTON

Landlocked by a strike in the nearby Quincy dockyards are five ships, some of them nuclear fighters, "vital" to the United States. It's that blunt speaking seafarer, Adm. Arleigh Burke, Chief of Naval Operations, who says they're vital. Yet the ships have been tied up by a 12-week strike of shipbuilders against Bethlehem Steel—in what is really a repeat performance of the 116-day big steel strike. The issues are the same. And they leave Adm. Burke and the whole Defense Department helpless.

Victor Riesel

The admiral wants those ships finished and out of the Bethlehem yards so he can move five others in. And when those are converted he'll move in another batch.

It was all on a tight timetable—until the strike hit last Jan. 23. Now the modernization of the entire U.S. fleet has been knocked off schedule.

This disturbs the admiral. His charts show that fully 70 per cent of the American fleet is of World War II vintage. This puts it ahead of the Swiss Navy, but not fit to live much longer in this third year of the spatial age. So every ship that can take it is being modernized and nuclearized by repair and conversion.

AS SOON AS one ship is modernized, it makes room for another craft in some dock. For example, the cruiser Springfield in the Quincy yards—the headquarters of Bethlehem's shipbuilding and its central technical department for research and design—is due on the high seas this fall. If it isn't, there will be a watery hole in one of our world defense stratagems.

Add to all this the tightening of the belts, pocketbooks and family plans of some 17,000 members of the striking Industrial Union of Marine and Shipbuilding Workers, led by Hoboken's Mayor John Grogan. And add to this the squeeze on the various communities' commercial life and prosperity. And the fact that 105 congressmen have asked the White House for intervention by setting up a fact finding board.

Also, the company is suing 106 union officials and members. Throw in a series of court injunctions against all sides. You find everybody suffering and millions being lost.

Why is this industrial civil war being fought? The answer is in what is known as the company's "White Book," issued last Aug. 13. It is the steel strike issue being fought almost unnoticed by the rest of the country, unfortunately lost in the smoke of that other war known as the political primaries.

LAST AUGUST the Bethlehem Steel Co. put its White Book in effect at its shipyards—and said that it was the management and it wanted the full right to manage. It said that past practices were out.

The White Book asserted, "We are perfectly willing to negotiate and sign an agreement that spells out what we are agreeing to, but we are unwilling to be bound by shadowy past practices."

The company said it wanted the right from now on to assign mechanics where work was available without the union tangling it up in a series of grievances. It wanted the right to have its supervisors do work without having to pay a union man for the work done by the supervisor and not by the standby worker.

It wanted the losers to pay the cost of arbitration where arbitrators were called in to settle a grievance.

They wanted the right to eliminate holiday pay when the holiday fell on Saturday and the workers were entitled only to the usual Saturday rate.

THERE WERE SCORES of such changes from the old contract. What especially angered the union was the company decision to retain workers on the basis of "skill and efficiency" rather than "skill and ability." This gives the company the right to decide who shall be laid off instead of going strictly by seniority.

The union charged, "Bethlehem's arrogant refusal to bargain in good faith or to abandon its White Book or give up its insistence that we live without job security and surrender our most precious rights brought bargaining to a standstill."

Once again the issue which stirred the land just a few months ago is raised—and should not be forgotten. How can the public best be served by devising a law which can end such bitter strikes with justice to both sides? And why has the issue been forgotten in Washington?

Goodwill And Civil War

By James Marlow

WASHINGTON

If the Red Chinese leaders talked to one another in private conversation the way they talk to one another in print, there'd be nothing to worry about. They'd bore themselves to death.

Actually, they're talking out of both sides of their mouths.

Communist China's Premier Chou En-lai is on a goodwill tour of Southern Asia at a time when Red Flag, the theoretical journal of his party's Central Committee, is preaching civil war in non-Communist countries.

Chou's journey is a fence-mending expedition. Red China's southern neighbors were disillusioned, revolted and frightened by her brutal crushing and occupation of Tibet.

The opening sentence of a piece in a recent issue of Red Flag set the tone for one of the finest collections of second-rate Communist jargon outside a library: "Lenin taught us that in the era of imperialism, the system of imperialism is the source of war."

From that premise Red Flag went on to argue that since imperialism means war, the United States is bent on war, big and small, because the United States is imperialistic.

It is a lengthy and almost incredible array of Marxist cliches, the kind the Soviets worked to death when the Russian revolution was still fairly new. Premier Nikita Khrushchev reversed this, offering molasses instead of vinegar.

After all, Khrushchev had been a revolutionary more than 40 years. For him the revolution was settling down. By contrast the Red Chinese sound as primitive as the early Bolsheviks.

But Red Flag's growling—when repeated by the leadership in newspapers and over the radio but in simpler language — conditions the Chinese masses for war when the leadership pulls the trigger.

It keeps alive the idea of war by communism to prevent the kind of war Red Flag says the "imperialists" want. But it does more than that. It encourages civil war among the non-Communist countries.

In this Red Flag — and thus the Red Chinese leaders — seems to be giving Khrushchev a backhanded rebuke for failing to be as belligerent as the Chinese leaders think he should be.

It said: "To repudiate civil war, or to forget about it, would mean sinking into extreme opportunism and renouncing the Socialist revolution."

When Khrushchev visited Red China last September — after talking with President Eisenhower here — he told the leaders that renunciation of war is an urgent need.

The most likely place for civil war — and the most profitable from Red China's view, since it would extend her domination — would be among her Southern Asian neighbors.

And just as if telling Khrushchev to go peddle his peaceful fish somewhere else, on the day he talked of renouncing war, Defense Minister Marshal Lin Pa Piao told Red China's armed forces in an order of the day: "We will without fail liberate Formosa and the coastal islands" held by the Nationalist Chinese.

Neo-Nazi Ties Watched

By Omer Anderson

BONN

The Bonn government is looking into the ties — fraternal or otherwise — which are developing between veterans of the Condor Legion and the Spanish Blue Division.

Hitler sent the Condor Legion to fight in the Spanish Civil War on the side of Generalissimo Francisco Franco's insurgents. The Spanish Civil War has been called Hitler's "laboratory" for World War II, and the Condor Legion, composed of crack young officers and technicians the Nazis desired to train under actual combat, rendered invaluable assistance to Franco's cause.

When Hitler attacked the Soviet Union, Franco hastened to repay the "moral debt" represented by the Condor Legion. Franco organized the Blue Division to fight in Russia alongside the wehrmacht.

In fact, the Spanish Blue Division fought to the end in Russia, Franco replacing its casualties.

NOW, ON THE HEELS of West German approaches to Spain for Bundeswehr depots and training facilities, the Bonn government has learned that veterans of the Condor Legion and the Blue Division have organized a "mutual aid" society with political overtones.

There are charges that the two organizations have joined forces to conduct neo - Nazi propaganda. Many odious Hitlerites ducked beyond Allied reach to Spain after the Nazi collapse in 1945.

It is charged they are now working with pro - Nazi Spanish Falangists to succor West Germany's neo-Nazis through the Condor Legion.

Chancellor Konrad Adenauer's government is nettled because of the Nazi veterans' conspicuous effort to impart political significance to the Bonn defense ministry's Spanish base feelers.

Such unfounded innuendo is playing into the hands of anti-German propagandists. Adenauer's government is all the more nettled because of evidence during West Germany's recent spate of anti-semitism that the anti-semites were receiving encouragement from prominent ex-Nazis now based in Spain.

Core Of The Race Issue

By David Lawrence

Intermarriage Seen As Major Factor

Billy Graham's Easter message about race relations in America contains many significant passages. The world evangelist, just back from a tour of Africa, says the most burning issue of modern times is the race question, that people are discussing it all over the world and that it is not confined to South Africa or to the South in the United States. He says: "Wherever two races, nationalities or cultures live side by side there are tensions and problems."

David Lawrence

The real issue is one of mutual adjustment — whether it shall be forced, or follow the paths of evolution.

"The Bible" says Billy Graham, "recognizes that each individual has the right to choose his own friendships and social relationships. I am convinced that forced integration will never work. You cannot make two races love each other and accept each other at the point of bayonets. It must come from the heart if it is to be successful. Otherwise, we can build walls of hatred and prejudice that will take generations to overcome.

"Christ said that our problems come from within: 'Out of the heart are the issues of life.' The Supreme Court can make all the decisions it feels are necessary; but, unless they are implemented by goodwill, love and understanding, great harm will be done.

"I AM EQUALLY convinced that 'Jim Crow' must go. It is absolutely ridiculous to refuse food or a night's lodging to a man on the basis of skin color. There are many cultured, refined, educated Negroes, Indians or Mexicans, who are insulted as human beings when they cannot get a decent place to sleep in many parts of our country."

The evangelist says that some clergymen of both races have unwisely made the "race issue" their gospel and that it is more important to create an atmosphere "where all racial differences can be settled and love can prevail." He added:

"This doesn't mean that the race problem is not to be preached and taught — but it is not to be our 'gospel' nor are we to judge a man's relationship to God solely on the basis of his attitude on the race question.

"The issue in America has moral, social and political implications. Sometimes these questions are extremely complicated — and equally devout men see them somewhat differently. The Christian life requires growth by education and communion with God."

Unfortunately too many people who want to see the race problem solved overnight are too impatient. They cry out that they have "waited long enough," and they, therefore, approve of those who take the law into their own hands by inciting provocative demonstrations. Yet only a few years ago the lynch mobs felt the same way and wouldn't let the law take its course. Today lynchings are rare.

THE CORE, however, of the race problem — intermarriage—is not often touched on by those who argue publicly about the theory of "integration."

Anybody who has discussed this subject with fairminded Southerners will find that mere refusal to serve Negroes and white at the same lunch counter is in itself not the issue. Nor is the question of mere attendance of Negroes and white in the same school rooms the underlying obstacle. The possibility of intermarriage is the basic fear of those who oppose "integration."

Not long ago this writer had lunch with a prominent Negro who is one of the leading editors of a self-governing country in Central Africa. When asked about intermarriage as a problem in his country, he answered that it was forbidden by law and that he heartily approved of the ban. His reasons were based on pride of race.

There have been suggestions that here in America segregation in public schools by sexes might come in time with white boys and Negro boys attending the same classes while separately white girls and Negro girls were studying together.

CRITICS of this idea say it wouldn't help matters much because Negro boys would doubtless be invited by white boys to their homes or Negro girls would become chums of white girls and inevitably at the home there would be social relationships which could develop intermarriage problems.

The people who feel deepest about the race question speak of the intermarriage issue as superseding all else. They say that controversies about lunchrooms and schools are mere symptoms of the larger conflict on the intermarriage question.

There have been some intermarriages between whites and Negroes in America but more unions between whites and members of the yellow races. It is on this subject that the men in the pulpit will be called upon more and more to define the application of their doctrines of human love so that worried mothers and fathers living in areas where non-whites predominate can be given some answer consistent with the teaching of Christian love.

Letter To The Editor

Glory and honor to the Junior Chamber of Commerce for an unprecendented contribution to the moral and spiritual health of this city.

On their own, they initiated the project of the Community Easter Sunrise Service held at Patterson Field on Easter morning. By doing so they lent a strong hand to the ministers of the city, who long have wished for such an exhibition of united Christian witness, but who, because of the extra and arduous duties of the season, have been prevented from expending time on the many physical details involved.

It was a highly successful service, not only from the point of view of a satisfying attendance, but because of the fresh new and stirring inspiration felt by everyone. Even the unprogrammed spontaneous ejaculation from a brother in the stands spoke as a guiding voice and provoked food for thought.

Patterson Field has seen, I suppose, as many as 4,000 people watching 22 high school boys grunting, sweating, mauling and pushing each other around on the grass and sometimes in the mud. However, pleasurable such a spectacle may be at the moment, one cannot help asking the question, to what end?

But suppose 4,000 Christian Church members decided they could forget for one hour the minor denominational differences that separate them, and unite on the one great fact and hope on which they all stand, the resurrection of Jesus Christ; would such an action be without end and to no avail?

It is true that while such a massive demonstration of Christian witness might not produce an immediate renewal of faith, it is nonetheless true and certain that it would produce a sense of purpose and hope that would overflow the limits of this city and bring to light every where again the real values on which any ongoing and enduring society of men must be built.

Perhaps, Easter was just a new hat, or the beginning of the major league baseball season, but in East Liverpool Easter did make a difference, and that was in the seed of hope and faith planted by the Junior Chamber of Commerce. We would be poor indeed as a city without them.

The Department of Labor and the Department of Commerce have been doing spadework. They have been as busy with preparations for a summit conference for harmony in industrialism in the United States as the State Department has been with plans for a summit conference for harmony in international relations.

THIS WILL be a showdown on a proposition that never has been tackled in the United States — the proposition that in a people's capitalism there is no reason for the industrial warfare carried on bitterly by generations of Europeans. The United States can be different, because the industrialism it has evolved is different.

It does not have to cripple itself repeatedly with clashes between labor and management, because in the American enterprise system the worker has a personal stake in the success of management; he is, himself, an owner by virtue of his savings, his insurance, investments, fringe benefits and the privilege of bearing management responsibilities.

Mr. Meany is not the first labor leader to think about these things, but his position as president of AFL-CIO gives his thoughts special weight and meaning. Inside AFL-CIO he has been at odds with other labor leaders who prefer the techniques of open industrial warfare; who insist there is no other way.

THERE IS THE same division of opinion among management in the United States. So managers believe earnestly in a middle ground where management and labor can look objectively at their common problems and share their ideas for harmonious relations. Some managers deny just as earnestly that reconciliation is possible or desirable.

This will be the subject for discussion in a union-management conference, if preliminary conversations are fruitful. It would be tragic if a conference were held and failed. It would shatter the hope of harmony in U.S. industrialism.

The Once Over

By H. I. Phillips

Now there is "payola" in romance, elopements and honeymoons. "Life" begins at 40 but will give 50 and more if elopers hold out. Gambie Benedict and Andre Porumbeanu had their love story written, directed and routed by magazine, which also gets credit for additional dialogue, costuming, incidental music and scenic effects.

Other publications, including newspapers, have often arranged for "exclusives" of news events, but Henry Luce is first to pitch a shutout.

Even Gambie and Andre had trouble finding out where they were and what they were doing. They couldn't get any information from the press, the courts, the probation officers, mayors or license bureau officials.

THEY WERE THE FIRST big-time elopers to answer every unidentified phone inquiry, "What's new?" with "I can't say until I check my contract." Everything was made easy and fast for the couple. Only grandma, the courts and unofficial photographers had worries.

Porumbeanu may have his faults but he seems to be the first businessman to list an elopment as a corporate interest. One thing Grannie Benedict did was to cancel her "Life" subscription. Love can be wonderful if you tie it into a circulation stunt. Who needs rich relatives or a regular job? Important question: If the marriage turns out unhappily can the couple sue Henry Luce?

Mr. and Mrs. Porumbeanu may sell their story for a novel and movie. "Ben Hurry," we presume. This romance has elements of slapstick, sophisticated comedy, tragedy and farce, with aspects of Keystone Comedy chases, Highway Patrol and most "westerns."

"They went thattaway." — "Only the Indians can stop us now, my gal." — "Who's riding stagecoach with all this gold?" — "They found the horses at the pass but were late locating the riders.")

If the couple ever settle in Florida, Porumbeanu should be at home. He has persistence, big ideas, self-confidence, playboy personality and ambition. It isn't hard to picture him launching a project called "Porumbeanu Isles."

ADLAI STEVENSON'S skimmer is not only floating over the ring but sending back beep-beeps . . . Bandit shoved a note "This is a stickup" into a teller's window, got the reply, "I have no money" and left with a polite "Okay, let me have the note back." (Your Friendly Bank Robber.)

Edward Mulhare, star of "My Fair Lady" got three parking tickets just before the takeoff for Moscow. He was evidently singing, "I could have parked all night." . . . The story of Noah and the ark is to be done on TV. Will this mean taking aboard two of each commercial?

ANDRE SPEAKS

Come live with me and be my love
And we will all the headlines range,
Some magazine will see to it
That grandma's money seems small change.

Connecticut, which for years had no definite speed law and merely asked "reasonable care," is urged by Governor Ribicoff to scrap the idea and fix the speed limit. It's been a long time since any state could let life and health depend on reasonability. Not only are all American roads jammed with folks driving after a few superficial tests in which they have learned little, but all respect for fundamental decencies seems to have disappeared. (Give an auto driver an inch and he will take a life.)

A Bomb Is No Joke

Ever since it was established that one or more airliner crashes were caused by planted bombs, this country has turned up a rash of smart alecks who think it's funny to warn of a "bomb" aboard an airliner.

The FBI has taken them in hand. It is a federal offense to make a false bomb report.

We suppose we'll always have a few smart alecks with us. It's not so bad when they confine their jokes to April Fool pranks or other harmless attempts at humor.

But bombs in airplanes are not funny. They are murder. A mere report of such an incident sets in motion a search that consumes literally dozens of man-hours of tedious work, plus inconvenience and delay for the innocent victims of the ill-conceived joke.

If anyone has knowledge of a bomb aboard an airliner, the airlines want to be informed about it, of course. But a false report is no joke. It is tragic. It deserves punishment severe enough to eliminate such crude pranks.

Strike Ties Up Navy's Modernization

By Victor Riesel

BOSTON

Landlocked by a strike in the nearby Quincy dockyards are five ships, some of them nuclear fighters, "vital" to the United States. It's that blunt speaking seafarer, Adm. Arleigh Burke, Chief of Naval Operations, who says they're vital. Yet the ships have been tied up by a 12-week strike of shipbuilders against Bethlehem Steel—in what is really a repeat performance of the 116-day big steel strike. The issues are the same. And they leave Adm. Burke and the whole Defense Department helpless.

Victor Riesel

The admiral wants those ships finished and out of the Bethlehem yards so he can move five others in. And when those are converted he'll move in another batch.

It was all on a tight timetable—until the strike hit last Jan. 23. Now the modernization of the entire U.S. fleet has been knocked off schedule.

This disturbs the admiral. His charts show that fully 70 per cent of the American fleet is of World War II vintage. This puts it ahead of the Swiss Navy, but not fit to live much longer in this third year of the spatial age. So every ship that can take it is being modernized and nuclearized by repair and conversion.

AS SOON AS one ship is modernized, it makes room for another craft in some dock. For example, the cruiser Springfield in the Quincy yards—the headquarters of Bethlehem's shipbuilding and its central technical department for research and design—is due on the high seas this fall. If it isn't, there will be a watery hole in one of our world defense stratagems.

Add to all this the tightening of the belts, pocketbooks and family plans of some 17,000 members of the striking Industrial Union of Marine and Shipbuilding Workers, led by Hoboken's Mayor John Grogan. And add to this the squeeze on the various communities' commercial life and prosperity. And the fact that 105 congressmen have asked the White House for intervention by setting up a fact finding board.

Also, the company is suing 106 union officials and members. Throw in a series of court injunctions against all sides. You find everybody suffering and millions being lost.

Why is this industrial civil war being fought? The answer is in what is known as the company's "White Book," issued last Aug. 13. It is the steel strike issue being fought almost unnoticed by the rest of the country, unfortunately lost in the smoke of that other war known as the political primaries.

LAST AUGUST the Bethlehem Steel Co. put its White Book in effect at its shipyards—and said that it was the management and it wanted the full right to manage. It said that past practices were out.

The White Book asserted, "We are perfectly willing to negotiate and sign an agreement that spells out what we are agreeing to, but we are unwilling to be bound by shadowy past practices."

The company said it wanted the right from now on to assign mechanics where work was available without the union tangling it up in a series of grievances. It wanted the right to have its supervisors do work without having to pay a union man for the work done by the supervisor and not by the standby worker.

It wanted the losers to pay the cost of arbitration where arbitrators were called in to settle a grievance.

They wanted the right to eliminate holiday pay when the holiday fell on Saturday and the workers were entitled only to the usual Saturday rate.

THERE WERE SCORES of such changes from the old contract. What especially angered the union was the company decision to retain workers on the basis of "skill and efficiency" rather than "skill and ability." This gives the company the right to decide who shall be laid off instead of going strictly by seniority.

The union charged, "Bethlehem's arrogant refusal to bargain in good faith or to abandon its White Book or give up its insistence that we live without job security and surrender our most precious rights brought bargaining to a standstill."

Once again the issue which stirred the land just a few months ago is raised—and should not be forgotten. How can the public best be served by devising a law which can end such bitter strikes with justice to both sides? And why has the issue been forgotten in Washington?

Goodwill And Civil War

By James Marlow

WASHINGTON

If the Red Chinese leaders talked to one another in private conversation the way they talk to one another in print, there'd be nothing to worry about. They'd bore themselves to death.

Actually, they're talking out of both sides of their mouths.

Communist China's Premier Chou En-lai is on a goodwill tour of Southern Asia at a time when Red Flag, the theoretical journal of his party's Central Committee, is preaching civil war in non-Communist countries.

Chou's journey is a fence-mending expedition. Red China's southern neighbors were disillusioned, revolted and frightened by her brutal crushing and occupation of Tibet.

The opening sentence of a piece in a recent issue of Red Flag set the tone for one of the finest collections of second-rate Communist jargon outside a library: "Lenin taught us that in the era of imperialism, the system of imperialism is the source of war."

From that premise Red Flag went on to argue that since imperialism means war, the United States is bent on war, big and small, because the United States is imperialistic.

It is a lengthy and almost incredible array of Marxist cliches, the kind the Soviets worked to death when the Russian revolution was still fairly new. Premier Nikita Khrushchev reversed this, offering molasses instead of vinegar.

After all, Khrushchev had been a revolutionary more than 40 years. For him the revolution was settling down. By contrast the Red Chinese sound as primitive as the early Bolsheviks.

But Red Flag's growling—when repeated by the leadership in newspapers and over the radio but in simpler language — conditions the Chinese masses for war when the leadership pulls the trigger.

It keeps alive the idea of war by communism to prevent the kind of war Red Flag says the "imperialists" want. But it does more than that. It encourages civil war among the non-Communist countries.

In this Red Flag — and thus the Red Chinese leaders — seems to be giving Khrushchev a backhanded rebuke for failing to be as belligerent as the Chinese leaders think he should be.

It said: "To repudiate civil war, or to forget about it, would mean sinking into extreme opportunism and renouncing the Socialist revolution."

When Khrushchev visited Red China last September — after talking with President Eisenhower here — he told the leaders that renunciation of war is an urgent need.

The most likely place for civil war — and the most profitable from Red China's view, since it would extend her domination — would be among her Southern Asian neighbors.

And just as if telling Khrushchev to go peddle his peaceful fish somewhere else, on the day he talked of renouncing war, Defense Minister Marshal Lin Pa Piao told Red China's armed forces in an order of the day: "We will without fail liberate Formosa and the coastal islands" held by the Nationalist Chinese.

Neo-Nazi Ties Watched

By Omer Anderson

BONN

The Bonn government is looking into the ties — fraternal or otherwise — which are developing between veterans of the Condor Legion and the Spanish Blue Division.

Hitler sent the Condor Legion to fight in the Spanish Civil War on the side of Generalissimo Francisco Franco's insurgents. The Spanish Civil War has been called Hitler's "laboratory" for World War II, and the Condor Legion, composed of crack young officers and technicians the Nazis desired to train under actual combat, rendered invaluable assistance to Franco's cause.

When Hitler attacked the Soviet Union, Franco hastened to repay the "moral debt" represented by the Condor Legion. Franco organized the Blue Division to fight in Russia alongside the wehrmacht.

In fact, the Spanish Blue Division fought to the end in Russia, Franco replacing its casualties.

NOW, ON THE HEELS of West German approaches to Spain for Bundeswehr depots and training facilities, the Bonn government has learned that veterans of the Condor Legion and the Blue Division have organized a "mutual aid" society with political overtones.

There are charges that the two organizations have joined forces to conduct neo-Nazi propaganda. Many odious Hitlerites ducked beyond Allied reach to Spain after the Nazi collapse in 1945.

It is charged they are now working with pro-Nazi Spanish Falangists to succor West Germany's neo-Nazis through the Condor Legion.

Chancellor Konrad Adenauer's government is nettled because of the Nazi veterans' conspicuous effort to impart political significance to the Bonn defense ministry's Spanish base feelers.

Such unfounded innuendo is playing into the hands of anti-German propagandists. Adenauer's government is all the more nettled because of evidence during West Germany's recent spate of anti-semitism that the anti-semites were receiving encouragement from prominent ex-Nazis now based in Spain.

Core Of The Race Issue

By David Lawrence

Intermarriage Seen As Major Factor

Billy Graham's Easter message about race relations in America contains many significant passages. The world evangelist, just back from a tour of Africa, says the most burning issue of modern times is the race question, that people are discussing it all over the world and that it is not confined to South Africa or to the South in the United States. He says: "Wherever two races, nationalities or cultures live side by side there are tensions and problems."

David Lawrence

The real issue is one of mutual adjustment — whether it shall be forced, or follow the paths of evolution.

"The Bible" says Billy Graham, "recognizes that each individual has the right to choose his own friendships and social relationships. I am convinced that forced integration will never work. You cannot make two races love each other and accept each other at the point of bayonets. It must come from the heart if it is to be successful. Otherwise, we can build walls of hatred and prejudice that will take generations to overcome.

"Christ said that our problems come from within: 'Out of the heart are the issues of life.' The Supreme Court can make all the decisions it feels are necessary; but, unless they are implemented by goodwill, love and understanding, great harm will be done.

"I AM EQUALLY convinced that 'Jim Crow' must go. It is absolutely ridiculous to refuse food or a night's lodging to a man on the basis of skin color. There are many cultured, refined, educated Negroes, Indians or Mexicans, who are insulted as human beings when they cannot get a decent place to sleep in many parts of our country."

The evangelist says that some clergymen of both races have unwisely made the "race issue" their gospel and that it is more important to create an atmosphere "where all racial differences can be settled and love can prevail." He added:

"This doesn't mean that the race problem is not to be preached and taught — but it is not to be our 'gospel' nor are we to judge a man's relationship to God solely on the basis of his attitude on the race question.

"The issue in America has moral, social and political implications. Sometimes these questions are extremely complicated — and equally devout men see them somewhat differently. The Christian life requires growth by education and communion with God."

Unfortunately too many people who want to see the race problem solved overnight are too impatient. They cry out that they have "waited long enough," and they, therefore, approve of those who take the law into their own hands by inciting provocative demonstrations. Yet only a few years ago the lynch mobs felt the same way and wouldn't let the law take its course. Today lynchings are rare.

THE CORE, however, of the race problem — intermarriage—is not often touched on by those who argue publicly about the theory of "integration."

Anybody who has discussed this subject with fairminded Southerners will find that mere refusal to serve Negroes and white at the same lunch counter is in itself not the issue. Nor is the question of mere attendance of Negroes and white in the same school rooms the underlying obstacle. The possibility of intermarriage is the basic fear of those who oppose "integration."

Not long ago this writer had lunch with a prominent Negro who is one of the leading editors of a self-governing country in Central Africa. When asked about intermarriage as a problem in his country, he answered that it was forbidden by law and that he heartily approved of the ban. His reasons were based on pride of race.

There have been suggestions that here in America segregation in public schools by sexes might come in time with white boys and Negro boys attending the same classes while separately white girls and Negro girls were studying together.

CRITICS of this idea say it wouldn't help matters much because Negro boys would doubtless be invited by white boys to their homes or Negro girls would become chums of white girls and inevitably at the home there would be social relationships which could develop intermarriage problems.

The people who feel deepest about the race question speak of the intermarriage issue as superseding all else. They say that controversies about lunchrooms and schools are mere symptoms of the larger conflict on the intermarriage question.

There have been some intermarriages between whites and Negroes in America but more unions between whites and members of the yellow races. It is on this subject that the men in the pulpit will be called upon more and more to define the application of their doctrines of human love so that worried mothers and fathers living in areas where non-whites predominate can be given some answer consistent with the teaching of Christian love.

Letter To The Editor

Glory and honor to the Junior Chamber of Commerce for an unprecendented contribution to the moral and spiritual health of this city.

On their own, they initiated the project of the Community Easter Sunrise Service held at Patterson Field on Easter morning. By doing so they lent a strong hand to the ministers of the city, who long have wished for such an exhibition of united Christian witness, but who, because of the extra and arduous duties of the season, have been prevented from expending time on the many physical details involved.

It was a highly successful service, not only from the point of view of a satisfying attendance, but because of the fresh new and stirring inspiration felt by everyone. Even the unprogrammed spontaneous ejaculation from a brother in the stands spoke as a guiding voice and provoked food for thought.

Patterson Field has seen, I suppose, as many as 4,000 people watching 22 high school boys grunting, sweating, mauling and pushing each other around on the grass and sometimes in the mud. However, pleasurable such a spectacle may be at the moment, one cannot help asking the question, to what end?

But suppose 4,000 Christian Church members decided they could forget for one hour the minor denominational differences that separate them, and unite on the one great fact and hope on which they all stand, the resurrection of Jesus Christ; would such an action be without end and to no avail?

It is true that while such a massive demonstration of Christian witness might not produce an immediate renewal of faith, it is nonetheless true and certain that it would produce a sense of purpose and hope that would overflow the limits of this city and bring to light every where again the real values on which any ongoing and enduring society of men must be built.

Perhaps, Easter was just a new hat, or the beginning of the major league baseball season, but in East Liverpool Easter did make a difference, and that was in the seed of hope and faith planted by the Junior Chamber of Commerce. We would be poor indeed as a city without them.

Atomic Plant 'Reseeding' Outlined In Jaycees Talk

The process involved in the second "seeding," or refueling, of the Shippingport Atomic Energy plant, which was completed just over a week ago, was outlined by Marks Forssell, manager of the Shippingport branch of the Atomic Energy Commission, at a meeting of the Junior Chamber of Commerce Monday night at the Travelers Hotel.

Forssell, a Jaycee, said the refueling was completed April 11 and the tests were started April 12. The initial charge was placed in December 1957.

He said the process took longer than it would in a regular power unit because of all the test equipment which has to be removed to reach the enriched uranium core of the reactor.

He said much new testing equipment has been installed at the plant. The primary idea is to burn the fuel as fast as possible so it can be determined what inovations are needed to improve the unit and to prove various theories.

The primary equipment in the Shippingport plant was never manufactured before. The secondary equipment is the same as used at any other electric plant.

Forssell traced the "nuclear power industry" from its beginning 21 years ago. He said the process of fission, the breaking of certain elements, was developed in Europe in 1939. Tests soon started in the United States and after 3 years it was discovered energy could be created.

The first experiments were to produce material for a bomb. The first activated pile was built from uranium to gain plutonium. In July 1945, the first atomic bomb was exploded in New Mexico. The next goal set was to develop a power plant and attempt to convert the controlled reaction into power.

Adm. Hyman Rickover, then a captain, wanted to use the power in a submarine because to make a sub a true submersible vehicle, it should be completely free of the earth's atmosphere, Forssell continued.

Atomic energy was believed the answer and by 1954 the Nautilus, the first atomic powered sub, was at sea.

He also screened a color movie on the building of the components, the actual construction of the plant itself and on the principal behind the reactor.

Jaycees and their wives will be taken on a tour of the plant Sunday afternoon by Forssell. The time has not been definitely set.

Harry Greenwood, a member of the Citizens Committee for Better Schools, urged backing of the new school levies which will appear on the May primary ballot.

Greenwood said the local district is paying only 47 per cent of the operating budget of the schools at the present time. The state pays the remainder.

Reports were heard on the Motorama to be held May 7-8, the annual post-prom party May 13 at the Memorial Auditorium, the Teenage Road-E-O driving contest May 15, and the junior golf tournament June 20 at the Country Club.

Robert Lewis, chairman, reminded members the stocks and bonds forums will begin tonight at 7:30 at Westgate School.

Ed Adkins, president, said an innerclub golf tournament for members will be held in May.

A square dance for members and their wives will be held Friday, April 29, at the Calcutta fire hall. A coverdish dinner will be held at 6:30 and the dance will begin at 9.

George Hales, membership chairman, inducted four new members, Jack Chapman, Tom Osborn, Charles Dunlevy and James Moore.

He also presented passcases to members who signed new members during a recent campaign. Hales announced a second orientation program for new members will be held April 27 at the Chamber of Commerce office.

The Board of Directors will meet May 2 at the Chamber office. The next general membership meeting will be May 16.

Wreck Injuries Fatal

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP) — Fritz Leisner, 56, of Toledo, was injured fatally today when his car went out of control near Bayview Park, struck a pole, overturned and pinned him inside.

Korea

The crowd approached the gate of Rhee's hilltop home. One hundred yards away 500 university students formed into solid ranks and dashed toward a barbed wire barricade. Up and over they swarmed, capturing four fire trucks.

Suddenly the rifles came up. A volley crashed. Volley after volley followed. Students fell. Students ran. Tear gas shells plopped down among the wounded.

Defying the strict military rule, armed demonstrators at nightfall attacked two police sentry boxes in the northeastern sector of Seoul. Three policemen were reported and many others wounded.

Men carrying rifles roamed Seoul's near-deserted streets, defying the curfew.

The martial law commander, Lt. Gen. Song Yo-chang, army chief of staff, appealed for order and reminded citizens that "Communist troops are poised in the North waiting anxiously for a return to strife."

The U. S. Embassy did not elaborate on "causes and grievances" but it obviously referred to widespread complaints against the election and police brutality.

This marked the first time the U.S. government had publicly acknowledged possible merit in the demonstrators' charges.

The demonstrations marked the gravest internal crisis of Syngman Rhee's 12 years of power in south Korean.

If the demonstrations go unchecked for any length of time, some observers felt, they could put the government of the 85-year old president in jeopardy.

The riots were set off by the March 15 election, which returned Rhee for a fourth term in office and elected his running mate Lee Ki-Poong — defeated four years ago on Korea's split ticket balloting—as vice president.

Opposition candidates claimed the elections were rigged. From the rioting, hundreds of thousands —probably millions—of Koreans believe it, too.

Martial law was clamped on the capital and its suburbs—and then extended to Pusan, Taegu, Taejon and Kwangju — after thousands of students and other anti-government demonstrators took over most of downtown Seoul in an uprising protesting the March 15 presidential election.

Police fired volley after volley to repulse a mob of 5,000 trying to storm Rhee's presidential palace. Later demonstrators got hold of rifles or carbines, and firing became general in the downtown streets.

The government announced 21 persons had been killed and 172 wounded, 27 of them critically.

Two Americans were among the injured. James Wilcox, an export-import man from Quincy, Mass., got two serious chest wounds as he watched the rioting from the roof of his nine-story hotel. Hugh Blaney, a civilian employe of the U.S. Army, was hit by a rock and was not hurt seriously.

Shooting continued into the night as the police tried to clear the streets of demonstrators and onlookers.

The martial law commander, Lt. Gen. Song Yo-chan, announced that an infantry division spearheaded by a tank company had arrived in the city. He called for an end to the demonstrations.

Thousands clashed with armed police in Pusan, South Korea's major port, and three demonstrators were reported killed and more than 10 injured. Adults joined 2,000 demonstrating high school students, and Korean press reports said the crowd swelled to 50,000.

About 10,000 students and townspeople attacked government offices and private houses in Kwangju, 200 miles south of Seoul. Police vainly tried to break up the attacks by firing warning shots at the demonstrators followed by tear gas shells and streams of water from firehoses.

There were no casualty figures available. The demonstration was still going on when local authorities imposed a news blackout at 7 p.m.

As dusk fell, a handful of students roamed the capital armed with carbines. Some fired into the streets from rooftops. Downtown Seoul crackled with bursts of rifle fire.

Hundreds of students roamed the streets, cheering comrades who tore by on fire trucks and cars snatched from government authorities.

Atomic Plant 'Reseeding' Outlined In Jaycees Talk

The process involved in the second "seeding," or refueling, of the Shippingport Atomic Energy plant, which was completed just over a week ago, was outlined by Marks Forssell, manager of the Shippingport branch of the Atomic Energy Commission, at a meeting of the Junior Chamber of Commerce Monday night at the Travelers Hotel.

Forssell, a Jaycee, said the refueling was completed April 11 and the tests were started April 12. The initial charge was placed in December 1957.

He said the process took longer than it would in a regular power unit because of all the test equipment which has to be removed to reach the enriched uranium core of the reactor.

He said much new testing equipment has been installed at the plant. The primary idea is to burn the fuel as fast as possible so it can be determined what inovations are needed to improve the unit and to prove various theories.

The primary equipment in the Shippingport plant was never manufactured before. The secondary equipment is the same as used at any other electric plant.

Forssell traced the "nuclear power industry" from its beginning 21 years ago. He said the process of fission, the breaking of certain elements, was developed in Europe in 1939. Tests soon started in the United States and after 3 years it was discovered energy could be created.

The first experiments were to produce material for a bomb. The first activated pile was built from uranium to gain plutonium. In July 1945, the first atomic bomb was exploded in New Mexico. The next goal set was to develop a power plant and attempt to convert the controlled reaction into power.

Adm. Hyman Rickover, then a captain, wanted to use the power in a submarine because to make a sub a true submersible vehicle, it should be completely free of the earth's atmosphere, Forssell continued.

Atomic energy was believed the answer and by 1954 the Nautilus, the first atomic powered sub, was at sea.

He also screened a color movie on the building of the components, the actual construction of the plant itself and on the principal behind the reactor.

Jaycees and their wives will be taken on a tour of the plant Sunday afternoon by Forssell. The time has not been definitely set.

Harry Greenwood, a member of the Citizens Committee for Better Schools, urged backing of the new school levies which will appear on the May primary ballot.

Greenwood said the local district is paying only 47 per cent of the operating budget of the schools at the present time. The state pays the remainder.

Reports were heard on the Motorama to be held May 7-8, the annual post-prom party May 13 at the Memorial Auditorium, the Teenage Road-E-O driving contest May 15, and the junior golf tournament June 20 at the Country Club.

Robert Lewis, chairman, reminded members the stocks and bonds forums will begin tonight at 7:30 at Westgate School.

Ed Adkins, president, said an innerclub golf tournament for members will be held in May.

A square dance for members and their wives will be held Friday, April 29, at the Calcutta fire hall. A coverdish dinner will be held at 6:30 and the dance will begin at 9.

George Hales, membership chairman, inducted four new members, Jack Chapman, Tom Osborn, Charles Dunlevy and James Moore.

He also presented passcases to members who signed new members during a recent campaign. Hales announced a second orientation program for new members will be held April 27 at the Chamber of Commerce office.

The Board of Directors will meet May 2 at the Chamber office. The next general membership meeting will be May 16.

Democrats To Meet

LISBON — The monthly meeting of the Central Lisbon Democratic Club will be held Wednesday at 8 p. m. in the Village Hall. Mrs. Mary Mellon of Lisbon R. D. 3, president, will preside.

Wreck Injuries Fatal

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP) — Fritz Leisner, 56, of Toledo, was injured fatally today when his car went out of control near Bayview Park, struck a pole, overturned and pinned him inside.

Korea

The crowd approached the gate of Rhee's hilltop home. One hundred yards away 500 university students formed into solid ranks and dashed toward a barbed wire barricade. Up and over they swarmed, capturing four fire trucks.

Suddenly the rifles came up. A volley crashed. Volley after volley followed. Students fell. Students ran. Tear gas shells plopped down among the wounded.

Defying the strict military rule, armed demonstrators at nightfall attacked two police sentry boxes in the northeastern sector of Seoul. Three policemen were reported and many others wounded.

Men carrying rifles roamed Seoul's near-deserted streets, defying the curfew.

The martial law commander, Lt. Gen. Song Yo-chang, army chief of staff, appealed for order and reminded citizens that "Communist troops are poised in the North waiting anxiously for a return to strife."

The U. S. Embassy did not elaborate on "causes and grievances" but it obviously referred to widespread complaints against the election and police brutality.

This marked the first time the U.S. government had publicly acknowledged possible merit in the demonstrators' charges.

The demonstrations marked the gravest internal crisis of Syngman Rhee's 12 years of power in south Korean.

If the demonstrations go unchecked for any length of time, some observers felt, they could put the government of the 85-year o'd president in jeopardy.

The riots were set off by the March 15 election, which returned Rhee for a fourth term in office and elected his running mate Lee Ki-Poong — defeated four years ago on Korea's split ticket balloting—as vice president.

Opposition candidates claimed the elections were rigged. From the rioting, hundreds of thousands —probably millions—of Koreans believe it, too.

Martial law was clamped on the capital and its suburbs—and then extended to Pusan, Taegu, Taejon and Kwangju — after thousands of students and other anti-government demonstrators took over most of downtown Seoul in an uprising protesting the March 15 presidential election.

Police fired volley after volley to repulse a mob of 5,000 trying to storm Rhee's presidential palace. Later demonstrators got hold of rifles or carbines, and firing became general in the downtown streets.

The government announced 21 persons had been killed and 172 wounded, 27 of them critically.

Two Americans were among the injured. James Wilcox, an export-import man from Quincy, Mass., got two serious chest wounds as he watched the rioting from the roof of his nine-story hotel. Hugh Blaney, a civilian employe of the U.S. Army, was hit by a rock and was not hurt seriously.

Shooting continued into the night as the police tried to clear the streets of demonstrators and onlookers.

The martial law commander, Lt. Gen. Song Yo-chan, announced that an infantry division spearheaded by a tank company had arrived in the city. He called for an end to the demonstrations.

Thousands clashed with armed police in Pusan, South Korea's major port, and three demonstrators were reported killed and more than 10 injured. Adults joined 2,000 demonstrating high school students, and Korean press reports said the crowd swelled to 50,000.

About 10,000 students and townspeople attacked government offices and private houses in Kwangju, 200 miles south of Seoul. Police vainly tried to break up the attacks by firing warning shots at the demonstrators followed by tear gas shells and streams of water from firehoses.

There were no casualty figures available. The demonstration was still going on when local authorities imposed a news blackout at 7 p.m.

As dusk fell, a handful of students roamed the capital armed with carbines. Some fired into the streets from rooftops. Downtown Seoul crackled with bursts of rifle fire.

Hundreds of students roamed the streets, cheering comrades who tore by on fire trucks and cars snatched from government authorities.

Authority Due For Purchase Of Chemicals

Council agreed Monday night to consider legislation at its meeting May 2 authorizing the Board of Public Utilities to buy a year's supply of chemicals for water purification and other material required by the water department.

In a letter to Council, W. O. Schneider, chairman of the board, requested authority to purchase 250 tons each of hydrate or pebble lime and aluminum sulfate, 50 tons of activated carbon, 18,000 pounds of liquid chlorine, 5,000 pounds of sodium chlorite and 100 water meters ranging in size from half-inch to 4 inches.

The board generally advertises for bids and lets contracts each spring for the chemicals and supplies it anticipates will be required by the department in the next 12 months. Council asked its ordinance committee to present the enabling legislation at the next meeting.

In other business, Council met in a caucus session with a delegation of contractors, who recommended adoption of a building code for East Liverpool.

Robert F. Beatty, architect, acting as spokesman for the committee, said it recommends enactment of the so-called Cleveland Regional Building Code, which is used by 34 communities in the Cleveland metropolitan area.

The group feels it is most suitable to East Liverpool because the regulations are adapted to Ohio law and are based on state building codes and recommendations of the National Board of Fire Underwirters, Beatty said.

He commented that East Liverpool is the largest city in Ohio without a building code. The proposed regulation would not take away the property-owners' right to make his own repairs and alterations, so long as he adhered to the regulations, he said. And the code would not effect existing structures except if they were remodeled or repaired, he added.

"If we continue to go along without a building code, we're downgrading ourselves," Beatty said.

Council now has two building code proposals to consider, as the City Planning Commission recently recommended adoption of a similar measure. Beatty's committee asked Council to study the newest proposal, pointing out it did not expect any immediate action.

Three bills against the city were referred to the claims committee. Mrs. Charlotte Plunkett, 432 W. Drury Ln., asked $74 for a plumbing bill. She said a blocked sewer at her home was worked upon March 25, but it was found the stoppage was in the city's main sewer, not the household line.

Mrs. Beulah Spahr, 812 McKinnon Ave., asked $75 for damage to furniture, appliances and other articles in her basement that she said were damaged when a clogged city sewer forded her cellar drain to back up. She said there was damage to furniture, a washing machine and a gas furnace.

Pete Commarata of W. 6th St. filed a bill for $22 for an auto spring which he said was broken April 8 on W. 8th St.

Councilman Robert Laughlin, chairman of the claims committee, reported rejection of four bills filed against the city earlier. They are: Don Wellington of Wellsville R. D. 1, who sought $6.88 for damage of his auto March 8 when he backed into a parking meter standard on E. 6th St. which he said projected over the pavement; John Mathias of Oakwood Ave., $41 for a tire on his auto, which he said was cut March 5 on Dresden Ave.; Mrs. Opal Patton of R. D. 2, $26 for a spring on her auto broken Jan. 6 on St. Clair Ave., and Russell Hall of Avondale St., $14.50 for a muffler on his auto which was damaged on Avondale St. March 4 when he ran over a big cinder which he said had been dumped off a city truck ashing streets.

The meeting opened with invocation by President Charles N. Edwards.

70 Hancock Students To Take History Test

Over 70 eighth graders in the Hancock County school system will take written tests on West Virginia history and government Saturday in an annual "Golden Horseshoe" contest.

The four top students will become eligible for a trip to Charleston May 13 and a tour of the state capitol and other interesting spots in the city.

The test Saturday morning at 9 in New Cumberland High School will be on history, geography, government and wild life of the Mountaineer State.

Each eighth grader in the county system took the preliminary test and over 70 become eligible for the second test.

Robert Lindsey, assistant county superintendent, will be in charge.

2 Boys Injured When Thrown From Bicycle

Two Shadyside Ave. brothers, 10 and 13, were injured when thrown over the handlebars of their bicycle at the foot of the Campground Rd. hill near the super-road Monday.

Tommy Schmidbauer, 10, son of Mrs. Sophia Schmidbauer, is in "fairly good" condition today at City Hospital with abrasions of the face and left knee and a laceration of the head.

His brother, John, was pedaling down the hill when the front wheel jammed, tossing both to the ground. John was treated for bruises of the ear and abrasions of the scalp and elbow.

Man Receives Fine, Term

LISBON—Two cases were dropped Monday in County Judge James L. MacDonald's court and another man was found guilty to a lesser charge.

Gene L. Barnes, 31, of Hanoverton R. D. 1, Dungannon, was found innocent of shooting with intent to kill or wound but was fined $100 and costs and sentenced to 6 months in the county jail for pointing and discharging firearms.

Judge MacDonald suspended the jail sentence on good behavior. Barnes was arrested Friday at 12:30 a. m. by Constables Roy Painter and Forrest Young of Hanoverton and Summitville after they were summoned by Robert Webber, 23, also of Hanoverton R. D. 1, a brother-in-law of the defendant. Two shots were fired by Barnes before he was disarmed by Constable Painter.

Mrs. Howard Donalley, 24, of Grant St., Lisbon, withdrew charges of assault against Robert Allen Fatherly, 24, of W. Maple St., Ext. before the scheduled hearing. Mrs. Donnalley had filed the charges Saturday morning against Fatherly.

Richard Dedomenic, 19, of Youngstown was freed in connection with the theft of a gallon of gasoline and a section of hose from McKarns Sales in Hanoverton.

He said he was driving home from college and ran out of gas in Hanoverton.

Judge MacDonald reprimanded the youth and his four passengers, advising all could have been charged with the offense. The boys made restitution for the gas and hose.

20 At Meeting Held For Calcutta Firemen

Twenty attended a meeting of Calcutta volunteer firemen Monday night when Chief Laverne Seckman presented reports of two fire alarms answered recently.

Firemen quelled a small fire Monday afternoon at 4 in a shed of T. A. Weir of the Bell School Rd. Damage was minor, firemen said.

About $500 damage occurred to a truck of Clarence Brown, a painter, on April 14. Brown was spraying paint inside the Calcutta school and the wind apparently blew rags against a manifold of a compressor igniting the blaze.

Dale Horger, vice president, presided. Firemen will continue to sponsor round and square dances each Saturday night from 9 to 12, Norman Neal, president, said.

Child, 9, Suffers Burns As Kerosene Ignites

A 9-year-old Westfield Rd. boy, burned by a flammable liquid which ignited his trousers at home Monday afternoon, is in "fair" condition today at City Hospital.

Mike Pelley, son of Mrs. Beverly Curtis, received burns of the legs when the liquid, apparently kerosene, ignited outside the home and set his clothing afire.

Glenmoor firemen, called to the scene, said the boy was alone at home with three other youngsters of the family. Fire Chief Robert Jones cautioned parents against leaving children at home without adult supervision.

The boy managed to pull off his trousers, according to firemen, who took him to the hospital.

Speakers Listed In 16 Fields For Lisbon High's Career Day

LISBON — Some 16 fields will be presented to the four upper grades in Lisbon High School's annual Vocational Guidance Day, Wednesday afternoon, according to Cornell Monda, chairman of the event sponsored by the Kiwanis club.

The Rev. Harold W. Ewing of Alliance will be the keynote speaker.

Thieves Take Gun And Coins

Theft of a .22-caliber revolver and $10 in coins was one of 3 cases of minor thievery and vandalism reported to police Monday afternoon and night.

A .22-caliber Smith & Wesson revolver on a .32-caliber frame and $10 in assorted coins were stolen yesterday from the home of Burt Robb, 1029 Huston Ave., the family complained to police at 5:10.

The theft occurred while the family was absent, police said, but there was no report of forcible entry.

Mrs. Nellie Houser, 1736 Etruria St., told police at 4:57 p. m. yesterday that thieves removed and destroyed a wooden cellar door from her home sometime Sunday while she was absent.

Vivian Crow of Pughtown told police a vandal damaged the right door of her 1959 model convertible Monday morning while it was parked on St. Clair Ave.

Pittsburgh Motorist Hurt Badly In Wreck

A Pittsburgh motorist was injured seriously Monday night when his car plunged over an embankment on Route 30 in Beaver County near the West Virginia state line.

Lawrence Baehn is in "poor" condition today at City Hospital with injuries suffered in the one-car mishap. He sustained fractures of the right elbow, shoulder and hip, lacerations of the right side of the face and scalp and a possible fractured skull.

Pennsylvania State Police at the Carnegie barracks had no information on the accident. The motorist had been taken to the hospital and the auto had been removed when the investigating officer arrived, police said.

NATIONAL STEEL REPORTS on 1959 and the Future

National Steel's sales in 1959 approached the three-quarter billion-dollar mark and set a new high record. Net earnings—approximately $55 million equal to $7.28 per share—were exceeded in only one other year.

These results were achieved despite handicaps imposed by the long steel strike and, in the words of Chairman George M. Humphrey and President Thomas E. Millsop in the Annual Report:

"This is a practical demonstration of the marked increase in efficiency from the new and improved plants and facilities on which we have expended hundreds of millions of dollars in recent years."

Other 1959 highlights:

Production of 5,300,000 tons reflects an operating rate of 76% of capacity compared with an average rate of 63% for the steel industry as a whole. An important factor was continuance of operations throughout the strike at the Weirton Steel division which has a 27-year record of production without interruption by labor difficulty of any kind.

Employee compensation at a record high with total payments for wages, salaries and benefits of approximately $220 million.

The $300 million expansion program—somewhat delayed by the strike but now going forward at full speed and still scheduled for completion in 1961. Major elements of this great program:

. . . for the Midwest Steel division an entirely new steel finishing plant in the Chicago area to produce tin plate, galvanized steel, hot- and cold-rolled sheet and strip.

. . . for the Great Lakes Steel division in Detroit, the 80-inch "Mill of the Future" which will be computer controlled and the finest, fastest, most powerful hot strip mill ever built—plus a substantial increase in ingot capacity.

. . . for the Weirton Steel division at Weirton, West Virginia, and Steubenville, Ohio, improvements and additions to increase the production and further improve the quality of tin plate and cold-rolled sheets.

Property additions amounted to $47 million in 1959. The remaining cost of construction, authorized and uncompleted as of December 31, 1959, amounts to approximately $250 million.

A new Research Center, scheduled for completion early in 1961, will provide expanded facilities for the continuing program of research and development.

New Products—columbium-treated steels, low alloy, high strength steels, a new type of galvanized steel—scored important production gains, reflecting increasing demand from customers. New lines of pre-engineered buildings in a broader range of beautiful factory-applied colors were introduced by the Stran-Steel division and a new plastic-coated product was developed by the Enamelstrip division.

For the future, Chairman Humphrey and President Millsop say:

"We look forward to the real benefits of our construction program which will begin to be felt in 1961 and which, we are confident, will make a significant contribution to the improved position of National Steel Corporation."

1959: A SUMMARY

	1959	1958
Net sales	$736,978,650	$539,957,294

LISBON—Two cases were dropped Monday in County Judge James L. MacDonald's court and another man was found guilty to a lesser charge.

Gene L. Barnes, 31, of Hanoverton R. D. 1, Dungannon, was found innocent of shooting with intent to kill or wound but was fined $100 and costs and sentenced to 6 months in the county jail for pointing and discharging firearms.

Judge MacDonald suspended the jail sentence on good behavior. Barnes was arrested Friday at 12:30 a. m. by Constables Roy Painter and Forrest Young of Hanoverton and Summitville after they were summoned by Robert Webber, 23, also of Hanoverton R. D. 1, a brother-in-law of the defendant. Two shots were fired by Barnes before he was disarmed by Constable Painter.

Mrs. Howard Donalley, 24, of Grant St., Lisbon, withdrew charges of assault against Robert Allen Fatherly, 24, of W. Maple St., Ext. before the scheduled hearing. Mrs. Donnalley had filed the charges Saturday morning against Fatherly.

Richard Dedomenic, 19, of Youngstown was freed in connection with the theft of a gallon of gasoline and a section of hose from McKarns Sales in Hanoverton.

He said he was driving home from college and ran out of gas in Hanoverton.

Judge MacDonald reprimanded the youth and his four passengers, advising all could have been charged with the offense. The boys made restitution for the gas and hose.

20 At Meeting Held For Calcutta Firemen

Twenty attended a meeting of Calcutta volunteer firemen Monday night when Chief Laverne Seckman presented reports of two fire alarms answered recently.

Firemen quelled a small fire Monday afternoon at 4 in a shed of T. A. Weir of the Bell School Rd. Damage was minor, firemen said.

About $500 damage occurred to a truck of Clarence Brown, a painter, on April 14. Brown was spraying paint inside the Calcutta school and the wind apparently blew rags against a manifold of a compressor igniting the blaze.

Dale Horger, vice president, presided. Firemen will continue to sponsor round and square dances each Saturday night from 9 to 12, Norman Neal, president, said.

Child, 9, Suffers Burns As Kerosene Ignites

A 9-year-old Westfield Rd. boy, burned by a flammable liquid which ignited his trousers at home Monday afternoon, is in "fair" condition today at City Hospital.

Mike Pelley, son of Mrs. Beverly Curtis, received burns of the legs when the liquid, apparently kerosene, ignited outside the home and set his clothing afire.

Glenmoor firemen, called to the scene, said the boy was alone at home with three other youngsters of the family. Fire Chief Robert Jones cautioned parents against leaving children at home without adult supervision.

The boy managed to pull off his trousers, according to firemen, who took him to the hospital.

Thieves Take Gun And Coins

Theft of a .22-caliber revolver and $10 in coins was one of 3 cases of minor thievery and vandalism reported to police Monday afternoon and night.

A .22-caliber Smith & Wesson revolver on a .32-caliber frame and $10 in assorted coins were stolen yesterday from the home of Burt Robb, 1029 Huston Ave., the family complained to police at 5:10.

The theft occurred while the family was absent, police said, but there was no report of forcible entry.

Mrs. Nellie Houser, 1736 Etruria St., told police at 4:37 p. m. yesterday that thieves removed and destroyed a wooden cellar door from her home sometime Sunday while she was absent.

Vivian Crow of Pughtown told police a vandal damaged the right door of her 1959 model convertible Monday morning while it was parked on St. Clair Ave.

Pittsburgh Motorist Hurt Badly In Wreck

A Pittsburgh motorist was injured seriously Monday night when his car plunged over an embankment on Route 30 in Beaver County near the West Virginia state line.

Lawrence Baehn is in "poor" condition today at City Hospital with injuries suffered in the one-car mishap. He sustained fractures of the right elbow, shoulder and hip, lacerations of the right side of the face and scalp and a possible fractured skull.

Pennsylvania State Police at the Carnegie barracks had no information on the accident. The motorist had been taken to the hospital and the auto had been removed when the investigating officer arrived, police said.

NATIONAL STEEL REPORTS on 1959 and the Future

National Steel's sales in 1959 approached the three-quarter billion-dollar mark and set a new high record. Net earnings—approximately $55 million equal to $7.28 per share—were exceeded in only one other year.

These results were achieved despite handicaps imposed by the long steel strike and, in the words of Chairman George M. Humphrey and President Thomas E. Millsop in the Annual Report:

"This is a practical demonstration of the marked increase in efficiency from the new and improved plants and facilities on which we have expended hundreds of millions of dollars in recent years."

Other 1959 highlights:

Production of 5,300,000 tons reflects an operating rate of 76% of capacity compared with an average rate of 63% for the steel industry as a whole. An important factor was continuance of operations throughout the strike at the Weirton Steel division which has a 27-year record of production without interruption by labor difficulty of any kind.

Employee compensation at a record high with total payments for wages, salaries and benefits of approximately $220 million.

The $300 million expansion program—somewhat delayed by the strike but now going forward at full speed and still scheduled for completion in 1961. Major elements of this great program:

. . . for the Midwest Steel division an entirely new steel finishing plant in the Chicago area to produce tin plate, galvanized steel, hot- and cold-rolled sheet and strip.

. . . for the Great Lakes Steel division in Detroit, the 80-inch "Mill of the Future" which will be computer controlled and the finest, fastest, most powerful hot strip mill ever built—plus a substantial increase in ingot capacity.

. . . for the Weirton Steel division at Weirton, West Virginia, and Steubenville, Ohio, improvements and additions to increase the production and further improve the quality of tin plate and cold-rolled sheets.

Property additions amounted to $47 million in 1959. The remaining cost of construction, authorized and uncompleted as of December 31, 1959, amounts to approximately $250 million.

A new Research Center, scheduled for completion early in 1961, will provide expanded facilities for the continuing program of research and development.

New Products—columbium-treated steels, low alloy, high strength steels, a new type of galvanized steel—scored important production gains, reflecting increasing demand from customers. New lines of pre-engineered buildings in a broader range of beautiful factory-applied colors were introduced by the Stran-Steel division and a new plastic-coated product was developed by the Enamelstrip division.

For the future, Chairman Humphrey and President Millsop say:

"We look forward to the real benefits of our construction program which will begin to be felt in 1961 and which, we are confident, will make a significant contribution to the improved position of National Steel Corporation."

1959: A SUMMARY

	1959	1958
Net sales	$736,978,650	$539,957,294
Net earnings	$ 54,897,360	$ 35,727,414
Net earnings per share	$7.28	$4.80
Total employment costs	$219,991,506	$182,223,804

ers said. At present, the street is marked off into two northbound lanes — one for autos proceeding directly through the intersection and another for those anticipating left turns.

But the left turn traffic does not have an opportunity to move promptly when the light changes because it must yield the right-of-way to oncoming cars headed south on Jefferson, he added.

Councilman Robert Laughlin enquired if the 90-day period has expired for trial of extra traffic lanes set up on other downtown streets, including Market and E. 5th, E. 5th St. east of Broadway and Broadway at E. 5th.

Safety-Service Director Lee Copenhaver replied the trial period has expired, but the administration has withheld any action until Council determines what should be done. Meanwhile, new center lines are not being painted in the affected areas, the director added.

A third lane was added a few months ago on E. 5th St. at Market St. to expedite left turns. Extra lanes also were added on both Broadway at E. 5th and E. 5th east of Broadway.

"What do we do in the meantime?" Laughlin asked.

"Just go ahead as you are," the director replied.

The lane changes were made under authority of a city ordinance that allows the police chief or the director to decree traffic changes on a temporary basis for periods not to exceed 90 days.

In another traffic question, Rudy Halpate, 414 Walnut St., asked installation of a four-way stop at E. 4th and Walnut Sts., terming the intersection "a very dangerous spot."

At present, E. 4th St. traffic is required to halt at the intersection, giving the right-of-way to cars on Walnut St.

"Some of those motorists from West Virginia come up that (Walnut St.) grade at a great rate of speed," Halpate told Council. "I'm afraid a youngster will be killed there."

The corner is a short distance from both the High School and Memorial Auditorium. Halpate said he made a similar request of the last administration, but no action was taken. He said he was told the Walnut St. grade is too steep for traffic to stop safely during slippery weather, but he said the hill is no steeper than Walnut St. at St. Clair Ave., where there is a stop sign.

Council asked the street committee to investigate. The committee also was asked to investigate a request from a Prospect St. resident for establishment of a no parking area on the side of the sreet opposite a string of eight garages which he rents. The parking ban would make access to the garages easier, according to Councilman Donald Smith, who reported the request.

Weirton Pastor, Wife Hurt In Traffic Mishap

MORGANTOWN — The Rev. Dr. A. R. Mansberger, pastor of the First Methodist Church of Weirton, and his wife were critically injured in a traffic accident near here Monday afternoon.

They were listed in "serious" condition last night but were termed "fair" this morning in the Monongalia County General Hospital.

City

If it doesn't, hopes that the city would reach the 25,000-mark this year would face disappointment. The official count of the 1950 census gave the city 24,217.

Wellsville has also shown a decline in population, according to Mrs. Nicolaus, but final figures were not available.

Neidengard said the downtown area's losses are shown clearly in the 2nd St. area along with the West End where people have moved away or where houses have been razed for various projects.

The East End area also shows a drop, he said.

Neidengard said the final stage of the census is now under way, the first stage of tabulation by enumerators being almost completed.

Neidengard is now in charge of an area which covers the East Liverpool and Wellsville districts plus parts of northern Jefferson County, where call-backs are being made on householders who have not properly completed the blue household questionnaires left at every fourth home.

Neidengard said transients in jails and smaller hotels will be counted Friday to wind up the enumeration.

SHRINK

Has your dollar been getting smaller? Can we hope to avoid sky-rocketing prices in the future? We can! This is the studied opinion of 64 leading representatives of education, government, labor and business, who conferred recently at the American Assembly. They agreed that America should strive for three goals: dynamic growth . . . low unemployment . . . reasonably stable prices. But it won't be easy! Needed is the whole-hearted cooperation of all Americans in working to achieve a steadily rising productivity.

The snowfall posted a record for April, with the 9 inches of 1918 second.

By April 25, most of the snow had melted, although drifts lasted in some places until May 1 59 years ago.

Springtime? Keep your fingers crossed. The average snowfall for April is 1.2 inches, and we have already had over 2 inches. There were snow flurries in the county yesterday, Copeland reported.

He said the temperature dipped to a subfreezing 22 degrees this morning and rural areas were white with frost.

There was no damage to growth, however. He said the cold during March helped keep plants and orchards dormant, delaying their budding. He said roses and willows were showing leaf buds but are not advanced enough to be bothered by the freeze.

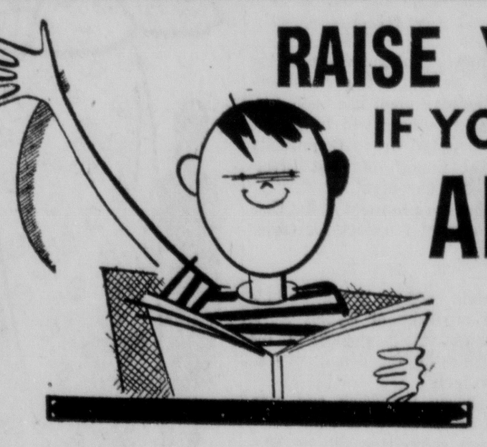

Dam 8 reported the mercury fell to the freezing mark of 32 degrees after Monday's high of 51.

Temperatures will warm up considerably with a high of 58 to 63 due today and a low of 38 to 43 tonight with increasing cloudiness and warmer Wednesday. Today will be fair and warm.

RAISE YOUR HAND IF YOU KNOW THE ANSWERS TO THESE SCHOOL PROBLEMS

The Board of Education of East Liverpool is requesting the voters of our community to approve levies totaling twelve (12) mills at the May 1960 primary. The total of twelve (12) mills will be presented to the voters in three separate ballots as follows:

3 MILLS- NEW LEVY FOR ALL OPERATING COSTS — UTILITIES, EDUCATIONAL SUPPLIES, EDUCATIONAL EQUIPMENT, TEXTBOOKS, SALARIES, ETC.

1 MILL- NEW LEVY FOR REPAIR AND MAINTENANCE OF SCHOOL BUILDINGS. AT THE PRESENT TIME EAST LIVERPOOL'S RESIDENTS OWN BUILDINGS WITH AN INSURABLE VALUE OF $6,990,000.00. THIS LEVY WOULD SET ASIDE APPROXIMATELY $47,500.00 ANNUALLY (THE INCOME FROM ONE MILL) WHICH COULD ONLY BE USED TO KEEP BUILDINGS IN GOOD REPAIR.

8 MILLS- THIS IS A RENEWAL OF LEVIES WHICH HAVE BEEN IN EFFECT FOR SEVERAL YEARS. THIS MUST BE RENEWED TO MAINTAIN FUNDS NOW AVAILABLE FOR OPERATING OUR SCHOOLS. IF THIS LEVY SHOULD BE DEFEATED, WE WOULD LOSE NOT ONLY THE INCOME FROM THE EIGHT (8) MILLS, WHICH IS $380,000.00, BUT ALSO $805,630.00 (A TOTAL LOSS OF INCOME OF $1,185,630.00 OR 78% OF OUR OPERATING BUDGET) WHICH IS PAID TO US FROM THE STATE FOUNDATION PROGRAM. TO PARTICIPATE IN THE STATE FOUNDATION PROGRAM A SCHOOL DISTRICT MUST LEVY AT LEAST (10) MILLS FOR SCHOOL OPERATING COSTS—WITHOUT THE RENEWAL OF THE EIGHT (8) MILLS WE WOULD NOT MEET THIS REQUIREMENT.

Light

ers said. At present, the street is marked off into two northbound lanes — one for autos proceeding directly through the intersection and another for those anticipating left turns.

But the left turn traffic does not have an opportunity to move promptly when the light changes because it must yield the right-of-way to oncoming cars headed south on Jefferson, he added.

Councilman Robert Laughlin enquired if the 90-day period has expired for trial of extra traffic lanes set up on other downtown streets, including Market and E. 5th, E. 5th St. east of Broadway and Broadway at E. 5th.

Safety-Service Director Lee Copenhaver replied the trial period has expired, but the administration has withheld any action until Council determines what should be done. Meanwhile, new center lines are not being painted in the affected areas, the director added.

A third lane was added a few months ago on E. 5th St. at Market St. to expedite left turns. Extra lanes also were added on both Broadway at E. 5th and E. 5th east of Broadway.

"What do we do in the meantime?" Laughlin asked.

"Just go ahead as you are," the director replied.

The lane changes were made under authority of a city ordinance that allows the police chief or the director to decree traffic changes on a temporary basis for periods not to exceed 90 days.

In another traffic question, Rudy Halpate, 414 Walnut St., asked installation of a four-way stop at E. 4th and Walnut Sts., terming the intersection "a very dangerous spot."

At present, E. 4th St. traffic is required to halt at the intersection, giving the right-of-way to cars on Walnut St.

"Some of those motorists from West Virginia come up that (Walnut St.) grade at a great rate of speed," Halpate told Council. "I'm afraid a youngster will be killed there."

The corner is a short distance from both the High School and Memorial Auditorium. Halpate said he made a similar request of the last administration, but no action was taken. He said he was told the Walnut St. grade is too steep for traffic to stop safely during slippery weather, but he said the hill is no steeper than Walnut St. at St. Clair Ave., where there is a stop sign.

Council asked the street committee to investigate. The committee also was asked to investigate a request from a Prospect St. resident for establishment of a no parking area on the side of the sreet opposite a string of eight garages which he rents. The parking ban would make access to the garages easier, according to Councilman Donald Smith, who reported the request.

Weirton Pastor, Wife Hurt In Traffic Mishap

MORGANTOWN — The Rev. Dr. A. R. Mansberger, pastor of the First Methodist Church of Weirton, and his wife were critically injured in a traffic accident near here Monday afternoon.

If it doesn't, hopes that the city would reach the 25,000-mark this year would face disappointment. The official count of the 1950 census gave the city 24,217.

Wellsville has also shown a decline in population, according to Mrs. Nicolaus, but final figures were not available.

Neidengard said the downtown area's losses are shown clearly in the 2nd St. area along with the West End where people have moved away or where houses have been razed for various projects.

The East End area also shows a drop, he said.

Neidengard said the final stage of the census is now under way, the first stage of tabulation by enumerators being almost completed.

Neidengard is now in charge of an area which covers the East Liverpool and Wellsville districts plus parts of northern Jefferson County, where call-backs are being made on householders who have not properly completed the blue household questionnaires left at every fourth home.

Neidengard said transients in jails and smaller hotels will be counted Friday to wind up the enumeration.

SHRINK

Has your dollar been getting smaller? Can we hope to avoid sky-rocketing prices in the future? We can! This is the studied opinion of 64 leading representatives of education, government, labor and business, who conferred recently at the American Assembly. They agreed that America should strive for three goals: dynamic growth . . . low unemployment . . . reasonably stable prices. But it won't be easy! Needed is the whole-hearted cooperation of all Americans in working to achieve a steadily rising productivity.

He said the temperature dipped to a subfreezing 22 degrees this morning and rural areas were white with frost.

There was no damage to growth, however. He said the cold during March helped keep plants and orchards dormant, delaying their budding. He said roses and willows were showing leaf buds but are not advanced enough to be bothered by the freeze.

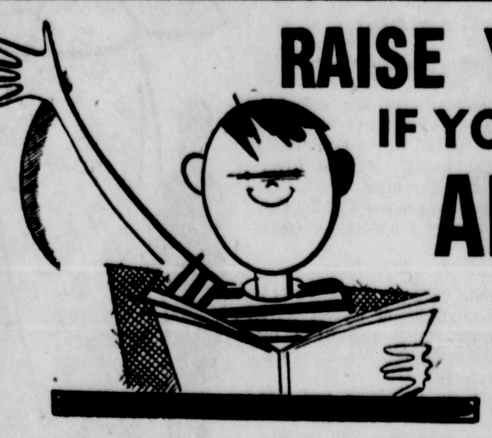

Dam 8 reported the mercury fell to the freezing mark of 32 degrees after Monday's high of 51.

Temperatures will warm up considerably with a high of 58 to 63 due today and a low of 38 to 43 tonight with increasing cloudiness and warmer Wednesday. Today will be fair and warm.

The Board of Education of East Liverpool is requesting the voters of our community to approve levies totaling twelve (12) mills at the May 1960 primary. The total of twelve (12) mills will be presented to the voters in three separate ballots as follows:

3 MILLS- NEW LEVY FOR ALL OPERATING COSTS — UTILITIES, EDUCATIONAL SUPPLIES, EDUCATIONAL EQUIPMENT, TEXTBOOKS, SALARIES, ETC.

1 MILL- NEW LEVY FOR REPAIR AND MAINTENANCE OF SCHOOL BUILDINGS. AT THE PRESENT TIME EAST LIVERPOOL'S RESIDENTS OWN BUILDINGS WITH AN INSURABLE VALUE OF $6,990,000.00. THIS LEVY WOULD SET ASIDE APPROXIMATELY $47,500.00 ANNUALLY (THE INCOME FROM ONE MILL) WHICH COULD ONLY BE USED TO KEEP BUILDINGS IN GOOD REPAIR.

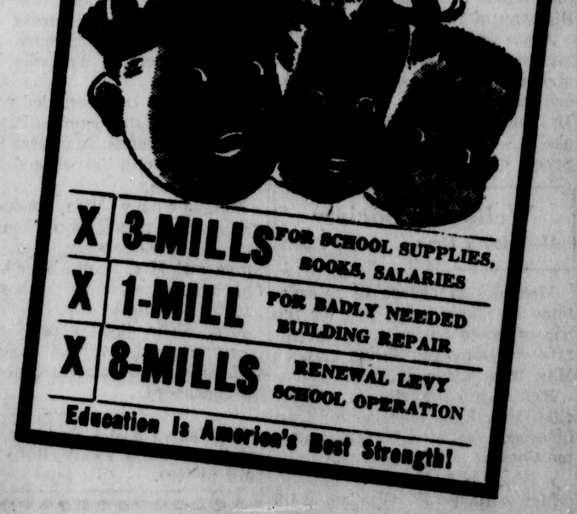

8 MILLS- THIS IS A RENEWAL OF LEVIES WHICH HAVE BEEN IN EFFECT FOR SEVERAL YEARS. THIS MUST BE RENEWED TO MAINTAIN FUNDS NOW AVAILABLE FOR OPERATING OUR SCHOOLS. IF THIS LEVY SHOULD BE DEFEATED, WE WOULD LOSE NOT ONLY THE INCOME FROM THE EIGHT (8) MILLS, WHICH IS $380,000.00, BUT ALSO $805,630.00 (A TOTAL LOSS OF INCOME OF $1,185,630.00 OR 78% OF OUR OPERATING BUDGET) WHICH IS PAID TO US FROM THE STATE FOUNDATION PROGRAM. TO PARTICIPATE IN THE STATE FOUNDATION PROGRAM A SCHOOL DISTRICT MUST LEVY AT LEAST (10) MILLS FOR SCHOOL OPERATING COSTS—WITHOUT THE RENEWAL OF THE EIGHT (8) MILLS WE WOULD NOT MEET THIS REQUIREMENT.

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: My husband's aunt lives with us but she always has been pleasant and easy to be with. Last week she almost broke up a dinner party in our home by announcing to one and all that she is intercepting radio messages between Red China and the Russians through her bridgework.

This woman is not a fool. She has a master's degree and has taught school for 15 years. She is active in civic organizations and has headed some big groups in her day.

I'm disturbed because she insists she has some valuable information and wants to go to the FBI with it. Please tell us what to do. — A AND B.

Dear A and B.: Urge her to see a doctor. She may have been a community leader in her day but she is sick now and needs professional help.

If you are unable to prevent her from going to the FBI I assure you they will recognize her condition and you'll be hearing from them.

In The Army Now

Dear Ann: My husband joined the Army six weeks ago. It was his own idea. Nobody forced him into it. He had served his required time and decided to go back in because it was "easier than his job."

He knew I could take the two kids and go live with my mother. He said it would be a good way to save a little money.

Now he's sorry he went back. He writes in every letter how tough it is, that he's always dead tired, that he doesn't like the sergeant and that he wishes he were out.

I write him cheerful letters and tell him that the kids and I are fine, that we are happy with Mama and all the good news I can think of. In his last letter he wrote: "Please don't tell me how happy you are. Tell me that you're nervous and the kids are sick and you must have me home."

What shall I do? — OTTAWA

Dear Ottawa: Write him that you and the kids are fine, that you are happy with Mama and all the other good things you can think of.

Tell him also to stop moaning, to make the best of the situation and to take his self-prescribed medicine like a man.

Uncrowned Glory

Dear Ann: I am a widower, 60, well educated, have a good business of my own, am presentable and good company. For years I searched in vain to find someone to share my life after my wife died in 1946.

Six months ago I found my ideal. She's a widow, 45, lovely, cultured and had the most beautiful head of thick, lustrous, copper-colored hair I'd ever seen. When she took the pins out of it reached to her knees.

A few days ago when I called on her she greeted me at the door with a man's haircut — a straggly, close-cropped monstrosity.

I asked her what in the world she had done and she said: "This is the style. Long hair is a bother."

I broke off with her than evening. To me, her act showed a shocking lack of intelligence and judgment. Please give me your views on this entire episode. — D.B.

Dear D.: Your act didn't reflect much intelligence either. I agree the woman did a stupid thing when she cut her hair but hair does grow back, you know.

If you've been searching for a woman since 1946 and finally chose this one as "your ideal" she must have had other qualities to recommend her besides hair.

Tell her if she'll bury the scissors you'll bury the hatchet. In a few months she'll be able to buy a "switch" of human hair to match her own and you won't know the difference.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Dieters Should Aim At Slimness

Reducers, it is a sorry mistake to over-diet and pare down too fine. This is the case with the reducer in today's column.

By Ida Jean Kain

"A year ago I went on a diet. My weight was 134 pounds and I'm 5 feet 4 tall. I now weigh 105 pounds. Everyone says I'm too thin and that I looked better at my former weight. But I feel much better thin, so I curb calories to keep my weight down. I would like to know how much I should weigh for my height."

All of you gals who like the feeling of being ultra thin, tune in: When your mind is fixed on reducing, it seems that no mirror ever reflects you too thin! But the well-nourished body carries some fat reserves. It's advisable to have a little extra fat so there is some to call on in an emergency.

MOREOVER, A margin for curves puts a bloom on a woman. Fashion to the contrary, ultra streamlines are not flattering. Fact is, many fashion models look as if they didn't eat regularly.

Your ideal weight depends on the size of your frame as well as your height. There is no exact pound at which your weight is considered perfect. Rather there is a zone within which your weight may vary and still be desirable.

Use this rule of thumb: Allow 100, 105, or 110 pounds for the first five feet of height, depending on whether you have a slight, medium, or large frame. Then add 5 pounds for each extra inch, or subtract 5 pounds for each inch under 5 feet. Height is computed without shoes, weight without clothing. If you are in doubt about your frame, figure on the basis of medium.

Going by the above rule, the young woman in today's letter should not weigh less than 120 pounds. For a fact, she would look lovelier at 120 streamlined pounds than she does with her weight pared down to an emaciated 105 pounds.

Your right weight is that at which you feel your most vital and have bounce and verve...105 pounds for 5 feet 4 is not very bouncy! So, what to do? Add a dozen pounds by stepping up the protective foods, the ones that enhance vitality ... and exercise so as to feel silken slim and willowy within your desirable weight zone.

Here is an exercise that can help you to be slim in the middle and toned up generally.

Position: Lie on back, feet elevated to low bench or hassock, arms at sides.

MOVEMENT: Raise right leg from the hip to form right angle with the trunk. At the same time stretch right arm back on floor beyond head. As leg is raised, press small of back to floor and pull up-and-in firmly with lower abdominal muscles.

The upstretch of the arm reflexly contracts and strengthens the whole midsection. Pull slim through the middle — h-o-l-d. Lower leg and arm and repeat with the other leg. Continue for 10 counts, later increasing to 25.

Send a long, self - addressed stamped envelope for "Away With The Middle Spread." Address your request to Ida Jean Kain, in care of this newspaper. Postcard requests cannot be answered.

2,700 Waited In Philadelphia At Ceramic Society's Meeting

An estimated 2,700 scientists, plant operators, engineers and educators from all parts of the nation are expected in Philadelphia Sunday for the opening of the 62nd annual meeting of the American Ceramic Society, which will continue through Thursday.

More than 240 technical papers will be presented in the five-day session, an exchange of information designed to aid the advancement of the industry.

Assuming their posts will be the society's new officers: George H. Spencer-Strong of Baltimore, president; J. S. Nordyke of Pittsburgh, president-elect; Eugene C. Clemens of Cannelton, Ind., Frederick H. Norton of Cambridge, Mass., and Andrew Pereny of Columbus, vice presidents; Clair R. Oberst of Columbus, treasurer, and Charles S. Pearce of Columbus, general secretary.

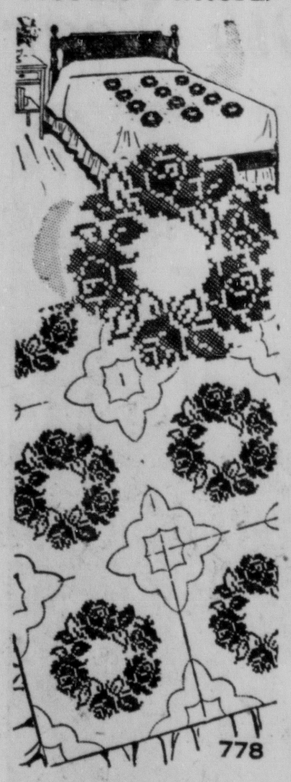

Two East Liverpool men will be installed in division offices. Don Schreckengost of St. Clair Ave., designer, will be seated as vice chairman of the design division, and Willard D. Packman of Bell School Rd., a ceramic engineer with the Crucible Steel Co. of America, will become chairman-elect of the whitewares division. Packman now is secretary of the whitewares division.

Edwin Ruh of Pittsburgh, prominent in the society's Pittsburgh Section, will be seated as vice chairman of the refractories division. James W. Wilcox of the Alliance Clay Products Co. at Alliance, will become vice chairman of the structural clay products division.

John McLaren of Broadview Circle, sales manager for Bell Operations in East Liverpool, is a member of the society's membership committee.

The ceramic industry produces more than $7 billion worth of goods in the U. S. annually — such diversified products as dinnerware, brick, tile, electrical insulators, glass, bathroom fixtures, spark plugs and hundreds of other items.

Fireman Anderson's Guests Were Firemen

Asst. Fire Chief David Anderson returned Monday to find he had been visited by fellow firemen at his home on Avondale St.

But it wasn't a social call. Mrs. Anderson was preparing food about 12:30 p. m. yesterday when she saw sparks around the kitchen stove.

Remaining calm, she pulled the fuse from the stove and then called firemen, asking them to check. Firemen said a wire had burned off.

But Anderson's troubles aren't over — he forgot to repair the stove before reporting for duty this morning!

Fireman Anderson's Guests Were Firemen

Asst. Fire Chief David Anderson returned Monday to find he had been visited by fellow firemen at his home on Avondale St.

But it wasn't a social call. Mrs. Anderson was preparing food about 12:30 p. m. yesterday when she saw sparks around the kitchen stove.

Remaining calm, she pulled the fuse from the stove and then called firemen, asking them to check. Firemen said a wire had burned off.

But Anderson's troubles aren't over — he forgot to repair the stove before reporting for duty this morning!

Letter Backs Roads

WASHINGTON (AP)—Rep. Gordon H. Scherer (R-Ohio) of Cincinnati received a letter Monday from Secretary of Commerce Frederick H. Mueller saying the Eisenhower Administration has no intention of abandoning any of its plans for the interstate highway system. Scherer, who made the letter public, had expressed concern lest the administration recommend cutbacks in federal spending in urban areas.

Woman, 44, Claimed By Injuries In Wreck

CLEVELAND (AP)—Genevieve Sandor, 44, died Monday night of head injuries suffered Saturday when two station wagons collided in Brook Park. She lived in that suburb.

Her son, Robert, 12, was reported in fair condition.

The killdeer, an American plover, lays eggs which are stone-colored. She builds her nest in a hollow surrounded by a camouflage of small stones and bits of shell which resemble the eggs.

2 In Hancock Schools Quit

The resignations of a teacher and a secretary were accepted by the Hancock County Board of Education at a brief meeting Monday night in New Cumberland High School.

Miss Chrissoula Karastamatis of Weirton, a teacher in New Cumberland High School, and Miss Marie Koprivich, a secretary of Principal John Geer of Weir High School, presented written resignations.

Miss Koprivich plans to seek employment in the Pittsburgh area. Miss Karastamatis had been granted a continuing contract by the Board April 4.

In other business, the board approved two requests for high school activities and employed four new teachers for the next school term.

Approval was granted for the Wells High School Band from Newell to participate in the Clarksburg band festival May 6-7. The Junior Band of Weir High was given permission to participate in a Little League opening day parade May 30.

New teachers hired are Miss Helen May Giebell, Miss Billie Ruth Jefferies, Miss Mary Kemper Hull and Miss Marcia Wooley. All will be elementary instructors.

Reports heard included the athletic financial reports of Chester and Weir High Schools, the secretary's report for March, and another from Miss Helen Petrakis, county 4-H club agent.

Dr. W. Dale Williams, president, presided. The next meeting will be May 2 in New Cumberland.

Operators Of Service Stations To Organize

An organization meeting for service station operators and managers of the Tri-State area will be held Wednesday night at 8 at the Travelers Hotel.

Don Chaney of Chester and Vincent Gerace of East Liverpool said operators from East Liverpool, Chester, Newell, Wellsville and elsewhere are invited to the meeting at which officers will be elected and common problems discussed.

Ex-College Head Dies

SALT LAKE CITY (AP) — Dr. Franklin S. Harris, 75, former president of Brigham Young University and Utah State University, died Monday of a stroke. He ran unsuccessfully for the U.S. Senate from Utah in 1948 on the Republican ticket.

Smith & Phillips Marks 90th Year

The Smith & Phillips Co., founded as a music concern but now handling furniture, appliances and carpeting along with musical instruments, will observe its 90th anniversary starting Thursday.

The present company officers are shown examining a copy of a 1938 Review which told of the dedication of the present building on Washington St. Left to right are Thomas A. DeVille, treasurer; Ralph A. Finley, secretary; Donald F. Smith, president; William H. Smith, first vice president, and Thurman Allen, second vice president.

The company was founded by the late Will L. Thompson, famed East Liverpool composer, on lower Broadway in 1870. Known as the Will L. Thompson & Co., it first was located in a general store operated by Josiah D. Thompson.

In 1882, the concern moved to the first floor of what now is the Thompson Hotel at E. 3rd St. and Broadway, where it remained until 1890 when it moved to E. 4th and Washington Sts.

Mr. Thompson retired in 1895 and sold the business to his nephews, the late Wilson F. Smith and the late W. H. Phillips. The business was incorporated as the Smith & Phillips Music Co. in 1901.

The business was moved to the Washington St. building in 1910.

Mr. Phillips continued in the business until 1919 when he sold his interest to Donald F. Smith and the late Howard Smith, sons of Wilson F. Smith, who retired in 1928.

American Legion At Midland To Launch Flag Sale Tonight

Midland American Legion Post 481 met Monday evening and made final plans to launch its flag sale tonight at 7 with a door-to-door canvass in the borough and area.

Lester Trainer, Americanism chairman, is in charge of the sale, whose theme is "New Glory for Old Glory."

Zone chairman include: business district — Eugene Fritz; 1st to 4th St. and Midland Heights—John Reider;

Fourth to 6th Sts.—William Coble; 6th to 8th St.—George Huha; 8th to 13th Sts.—John Shovlin.

Ohio Township — Donald E. Roach and Woodrow Jones; and Industry Borough — Joe Mulach and Amos Walker.

Most flags are expected to be delivered by Memorial Day, when they may be legally flown, Trainer said.

New members accepted include John M. Mosticone of Smiths Ferry, Robert C. Mercer of Industry and Stephen Crano of Midland. Edward Colonna of Smiths Ferry was reinstated.

The membership now stands at 424 and 24 still are needed for this year's quota. Membership cards, besides those mailed, will be taken to the District 26 Membership Roundup for Beaver County May 13 at 8 p. m. at New Brighton.

The post passed with an "excellent" rating an inspection by Jess Wells and George Yourns, both district deputies, and members of New Brighton Post 19. Yourns is a candidate for district commander to be elected in June.

The auxiliary will conduct "Poppy Day" May 18 for proceeds to aid disabled veterans. The unit reported that it has gone over its membership quota.

About eight members will visit patients at the Deshon Veterans Hospital at Butler next Tuesday. Permission was granted for use of the post rooms for meetings of Boy Scout Troop 415.

Plans for Memorial Day were discussed. William Doyle, chaplain, will be in charge. A parade, including the Lincoln High School band, will be held along with services at the cenotaph in Lincoln Park and at Veterans' Memorial Swimming Pool.

A picnic and ball game will be planned later. Delegates of the county committee will attend a meeting Friday at Beaver Post 389. Next meeting will be May 2. Reider, commander, presided.

Florence Aadland Due In Court Next Monday

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Florence Aadland goes to court next Monday for a hearing into a five-count charge accusing her of contributing to the delinquency of a minor — her daughter, Beverly, 17.

The charges arose from a party three weeks ago in the Aadland apartment in Hollywood. One of Beverly's young admirers was later shot to death in the same apartment under circumstances still being investigated by police.

Beverly was the last love of the late Errol Flynn.

Girl Bound Over

MARION, Ohio (AP) — Virginia Marie Napper, 18, has been bound over to the May 17 grand jury after pleading innocent to a first-degree murder charge in the shooting of her father Sunday. Her sister, Edna Mae, 15, is charged with juvenile delinquency in the case. Virginia told police her father, Sylvester William Napper, 38, "had been picking on us for five years."

Body Identified

CINCINNATI (AP)—From tattoos, a relative identified Monday a body found floating in the Ohio River as that of Charles Davies, 50, of Cincinnati. Davies, a riverboat worker, apparently fell into the river March 30 shortly after reporting for work.

House Group To Push New 'Rights' Bill

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House Rules Committee was ready today to give a new civil rights bill a big push toward the status of law.

Committee Southerners in the past have fought the bill at every turn and with every parliamentary weapon. But they have reluctantly decided to stand aside and allow the measure to come before the House for a vote that would send it to President Eisenhower.

Before the committee was an original voting-rights bill passed by the House and amended by the Senate. With the committee's sanction, the House may consider the amendments and accept them without the necessity of a prolonged Senate-House conference.

House leaders, anticipating committee approval at today's session have scheduled a final vote on the amended measure for Thursday, with passage certain. No further Senate action is necessary.

Bonds Are Continued For Burglary Suspects

Bonds of $1,000 were continued Monday in Hancock County Circuit Court in New Cumberland for 3 Weirton men who pleaded innocent to charges of breaking and entering.

Trial dates will be set June 3 by Judge J. Harold Brennan for the three youths who were indicted by the April Grand Jury — William C. Clark, 18, James E. Huber, 18, and James A. Bird, 18.

Three other Weirton area juveniles indicted by the grand jury had their cases transferred to County Juvenile Court for hearings. They range in age from 15 to 17.

One Of 4 Young Boys Drowns While Fishing

SANDUSKY, Ohio (AP)—A fishing excursion of four young boys ended tragically here Monday with the accidential drowning of Paul Dobbins, 10, of Sandusky. He apparently slipped and fell off a pier in East Battery Park.

William Shaw, 11, a friend, jumped in to save Paul, but was unable to find him. Paul could not swim. The body was recovered by a fire rescue squad.

NLRB Spurs Program

CINCINNATI (AP) — The National Labor Relations Board says its Ninth Region, based at Cincinnati, has helped cut the time needed to process unfair labor practice charges from 109 days to 43 days. A stepped-up program, starting last July 1, cut down a backlog of 526 cases. General Counsel Stuart Rothman said the Ninth Region made an "outstanding contribution to case handling improvement."

Car Mishap Fatal

CLEVELAND (AP) — Coy Napier, 35, of Cleveland, was killed Monday night when his car ripped through a guard rail on the inner belt freeway bridge and plunged 130 feet onto a gravel lot fronting on W. 3rd St. Napier's car bounced over a foot-high divider between east and west lanes, careened 492 feet and bounced off another car before ramming thriugh the rail.

Motorists Told Avoid Parking In Bus Stops

Motorists were cautioned today by Safety-Service Director Lee Copenhaver not to park in bus stops.

If the practice continues, cars will be towed away, the director warned.

Copenhaver said many complaints have been received about motorists blocking the curbside bus stops. By parking in the bus stops, buses are forced to stop in traffic lanes to pick up and discharge passengers, adding to traffic tieups, the director said.

Chester Republicans Will Conduct Survey

About 30 attended a meeting of Chester Republicans Monday night at the City Hall at which plans were made for committeemen and committeewomen to canvass the city in a survey of party affiliations.

Cards and kits were distributed for the survey to be completed by the next meeting May 2. Plans were also discussed for obtaining a headquarters for the June 7 general election campaign.

Thomas Ridge, secretary, presided.

Kiwanis To Honor 12

LISBON — Twelve members of the Kiwanis Club will be honored for perfect attendance for 1959 at the luncheon meeting of the American Legion home Thursday. Two of the 12 have had 18 years perfect attendance and all will be cited by the educational and fellowship committee headed by Larry Farrell, chairman.

Board Studies Fund Aid Drop

LISBON—The Columbiana County Board of Health Monday night discussed the decline in federal and state subsidies, which this year is down another $500 from that of 1959. The fund aid has been dropping for several years.

Fund aid is scheduled at $2,250 for the first six months from the federal government and $1,900 as state grants.

The board also received a letter from the Beaver Local School Board, requesting a new tuberculosis test be given to Grades 5 through 12. The health board refused, however, because of the spring clinics already set up in the schools throughout the county. The department has only one county health nurse and Dr. C. S. Palmer to conduct this extra testing.

Dr. Palmer read monthly reports of the school clinics and those of the county sanitarian and plumbing inspector.

Vouchers for $3,309.61 were issued.

The next meeting will be May 16 at 8 p. m.

South African Negroes Snub Work Boycott

JOHANNESBURG, South Africa (AP)—Johannesburg Negroes today appeared to be ignoring a call for a week-long work boycott to protest the white supremacy government's racial laws.

Buses and trains from Negro settlements into South Africa's largest city were crowded with workers. The city streets were filled early after being nearly deserted over the long Easter weekend.

Powerful police and civilian defense forces, backed by soldiers in armored cars, were mobilized against agitators who might try to prevent Negroes from reaching work.

The police planned raids through the Negro townships in search of agitators and stay-at-homes.

The work stoppage called by the outlawed African National Congress started Monday. But the day was a national Easter holiday, and this postponed the real test of a strike call until today.

The government has warned Negroes that they face loss of their jobs or banishment to native reserves in the interior if they heed the stay-at-home call.

The aim of the work stoppage is to force the government to ease its stern segregation laws and to gain freedom for jailed Negro leaders. The government broke a previous work boycott by widespread raids in the Negro settlements and wholesale arrests.

Flemming Thinks Nixon Will Be Next President

DELAWARE, Ohio (AP) — Arthur S. Flemming, U. S. secretary of health, education and welfare, predicts Vice President Richard M. Nixon will be the country's next president.

Speaking Monday during a Republican Day program at Ohio Wesleyan University, Flemming urged his audience to thoughtfully consider the Eisenhower Administration's record in "those areas that deal with people."

"The Republican Party—by its deeds—has demonstrated and will continue to demonstrate a deep concern for people," said the former Ohio Wesleyan prexy.

This record, he said, combined with the record made in foreign affairs, "will so appeal to Republicans, independents and independent Democrats that Dick Nixon—the best prepared man in the history of our nation for the office of president — will be the next president of the United States."

The first Secretary-General of the United Nations was Trygve Lie of Norway who served from Feb. 1, 1946, to April 10, 1953.

EAST LIVERPOOL REVIEW WANT ADS

CHAMP COOK CANDIDATE. Mrs. John E. Holt of the Calcutta-Cannons Mills Rd. has her foot on the first rung of the ladder to the title of "Mrs. America," having been designated "Mrs. East Liverpool" in the city phase of the nationwide cooking contest sponsored by natural gas utilities. Mrs. Holt will represent East Liverpool in the district cook-off contest Thursday at Martins Ferry under sponsorship of the Ohio Valley Gas Co. The district winner will go into the "Mrs. Ohio" finals at Columbus and the state winner then enters the "Mrs. America" contest at Ft. Lauderdale, Fla.

Principal And 32 Teachers Quit Over Paddling Incident

VALDOSTA, Ga. (AP) — More than 600 pupils of Hahira High School would be left without guidance today if all the teachers follow the example of the principal in resigning over a paddling incident.

Principal A. B. Martin and more than half of the 32 faculty members already have written letters of resignation. The remainder indicated they will follow suit.

Asked what he was going to do about running the school, Chairman James T. Hall of the Hahira Board of Trustees declared, "I'm going to do just like the board of education did—I'm going to dump it right back into the board's lap."

This was the best information that could be gathered on the Lowndes County Board of Education's action following a four-hour special hearing Monday. At issue was a demand by the parents of 14-year-old Earl Cornelius that Martin and Mrs. Dwight Maples, a teacher, be fired for spanking the eighth grader.

Lowndes County School Supt. C. W. Meacham was not available for comment. A service station operator said Meacham drove off about midnight, saying, "Come on, let's go to Atlanta."

Apparently the superintendent planned to confer with state school officials at the capital.

Martin, principal for nine years, said he could not continue to head the school without the backing of the board of education.

He denied that he encouraged any of the teachers to follow his lead in resigning. "I have let them make that decision themselves."

Husband Kills Wife, Drinks Poisoned Wine

CHILLICOTHE, Ohio (AP) — Mrs. Ada Graves, about 75, was hacked and shot to death Monday by her husband who then committed suicide apparently by drinking a bottle of poisoned wine, Coroner F. W. Nusbaum reported.

The coroner said Howard Graves, 78, had been having marital difficulties with his wife over a period of years. Mrs. Graves once told a neighbor that her husband threatened to kill her, Dr. Nusbaum said.

The couple's 10-year-old grandson, Ralph Graves, found the bodies in the blood-spattered home near Vigo, south of here.

Dr. Nusbaum returned a verdict of murder and suicide.

Midland GOP Will Convene

In preparation for next Tuesday's primary in Beaver County, the Midland Republican Party committee will meet Friday at 8 p. m. in the Margaret Boston Insurance Agency in the First National Bank building.

Plans will be made for the election of 10 committeemen by write-ins, including a woman and a man from each of the borough's 5 precincts, John Reider, Midland Republican chairman, said.

He said many candidates for nomination to state and national party offices are uncontested. Where there is more than one Republican candidate for an office, the choice is left to the voter, he said. State and county committeemen will be elected after the primary.

The Beaver County Young Republicans' Club will hold its monthly meeting May 4 at 8 p. m. at Deramo's Restaurant.

50 Attend Dinner, 130 Dance Held At Midland Center

The Midland Hi-Spot Youth Center Monday evening held its annual Easter Ball after a party honoring the Lincoln High School basketball team, coaches, cheerleaders and queen candidates.

About 50 attended the roast beef diinner for the team and 130 for the ball. Coaches and their wives attending were Mr. and Mrs. George Hamilton and Mr. and Mrs. Darrell Stillwagon.

Other guests were Steve Germusa, president of Council, School Supt. Ralph H. Jewell and Leslie B. Roach, president of the Board of Education.

Fr. John Corbett, assistant pastor of the Presentation Catholic Church, gave the invocation. Music for dancing was provided by the "Four Weels" instrumental group.

Hostesses were Mrs. Stephen Trbovich, Mrs. Leroy Turner, Mrs. Frank Migliore, Mrs. Stephen Yetso, Mrs. Amedio Gianvito, Mrs. Francis Shone, adult board members, and members of the student committee and the Hi - Spot queen's court.

The center will be open Saturday from 8:30 to 11:30 p. m. instead of Friday because of the high school spring concert.

Mrs. William Spisak is center director.

Kaycees Will Honor Parochial Athletes

Final plans for a "Sports Night" to honor Presentation parochial school athletes were completed at a meeting of Midland Knights of Columbus, Council 2005, Monday evening.

Awards will be presented eighth grade students during a dinner next Monday at 6:30 p. m. in the K. of C. Hall. Ivvan Toncic, Pittsburgh University quarterback, will be a guest along with Lincoln High School coaches.

William Vinovich will be toastmaster. Anthony Martell and Ernest Torres are co-chairmen.

'Pay-As-You-Go' Tax Withholding Inventor Claimed

DANBURY, Conn. (AP)—Beardsley Ruml, 65, who invented "pay-as-you-go" tax withholding and was paid $70,000 a year just to think for a department store, died Monday following a heart attack.

Ruml was stricken a week ago at his home at West Redding, Conn., and died at Danbury Hospital.

A former board chairman of the R. H. Macy and Co. department store and the New York Federal Reserve bank, he was advisor to the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico at his death.

His reputation as an idea man had grown up long before Ruml thought of "pay-as-you-go" while riding on a New York subway train. It was put into law in modified form in 1943.

A native of Cedar Rapids, Iowa, Ruml was a Phi Beta Kappa at Dartmouth College, and got a doctor's degree at the University of Chicago with a thesis on psychometry—measuring and determining intelligence.

He was teaching at Carnegie Institute of Technology when World War I started. He became civilian director of the Army's trade tests.

He worked with the Carnegie Corp. of New York and the Laura Spelman Rockefeller Memorial Organization after the war, and in 1931 became dean of the Social Science Division at the University of Chicago.

When Macy's hired him as treasurer in 1934 to fill the need for a "stimulating mind," he said he was earning his $70,000 salary by sitting around and thinking.

Post Hears Talk On Vets' Benefits

Veterans' benefits and recent legislation were discussed by George Pell of Wheeling, deputy director of veterans' affairs, at a meeting of the Lawrenceville American Legion Post 163 Monday night.

No action was taken on a proposed separate post insurance fund for members. Further discussion will be held at a later meeting.

Graven Lyle, service officer, and John Grimes, assistant service officer, will attend a service officers' conference May 13-15 at Jacksons Mill.

Clarence Baker was enrolled as a new member. Lunch was served to 15 by Harold Waide and committee. Charles Huffman, vice commander, was in charge.

The next meeting will be May 2.

Church Waits Mission Rally

A special mission rally will be held Wednesday at 7:30 p. m. at the First Assembly of God Church, with the Rev. Lawrence R. Larson, missionary to the Fiji Islands, as guest speaker. The Rev. James Millsaps is pastor.

Rev. Larson began his missionary ministry in the Hawaiian Islands in 1954. He served at the Island of Maui from 1955 until his furlough in June 1959. He recently was appointed by the Assemblies of God to serve in the Fiji Islands and travels now throughout the United States presenting the Assemblies of God missions in Hawaii and in the Fiji Islands. Prior to going to Hawaii, he was a pastor in Crookston, Minn.

Rev. Larson was graduated from North Central Bible College at Minneapolis and received his associate of arts degree from Maunaolu College at Paia, Maui, Hawaii. His wife attended North Central Bible College at Minneapolis.

They have three children, Janice Aloma, 7, Dorothy Lelani, 4, and Carol Nanilei, 2.

Body Recovered

SUPERIOR, Wis. (AP) — The body of Joseph E. Stockwell, 44, of Ashtabula, Ohio, was recovered here Sunday. Stockwell had been missing since last Oct. 21 from his ship, the Norman W. Foy, a coal carrier. An autopsy showed he apparently was struck by the ship's propeller and drowned.

Motorists Told Avoid Parking In Bus Stops

Motorists were cautioned today by Safety-Service Director Lee Copenhaver not to park in bus stops.

If the practice continues, cars will be towed away, the director warned.

Copenhaver said many complaints have been received about motorists blocking the curbside bus stops. By parking in the bus stops, buses are forced to stop in traffic lanes to pick up and discharge passengers, adding to traffic tieups, the director said.

Chester Republicans Will Conduct Survey

About 30 attended a meeting of Chester Republicans Monday night at the City Hall at which plans were made for committeemen and committeewomen to canvass the city in a survey of party affiliations.

Cards and kits were distributed for the survey to be completed by the next meeting May 2. Plans were also discussed for obtaining a headquarters for the June 7 general election campaign.

Thomas Ridge, secretary, presided.

Kiwanis To Honor 12

LISBON — Twelve members of the Kiwanis Club will be honored for perfect attendance for 1959 at the luncheon meeting of the American Legion home Thursday. Two of the 12 have had 16 years perfect attendance and all will be cited by the educational and fellowship committee headed by Larry Farrell, chairman.

Board Studies Fund Aid Drop

LISBON—The Columbiana County Board of Health Monday night discussed the decline in federal and state subsidies, which this year is down another $500 from that of 1959. The fund aid has been dropping for several years.

Fund aid is scheduled at $2,250 for the first six months from the federal government and $1,900 as state grants.

The board also received a letter from the Beaver Local School Board, requesting a new tuberculosis test be given to Grades 5 through 12. The health board refused, however, because of the spring clinics already set up in the schools throughout the county. The department has only one county health nurse and Dr. C. S. Palmer to conduct this extra testing.

Dr. Palmer read monthly reports of the school clinics and those of the county sanitarian and plumbing inspector!

Vouchers for $3,309.61 were issued.

The next meeting will be May 16 at 8 p. m.

South African Negroes Snub Work Boycott

JOHANNESBURG, South Africa (AP)—Johannesburg Negroes today appeared to be ignoring a call for a week-long work boycott to protest the white supremacy government's racial laws.

Buses and trains from Negro settlements into South Africa's largest city were crowded with workers. The city streets were filled early after being nearly deserted over the long Easter weekend.

Powerful police and civilian defense forces, backed by soldiers in armored cars, were mobilized against agitators who might try to prevent Negroes from reaching work.

The police planned raids through the Negro townships in search of agitators and stay-at-homes.

The work stoppage called by the outlawed African National Congress started Monday. But the day was a national Easter holiday, and this postponed the real test of a strike call until today.

The government has warned Negroes that they face loss of their jobs or banishment to native reserves in the interior if they heed the stay-at-home call.

The aim of the work stoppage is to force the government to ease its stern segregation laws and to gain freedom for jailed Negro leaders. The government broke a previous work boycott by widespread raids in the Negro settlements and wholesale arrests.

Flemming Thinks Nixon Will Be Next President

DELAWARE, Ohio (AP) — Arthur S. Flemming, U. S. secretary of health, education and welfare, predicts Vice President Richard M. Nixon will be the country's next president.

Speaking Monday during a Republican Day program at Ohio Wesleyan University, Flemming urged his audience to thoughtfully consider the Eisenhower Administration's record in "those areas that deal with people."

"The Republican Party—by its deeds—has demonstrated and will continue to demonstrate a deep concern for people," said the former Ohio Wesleyan prexy.

This record, he said, combined with the record made in foreign affairs, "will so appeal to Republicans, independents and independent Democrats that Dick Nixon—the best prepared man in the history of our nation for the office of president — will be the next president of the United States."

The first Secretary-General of the United Nations was Trygve Lie of Norway who served from Feb. 1, 1946, to April 10, 1953.

EAST LIVERPOOL REVIEW WANT ADS

CHAMP COOK CANDIDATE. Mrs. John E. Holt of the Calcutta-Cannons Mills Rd. has her foot on the first rung of the ladder to the title of "Mrs. America," having been designated "Mrs. East Liverpool" in the city phase of the nationwide cooking contest sponsored by natural gas utilities. Mrs. Holt will represent East Liverpool in the district cook-off contest Thursday at Martins Ferry under sponsorship of the Ohio Valley Gas Co. The district winner will go into the "Mrs. Ohio" finals at Columbus and the state winner then enters the "Mrs. America" contest at Ft. Lauderdale, Fla.

Principal And 32 Teachers Quit Over Paddling Incident

VALDOSTA, Ga. (AP) — More than 600 pupils of Hahira High School would be left without guidance today if all the teachers follow the example of the principal in resigning over a paddling incident.

Principal A. B. Martin and more than half of the 32 faculty members already have written letters of resignation. The remainder indicated they will follow suit.

Asked what he was going to do about running the school, Chairman James T. Hall of the Hahira Board of Trustees declared, "I'm going to do just like the board of education did—I'm going to dump it right back into the board's lap."

This was the best information that could be gathered on the Lowndes County Board of Education's action following a four-hour special hearing Monday. At issue was a demand by the parents of 14-year-old Earl Cornelius that Martin and Mrs. Dwight Maples, a teacher, be fired for spanking the eighth grader.

Lowndes County School Supt. C. W. Meacham was not available for comment. A service station operator said Meacham drove off about midnight, saying, "Come on, let's go to Atlanta."

Apparently the superintendent planned to confer with state school officials at the capital.

Martin, principal for nine years, said he could not continue to head the school without the backing of the board of education.

He denied that he encouraged any of the teachers to follow his lead in resigning. "I have let them make that decision themselves."

Husband Kills Wife, Drinks Poisoned Wine

CHILLICOTHE, Ohio (AP) — Mrs. Ada Graves, about 75, was hacked and shot to death Monday by her husband who then committed suicide apparently by drinking a bottle of poisoned wine, Coroner F. W. Nusbaum reported.

The coroner said Howard Graves, 78, had been having marital difficulties with his wife over a period of years. Mrs. Graves once told a neighbor that her husband threatened to kill her, Dr. Nusbaum said.

The couple's 10-year-old grandson, Ralph Graves, found the bodies in the blood-spattered home near Vigo, south of here.

Dr. Nusbaum returned a verdict of murder and suicide.

Midland GOP Will Convene

In preparation for next Tuesday's primary in Beaver County, the Midland Republican Party committee will meet Friday at 8 p. m. in the Margaret Boston Insurance Agency in the First National Bank building.

Plans will be made for the election of 10 committeemen by write-ins, including a woman and a man from each of the borough's 5 precincts, John Reider, Midland Republican chairman, said.

He said many candidates for nomination to state and national party offices are uncontested. Where there is more than one Republican candidate for an office, the choice is left to the voter, he said. State and county committeemen will be elected after the primary.

The Beaver County Young Republicans' Club will hold its monthly meeting May 4 at 8 p. m. at Deramo's Restaurant.

50 Attend Dinner, 130 Dance Held At Midland Center

The Midland Hi-Spot Youth Center Monday evening held its annual Easter Ball after a party honoring the Lincoln High School basketball team, coaches, cheerleaders and queen candidates.

About 50 attended the roast beef dinner for the team and 130 for the ball. Coaches and their wives attending were Mr. and Mrs. George Hamilton and Mr. and Mrs. Darrell Stillwagon.

Other guests were Steve Germusa, president of Council, School Supt. Ralph H. Jewell and Leslie B. Roach, president of the Board of Education.

Fr. John Corbett, assistant pastor of the Presentation Catholic Church, gave the invocation. Music for dancing was provided by the "Four Weels" instrumental group.

Hostesses were Mrs. Stephen Trbovich, Mrs. Leroy Turner, Mrs. Frank Migliore, Mrs. Stephen Yetso, Mrs. Amedio Gianvito, Mrs. Francis Shone, adult board members, and members of the student committee and the Hi - Spot queen's court.

The center will be open Saturday from 8:30 to 11:30 p. m. instead of Friday because of the high school spring concert.

Mrs. William Spisak is center director.

Kaycees Will Honor Parochial Athletes

Final plans for a "Sports Night" to honor Presentation parochial school athletes were completed at a meeting of Midland Knights of Columbus, Council 2005, Monday evening.

Awards will be presented eighth grade students during a dinner next Monday at 6:30 p. m. in the K. of C. Hall. Ivvan Toncic, Pittsburgh University quarterback, will be a guest along with Lincoln High School coaches.

William Vinovich will be toastmaster. Anthony Martell and Ernest Torres are co-chairmen.

'Pay-As-You-Go' Tax Withholding Inventor Claimed

DANBURY, Conn. (AP)—Beardsley Ruml, 65, who invented "pay-as-you-go" tax withholding and was paid $70,000 a year just to think for a department store, died Monday following a heart attack.

Ruml was stricken a week ago at his home at West Redding, Conn., and died at Danbury Hospital.

A former board chairman of the R. H. Macy and Co. department store and the New York Federal Reserve bank, he was advisor to the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico at his death.

His reputation as an idea man had grown up long before Ruml thought of "pay-as-you-go" while riding on a New York subway train. It was put into law in modified form in 1943.

A native of Cedar Rapids, Iowa, Ruml was a Phi Beta Kappa at Dartmouth College, and got a doctor's degree at the University of Chicago with a thesis on psychometry—measuring and determining intelligence.

He was teaching at Carnegie Institute of Technology when World War I started. He became civilian director of the Army's trade tests.

He worked with the Carnegie Corp. of New York and the Laura Spelman Rockefeller Memorial Organization after the war, and in 1931 became dean of the Social Science Division at the University of Chicago.

When Macy's hired him as treasurer in 1934 to fill the need for a "stimulating mind," he said he was earning his $70,000 salary by sitting around and thinking.

Post Hears Talk On Vets' Benefits

Veterans' benefits and recent legislation were discussed by George Pell of Wheeling, deputy director of veterans' affairs, at a meeting of the Lawrenceville American Legion Post 163 Monday night.

No action was taken on a proposed separate post insurance fund for members. Further discussion will be held at a later meeting.

Graven Lyle, service officer, and John Grimes, assistant service officer, will attend a service officers' conference May 13-15 at Jacksons Mill.

Clarence Baker was enrolled as a new member. Lunch was served to 15 by Harold Waide and committee. Charles Huffman, vice commander, was in charge.

The next meeting will be May 2.

Church Waits Mission Rally

A special mission rally will be held Wednesday at 7:30 p. m. at the First Assembly of God Church, with the Rev. Lawrence R. Larson, missionary to the Fiji Islands, as guest speaker. The Rev. James Millsaps is pastor.

Rev. Larson began his missionary ministry in the Hawaiian Islands in 1954. He served at the Island of Maui from 1955 until his furlough in June 1959. He recently was appointed by the Assemblies of God to serve in the Fiji Islands and travels now throughout the United States presenting the Assemblies of God missions in Hawaii and in the Fiji Islands. Prior to going to Hawaii, he was a pastor in Crookston, Minn.

Rev. Larson was graduated from North Central Bible College at Minneapolis and received his associate of arts degree from Maunaolu College at Paia, Maui, Hawaii. His wife attended North Central Bible College at Minneapolis.

They have three children, Janice Aloma, 7, Dorothy Lelani, 4, and Carol Nanilei, 2.

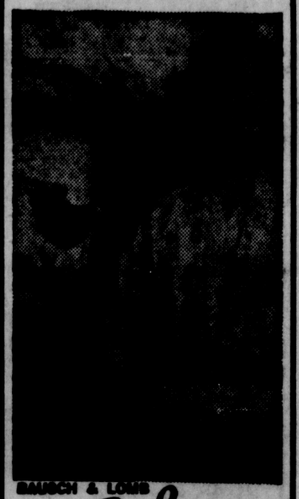

Body Recovered

SUPERIOR, Wis. (AP) — The body of Joseph E. Stockwell, 44, of Ashtabula, Ohio, was recovered here Sunday. Stockwell had been missing since last Oct. 21 from his ship, the Norman W. Foy, a coal carrier. An autopsy showed he apparently was struck by the ship's propeller and drowned.

Where American History comes to life!

The Gun and Locksmith Shop is one of 22 fascinating buildings on display in the Museum's Street of Early American Shops.

Henry Ford Museum

The pioneer spirit that built America is recaptured and preserved in this great museum. Here, your carrier will find outstanding examples of early American art and antiques, and a Street of Early American Shops where he will be fascinated with 22 buildings that preserve the tools and handwork of pre-industrial craftsmen. In the Mechanical Arts Hall he will see more than 175 beautifully restored antique automobiles, full-sized locomotives, historic airplanes, old carriages, early Newcomen and Watt steam engines, crude plows, and much more . . . all arranged to tell the unparalleled story of American industrial progress!

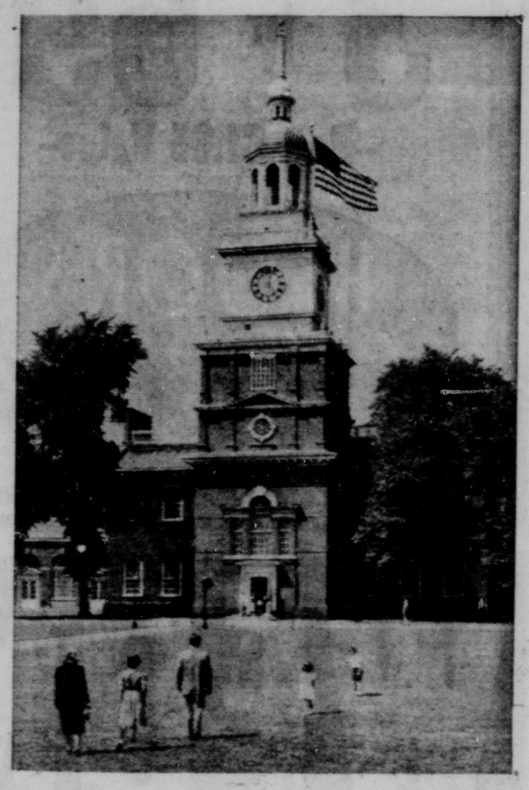

The world's greatest collection of restored antique automobiles shows the development of steam, electric and gasoline vehicles.

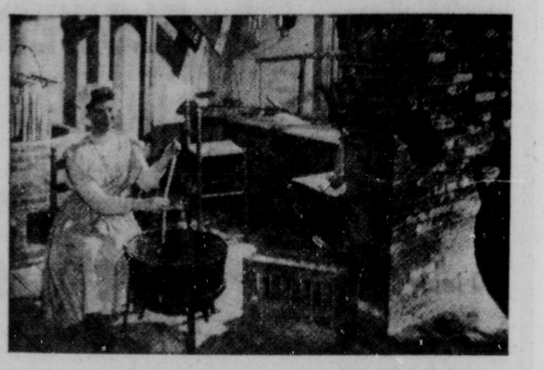

During the winter months colorful sleigh rides frequently replace tours by horse-drawn carriages.

A ride on the wood-burning sternwheeler "Suwanee," recalls the colorful days of Mississippi river boating.

Independence Hall, symbol of American liberty, was chosen by Henry Ford for the entrance to his museum of American history.

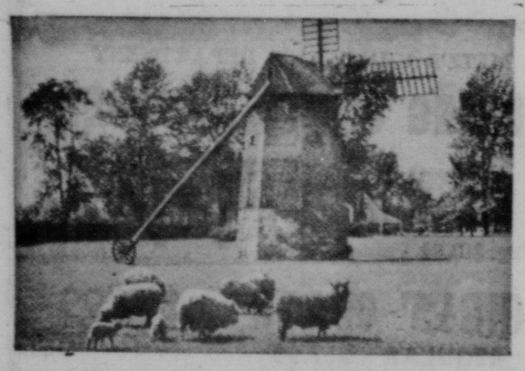

Antique molds are used in this demonstration of early candle-making, one of several crafts revived at the Museum.

Greenfield Village

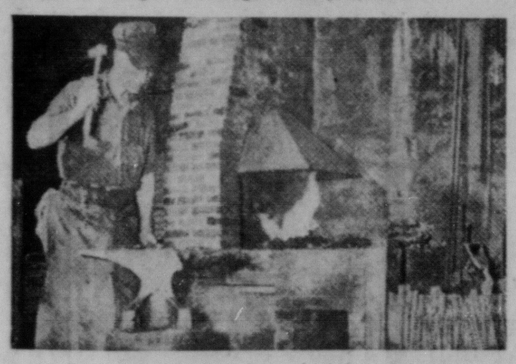

In this delightful outdoor museum your carrier will soon forget the modern tempo as he strolls along shaded lanes and sees early shops, stores, schools and homes brought together from all sections of America. He will be thrilled as he visits Thomas Edison's laboratory where the electric lamp was born, or pause in the bicycle shop where the Wright Brothers created the first airplane, or walk the oaken floors of a courthouse where Lincoln practiced law. The shops with working craftsmen, the simple cabins and the elaborate homes — all the buildings in Greenfield Village paint a vivid and nostalgic picture of America's full, rich past!

Unlimited opportunities for camera enthusiasts are provided by settings similar to this 17th century windmill.

Young Abraham Lincoln first practiced law in this frontier courthouse brought from Logan County, Illinois.

A number of operating craft shops demonstrate the vanishing trades of early America.

Thousands enjoy the annual Old Car Festival, where vintage autos and costumed drivers revive the early days of motoring.

Lane Tells Why He Traded Roommates

Rock Overrated, Tribe Boss Says

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — The real reason Frank Lane, dynamic general manager of the Cleveland Indians, traded away slugger Rocky Colavito and Herb Score, once appraised as a million-dollar pitcher, was that he was simply fed up with both of them.

In an exclusive telephone interview with The Associated Press today, Lane frankly told why, on successive days, he swapped outfielder Colavito to Detroit for Harvey Kuenn, and left-hander Score to the Chicago White Sox for Barry Latman, a 23-year-old unproven right-hander.

Lane did not say directly he was fed up with the two players but he candidly explained the shortcomings of each and told why he believes, contrary to general opinion, the trades greatly improve the Indians.

Among other things, Lane intimated that the departure of Colavito and Score, long-time buddies and roommates, would result in greater harmony on the Indians. He believes Colavito is an overrated player and that Score has slipped to the point where he was useless to the club.

Lane emphasized, however, that he still regards both as fine young men and has no personal grievance against either.

"Joe Gordon doesn't like me," Lane said Score told him. "He doesn't have any sympathy for me. I'd like to be traded to a manager who is more sympathetic."

That just about made up Lane's mind.

"When Herb began to look for sympathy," Lane said, "I knew we couldn't keep him any longer. As a matter of fact, I told Herb that if he wanted Joe to like him all he had to do was win some games for us."

Lane attributed Score's failure to win in recent years to a mental condition (Score's record last year was 9-11).

"It's more psychological than physical," he said. "I believe he still hasn't gotten over that terrible eye injury he suffered in 1957 when he was struck by a line drive hit by Gil McDougald. He keeps thinking it could happen again. On the mound, when he's delivering the ball, he sneaks a peek at the batter. Before the injury, he never looked at the batter—just at the catcher and the strike zone.

"I don't think Score is through. I just think he can't win for Cleveland. Maybe he'll pitch more effectively in Chicago with the bigger park and a manager like Al Lopez who knows him and likes him and may give him more sympathy."

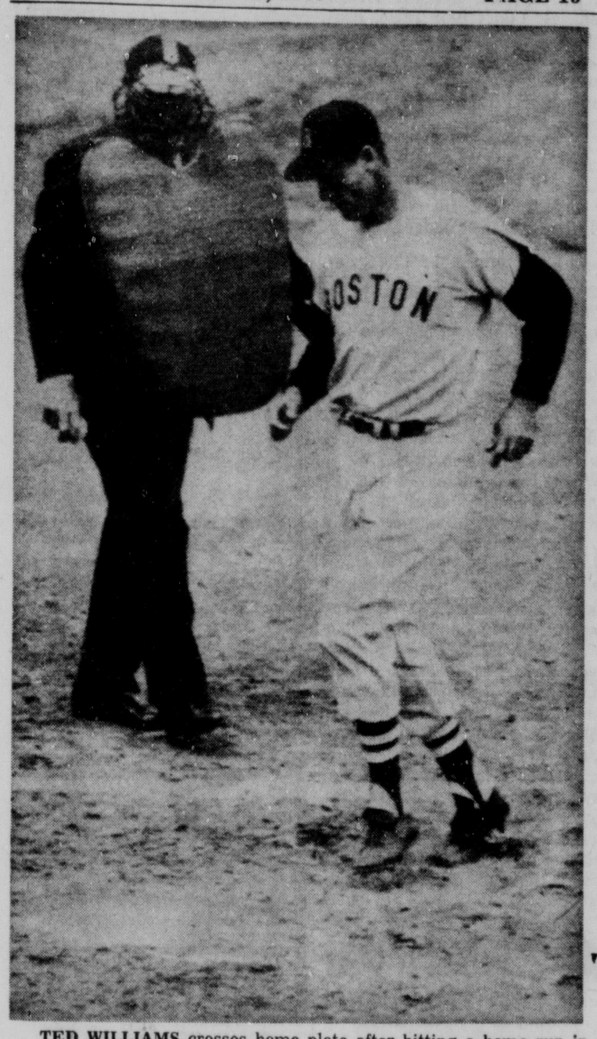

As for the Colavito-Kuenn trade, Lane said:

"I made a survey this spring of 8 or 9 of the league's best pitchers . . . . Every pitcher rated Kuenn as either the toughest or the second toughest to pitch to with men on bases. Rocky was far down the list.

"Rocky helped us only when he hit a home run. His other weaknesses detract from his value.

"He is slow, his arm is erratic, he is not the best outfielder, and he can't move up a runner. . ."

Angry Fans Cloud Opener At Cleveland

CLEVELAND (AP) — Whatever the Cleveland Indians do today in their season opener against the Detroit Tigers, they will have a hard time matching the excitement created by Frank (Trader) Lane with two big trades this week.

The Cleveland general manager sent Rocky Colavito, hero of hundreds of Cleveland youngsters, to Detroit for Harvey Keunn Sunday, then came back Monday with the swap of southpaw Herb Score for righthanded pitcher Barry Latman of the Chicago White Sox.

Mayor Anthony J. Celebrezze, who throws out the first ball at Municipal Stadium today (3 p.m. EST), expressed the sentiment of many other fans when he was told of the trades:

"Oh my heavens, they did that?" he asked in amazement. "Score and Colavito were two of my favorite players."

Although some fans threatened to stay away from the ball park after hearing about the trades, the club predicted a crowd of 40,000 for the opener—well above the 33,098 who paid to see last year's home opener.

Lane said he traded Score because he needed a pitcher who could produce victories immediately. He couldn't wait for Score to make a comeback.

Score had a 9-11 record last year, and Lane said the 26-year-old southpaw "showed us nothing during spring training to make us feel optimistic." Latman, 23, had an 8-5 record in 1959.

Score won 20 games for Cleveland in 1956, his sophomore year, and the American League in strikeouts with 263.

Lane has let it be known he doesn't hold on to anyone who wants to be traded, and Score was dealt away the day after he asked to be. Lane said Score felt bad about the departure of Colavito, his roommate and close friend.

Score said he will enjoy playing again for Manager Al Lopez.

Lopez, happy to have Score "on our side," said he thinks "he still is a fine pitcher. . . ."

Latman, a fastballer, "is going to be a very fine pitcher," Lopez declared. He may help solve Cleveland's pitching problem.

Lane called Latman "one of the most promising young pitchers in the league. He has the arm and the desire to be a star."

Among the pitching regulars, only 23-year-old Gary Bell, today's starter, and Jim Perry have been effective on the exhibition circuit.

Today's probable starting lineups:

DETROIT — Eddie Yost, 3b; Frank Bolling, 2b; Rocky Colavito, rf; Al Kaline, cf; Charlie Maxwell, lf; Steve Bilko, 1b; Chico Fernandez, ss; Lou Berberet, c; Frank Lary, p.

Lewis Quits At WVU; To Join Steeler Staff

MORGANTOWN, W. Va. (AP)—The Athletic Council's acceptance of Art (Pappy) Lewis' resignation as West Virginia football coach is expected within a few days.

Scrappy Pappy, climaxing a long-standing feud with members of the council, announced Monday he was quitting to join the scouting and coaching staff of the Pittsburgh Steelers in the National Football League.

In a parting shot he suggested the council should also quit. "They should do this to give the new coach a chance," he said.

University President Elvis J. Stahr immediately announced Gene Corum, an assistant to Lewis throughout Pappy's 10-year stay, as new acting head coach. He said this appointment will be placed before the council within the next few days.

Without going into detail, Lewis said he was stepping out because "things are in such an impossible mess."

The council recommended his dismissal last January, But Stahr said at that time the university board of governors had decided to keep him on "by the skin of his teeth."

In a rare statewide radio announcement, the university president added, however, that Lewis would be asked to resign unless he did his job "in such a way as to rebuild steadily the confidence in him, of faculty, students, alumni and others, which we believe has been diminishing for some years."

Pappy, whose teams had won five Southern Conference championships in compiling a 58-38-2 record, called the probationary conditions set by Stahr "impossible to work under."

Sam Jones Takes Liking To Young Polio Victim

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — This is a story about Sam Jones, ace of the San Francisco Giant pitching staff, and Johnny Bushman, 12, a polio victim.

Dragging his right leg in a brace, the boy showed up for all the home games last season. Sometimes he had the 90 cents bleacher fee, sometimes he didn't. He is one of four children, and money for amusement is not too plentiful. He showed up anyway.

Jones happened to notice the kid and became acquainted. The big Negro pitcher isn't much of a talker and neither is the little white boy. Perhaps that's why they were attracted to each other.

Sam saw to it the youngster got inside for every game after that. After the games, Johnny would be admitted to the clubhouse. Sam made absolutely no display of it, and few people paid any attention to the boy.

Sam's sons, Nick, 8, and Mike, 6, flew out to be with their dad after school ended in Monogah, W. Va. The three lads met at the ball park.

When the Giants came to town to open their 1960 season last week, Sam learned that Johnny was in Shriners Hospital. He had undergone an operation and had a huge cast on his leg.

Jones is a regular visitor, confident that his small friend will some day walk normally.

Jones, who never says two words if one will do, has this explanation for his friendship with Johnny:

"He's a nice, well mannered kid. I just like him."

Hutch Sticks By Guns But Is Criticized

MILWAUKEE (AP)—There's a bray of criticism in the air about Manager Fred Hutchinson's pitching changes last Sunday, but Hutch sticks to his guns.

"I'd do it again under the same circumstances," said the manager who had been plainly angered at the turn of events Sunday, after he made a mound change.

The Reds had been shut out, 5-0, in the first game of a doubleheader against Pittsburgh. But the Reds, with good pitching by Don Newcombe and Raul Sanchez, tried to return the favor in the nightcap.

Cincinnati had a 5-0 lead going into the last of the ninth inning. Hutch sent in reliefer Bill Henry for Sanchez. The Pirates promptly got four quick runs.

Hutch sent in Ted Wieand. He served up the home run pitch that gave Pittsburgh the game, 6-5.

Hutch said in analysis: "Sanchez occasionally can pitch high but to be successful he must be low.

"He was excellent in the fifth and sixth innings, started to go upstairs with his pitches in the seventh and was fortunate in the eighth. He was pitching the ball too high.

"We've got a five-run lead going into the last of the ninth. How often do you see a club score five or six in one inning?

"I've got Henry warm in the bullpen and the Pirates have two left-handed batters coming to bat.

"Henry is one of the best reliefers in baseball, Sanchez is pitching too high, so I brought in Henry."

The Reds are to pack in a heavy workout here today in preparation for start of a series with the Braves Wednesday. Jim Brosnan is set to start on the mound.

Bucs' Friend Gives Formula For Comeback

By DAVID A. LEHERR

PITTSBURGH (AP) — "Good conditioning, a faster fast ball, better all around stuff, and some luck" — that's Bob Friend's secret comeback formula.

"With those things going for me, I feel confident that I'll have a terrific year this season — maybe even to the point of winning 20 games or more," said the Pittsburgh Pirate moundsman in an interview.

"I think I have the first three down pat already. Now all I need is the little bit of luck."

Friend plummetted to a 9-18 record last year after tying Milwaukee's Warren Spahn as the National League's winningest pitcher in 1958 with 22 victories. He said he feels in a "lot better shape this season."

"I weighed about 190 pounds at this time last year," said the 29-year-old right-hander. "This year I weigh the same, but I feel a lot stronger."

He added that dieting and playing squash during the winter kept him in condition.

Friend thinks his stuff has been showing it too. It took him till May 26 last season to post his first victory. He got his first triumph this season on Sunday with a four-hit 5-0 shutout against the Cincinnati Reds.

Lane Hanged In Effigy By Indian Fans

CLEVELAND (AP)—Out on St. Clair Avenue they hanged Frank Lane in effigy and laid out a likeness of Joe Gordon on a slab.

This was the way habitues of the Pointview Grill showed how they felt about the trade in which Lane, Cleveland Indians' general manager, dealt slugger Rocky Colavito to Detroit for Harvey Kuenn.

Gordon backed Lane up on his decision to trade the popular Colavito.

While fans protested bitterly against Sunday's Colavito-Kuenn deal, Lane drew little criticism for Monday's trade of southpaw Herb Score to the Chicago White Sox for righthand hurler Barry Latman.

The sports department of the Cleveland Plain Dealer, swamped Sunday with telephone calls, said the early callers opposed the Colavito-Kuenn trade by 9 to 1. This ratio changed Monday to 4-1.

On the Score trade, callers favored the swap by 3 to 1.

A man in Pat Joyce's tavern on E. 9th Street found something else to complain about in the fact there will be no beer for patrons at Cleveland Stadium today. City officials said the stadium beer license won't be available until April 28.

Said the man in Pat Joyce's: "No Rocky, no Score, no beer. No nothin'. This guy Lane probably traded the beer license."

Notre Dame Aide Named Assistant To Paul Brown

CLEVELAND (AP)— Dick Evans, an assistant football coach at Notre Dame, will take a similar job with the Cleveland Browns, Coach Paul Brown announced Monday.

Evans, 41, a veteran of nine years of professional football as player and coach, replaces Dick Gallagher, now general manager of the new American League's Buffalo team.

The realigned Browns staff will have Evans as defensive line coach and Paul Bixler as offensive end coach and supervisor of talent scouting.

Fritz Heisler and Eddie Ulinski will work with offensive linemen and Howard Brinker with defensive backs. All three will share some of the talent-hunting duties under Bixler.

Evans, who went to Notre Dame with Joe Kuharich last season, has played with the Green Bay Packers and the Chicago Cardinals. He was an outstanding end at the University of Iowa before entering the pro ranks. In 1943-44, he played and coached while in the Marines.

Evans joined the Redskins staff in 1955, serving as offensive and defensive line coach for four seasons.

Fans 15 Boston Batters

Pascual, Nats Rip Bosox; Other AL Clubs Open Today

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer

The American League, its race for the cellar already under way, gets started on the run for the pennant today midst a buzzing controversy over a pair of trades by the Cleveland Indians.

Washington and Boston, just about "pick 'em" choices for a last place finish, played the early, presidential opener in the AL's late start Monday. The Senators, supporting a three-hit, 15-strikeout job by Camilo Pascual with four home runs, slugged the Red Sox 10-1. Boston scored on Ted Williams' 493rd home run.

All eight clubs are at it today, and the big game is at Cleveland's Municipal Stadium between the Indians and the Detroit Tigers. A crowd of about 40,000 and some sort of fan demonstration is expected after the Sunday trade in which Cleveland General Manager Frank Lane swapped fan favorite Rocky Colavito to the Tigers for Harvey Kuenn.

The Chicago White Sox, favored to make it two straight pennants after a 40-year famine, go with Early Wynn (22-10) against Kansas City and left-hander Bud Daley (16-13) before an expected 37,000 at Comiskey Park. Wynn, the AL's lone 20-game winner last year, starts his 20th season and is shooting for his 272nd victory. The A's were the only club that held an edge (3-1) over the big right-hander in 1959.

In addition to Minoso, making his second trip to Chicago from Cleveland, the White Sox will have one other winter acquisition, third baseman Gene Freese (Philadelphia) in the line-up. The A's Bob Elliott, only new manager in the league, has two more ex-New York Yankees in the lineup, right fielder Hank Bauer and first baseman Norm Siebern.

The Yankees, bidding for a comeback after last season's third place flop, go with right-hander Jim Coates (6-1) on the mound and Roger Maris, late of the A's, in right field at Boston. The Red Sox will start right-hander Tom Brewer (10-12).

Baltimore, packed with newcomers, named young Jerry Walker (11-10) to face the Senators' Pete Ramos (13-19) in the Orioles' opener.

The Senators, second to Cleveland in the AL with a club-record 163 home runs last season, started unloading against loser Tom Sturdivant in the second inning after President Eisenhower had thrown out the first ball at Griffith Stadium Monday. Jim Lemon homered in a three-run second, and Bob Allison, Earl Battey, obtained in a White Sox swap, and Billy Consolo hammered away in a five-run fourth.

Pascual, 26, a curve-balling right-hander, had no trouble at all except for a second-inning home run by Williams that tied the thumper with Lou Gehrig for No. 4 on the all-time list. Pascual, who won his last five decisions of '59, cracked Washington's strikeout record, set by Walter Johnson in 1910, by fanning Gene Stephens for No. 15 in the ninth inning.

The National League, which stole headlines from the AL by opening a week earlier, was idle. Today's games send Los Angeles to San Francisco for an early first place fight; Philadelphia to Pittsburgh and Chicago to St. Louis. Milwaukee and Cincinnati are idle.

Struthers Gains 2nd Win

Potter Nine Drops Third

East Liverpool's string hit three straight Monday when the Potters dropped a 3-2 decision to Struthers in its home opener at Patterson Field.

It was the second time this season that Struthers has nipped the Potters by one run.

With the score tied 2-2, Struthers pushed across the winning run in the sixth inning when Plany, the leadoff man, singled, was sacrificed to second and then came home on Barber's single.

Both teams had scored single runs in the first and second innings.

East Liverpool managed to get men on base in the sixth and seventh innings, but two neat double plays by the visitors killed the rally each time.

Gary Steffen wound up as the loser after giving up five hits and fanning seven. Plany limited the Potters to only two hits, walked five and struck out nine.

A double by shortstop Kenny Cunningham and Goodballet's single were the only base hits for the Potters.

The Potters are scheduled to meet Weirton today at 4 p. m. at Patterson Field.

Next OSU Scrimmage Set For Wednesday

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Ohio State footballers, still stiff from four days of idle Easter vacation, passed up a scrimmage Monday in favor of individual workouts and drills.

Coach Woody Hayes' boys plan their next scrimmage Wednesday.

During Monday's 2½-hour practice, the backfield spent about an hour working through new plays.

After two weeks out with an injured leg muscle, sophomore fullback Roger Detrick was running at full speed.

After more than 20 seasons with the Southern Assn., President Charlie Hurth has resigned.

Beaver Local Nine To Host Chester

Beaver Local High's baseball squad will entertain Chester High Tuesday afternoon in one of two home games scheduled this week.

Newell will provide the opposition for a game Thursday afternoon at Beaver Local.

The Beavers were defeated Friday by Springfield, 7-4, at the Jefferson County School. Dave Myer, who relieved starter Lloyd Zeigler, was tagged with the loss.

Canfield To Open Racing Season On Saturday Night

CANFIELD — The Canfield Speedway will open its doors on the 1960 racing season Saturday night with time trials beginning at 7 and the first race getting underway at 8:30.

The modified bombs and late models will share the honors on opening night in an 8-race program.

The program will include two feature events — 20 laps for the late models and 25 for the modifies.

Pughtown Area Lake Will Open Wednesday

Crab Apple Lake a half-mile west of Pughtown will be open for fishing Wednesday.

Charles Van Dyne, manager, said the lake has been stocked with trout, bass, crappies, channel cat and blue gills and that no license is needed to fish.

Fishing will be from sunrise to sunset.

Lane Tells Why He Traded Roommates

Rock Overrated, Tribe Boss Says

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — The real reason Frank Lane, dynamic general manager of the Cleveland Indians, traded away slugger Rocky Colavito and Herb Score, once appraised as a million-dollar pitcher, was that he was simply fed up with both of them.

In an exclusive telephone interview with The Associated Press today, Lane frankly told why, on successive days, he swapped outfielder Colavito to Detroit for Harvey Kuenn, and left-hander Score to the Chicago White Sox for Barry Latman, a 23-year-old unproven right-hander.

Lane did not say directly he was fed up with the two players but he candidly explained the shortcomings of each and told why he believes, contrary to general opinion, the trades greatly improve the Indians.

Among other things, Lane intimated that the departure of Colavito and Score, long-time buddies and roommates, would result in greater harmony on the Indians. He believes Colavito is an overrated player and that Score has slipped to the point where he was useless to the club.

Lane emphasized, however, that he still regards both as fine young men and has no personal grievance against either.

"Joe Gordon doesn't like me," Lane said Score told him. "He doesn't have any sympathy for me. I'd like to be traded to a manager who is more sympathetic."

That just about made up Lane's mind.

"When Herb began to look for sympathy," Lane said, "I knew we couldn't keep him any longer. As a matter of fact, I told Herb that if he wanted Joe to like him all he had to do was win some games for us."

Lane attributed Score's failure to win in recent years to a mental condition (Score's record last year was 9-11).

"It's more psychological than physical," he said. "I believe he still hasn't gotten over that terrible eye injury he suffered in 1957 when he was struck by a line drive hit by Gil McDougald. He keeps thinking it could happen again. On the mound, when he's delivering the ball, he sneaks a peek at the batter. Before the injury, he never looked at the batter—just at the catcher and the strike zone.

"I don't think Score is through. I just think he can't win for Cleveland. Maybe he'll pitch more effectively in Chicago with the bigger park and a manager like Al Lopez who knows him and likes him and may give him more sympathy."

As for the Colavito-Kuenn trade, Lane said:

"I made a survey this spring of 8 or 9 of the league's best pitchers . . . . Every pitcher rated Kuenn as either the toughest or the second toughest to pitch to with men on bases. Rocky was far down the list.

"Rocky helped us only when he hit a home run. His other weaknesses detract from his value.

Hutch Sticks By Guns But Is Criticized

MILWAUKEE (AP)—There's a bray of criticism in the air about Manager Fred Hutchinson's pitching changes last Sunday, but Hutch sticks to his guns.

"I'd do it again under the same circumstances," said the manager who had been plainly angered at the turn of events Sunday, after he made a mound change.

The Reds had been shut out, 5-0, in the first game of a doubleheader against Pittsburgh. But the Reds, with good pitching by Don Newcombe and Raul Sanchez, tried to return the favor in the nightcap.

Cincinnati had a 5-0 lead going into the last of the ninth inning. Hutch sent in reliefer Bill Henry for Sanchez. The Pirates promptly got four quick runs.

Hutch sent in Ted Wieand. He served up the home run pitch that gave Pittsburgh the game, 6-5.

Hutch said in analysis: "Sanchez occasionally can pitch high but to be successful he must be low.

"He was excellent in the fifth and sixth innings, started to go upstairs with his pitches in the seventh and was fortunate in the eighth. He was pitching the ball too high.

"We've got a five-run lead going into the last of the ninth. How often do you see a club score five or six in one inning?

"I've got Henry warm in the bullpen and the Pirates have two left-handed batters coming to bat.

"Henry is one of the best reliefers in baseball, Sanchez is pitching too high, so I brought in Henry."

The Reds are to pack in a heavy workout here today in preparation for start of a series with the Braves Wednesday. Jim Brosnan is set to start on the mound.

Bucs' Friend Gives Formula For Comeback

By DAVID A. LEHERR

PITTSBURGH (AP) — "Good conditioning, a faster fast ball, better all around stuff, and some luck" — that's Bob Friend's secret comeback formula.

"With those things going for me, I feel confident that I'll have a terrific year this season — maybe even to the point of winning 20 games or more," said the Pittsburgh Pirate moundsman in an interview.

"I think I have the first three down pat already. Now all I need is the little bit of luck."

Friend plummetted to a 9-18 record last year after tying Milwaukee's Warren Spahn as the National League's winningest pitcher in 1958 with 22 victories. He said he feels in a "lot better shape this season."

"I weighed about 190 pounds at this time last year," said the 29-year-old right-hander. "This year I weigh the same, but I feel a lot stronger."

He added that dieting and playing squash during the winter kept him in condition.

Friend thinks his stuff has been showing it too. It took him till May 26 last season to post his first victory. He got his first triumph this season on Sunday with a four-hit 5-0 shutout against the Cincinnati Reds.

Lane Hanged In Effigy By Indian Fans

CLEVELAND (AP)—Out on St. Clair Avenue they hanged Frank Lane in effigy and laid out a likeness of Joe Gordon on a slab.

This was the way habitues of the Pointview Grill showed how they felt about the trade in which Lane, Cleveland Indians' general manager, dealt slugger Rocky Colavito to Detroit for Harvey Kuenn.

Gordon backed Lane up on his decision to trade the popular Colavito.

While fans protested bitterly against Sunday's Colavito-Kuenn deal, Lane drew little criticism for Monday's trade of southpaw Herb Score to the Chicago White Sox for righthand hurler Barry Latman.

The sports department of the Cleveland Plain Dealer, swamped Sunday with telephone calls, said the early callers opposed the Colavito-Kuenn trade by 9 to 1. This ratio changed Monday to 4-1.

On the Score trade, callers favored the swap by 3 to 1.

A man in Pat Joyce's tavern on E. 9th Street found something else to complain about in the fact there will be no beer for patrons at Cleveland Stadium today. City officials said the stadium beer license won't be available until April 28.

Said the man in Pat Joyce's: "No Rocky, no Score, no beer. No nothin'. This guy Lane probably traded the beer license."

Notre Dame Aide Named Assistant To Paul Brown

CLEVELAND (AP)— Dick Evans, an assistant football coach at Notre Dame, will take a similar job with the Cleveland Browns, Coach Paul Brown announced Monday.

Evans, 41, a veteran of nine years of professional football as player and coach, replaces Dick Gallagher, now general manager of the new American League's Buffalo team.

The realigned Browns staff will have Evans as defensive line coach and Paul Bixler as offensive end coach and supervisor of talent scouting.

Fritz Heisler and Eddie Ulinski will work with offensive linemen and Howard Brinker with defensive backs. All three will share some of the talent-hunting duties under Bixler.

Evans, who went to Notre Dame with Joe Kuharich last season, has played with the Green Bay Packers and the Chicago Cardinals. He was an outstanding end at the University of Iowa before entering the pro ranks. In 1943-44, he played and coached while in the Marines.

Evans joined the Redskins staff in 1955, serving as offensive and defensive line coach for four seasons.

Ground-Breaking Set For Geneva Fieldhouse

Fans 15 Boston Batters

Pascual, Nats Rip Bosox; Other AL Clubs Open Today

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer

The American League, its race for the cellar already under way, gets started on the run for the pennant today midst a buzzing controversy over a pair of trades by the Cleveland Indians.

Washington and Boston, just about "pick 'em" choices for a last place finish, played the early, presidential opener in the AL's late start Monday. The Senators, supporting a three-hit, 15-strikeout job by Camilo Pascual with four home runs, slugged the Red Sox 10-1. Boston scored on Ted Williams' 493rd home run.

All eight clubs are at it today, and the big game is at Cleveland's Municipal Stadium between the Indians and the Detroit Tigers. A crowd of about 40,000 and some sort of fan demonstration is expected after the Sunday trade in which Cleveland General Manager Frank Lane swapped fan favorite Rocky Colavito to the Tigers for Harvey Kuenn.

Right-hander Gary Bell (16-11), now virtually a "must" ace if the Injuns are to scrap for the flag, is their opening pitcher against Frank Lary (17-10).

The Chicago White Sox, favored to make it two straight pennants after a 40-year famine, go with Early Wynn (22-10) against Kansas City and left-hander Bud Daley (16-13) before an expected 37,000 at Comiskey Park. Wynn, the AL's lone 20-game winner last year, starts his 20th season and is shooting for his 272nd victory. The A's were the only club that held an edge (3-1) over the big right-hander in 1959.

In addition to Minoso, making his second trip to Chicago from Cleveland, the White Sox will have one other winter acquisition, third baseman Gene Freese (Philadelphia) in the line-up. The A's Bob Elliott, only new manager in the league, has two more ex-New York Yankees in the lineup, right fielder Hank Bauer and first baseman Norm Siebern.

The Yankees, bidding for a comeback after last season's third place flop, go with right-hander Jim Coates (6-1) on the mound and Roger Maris, late of the A's, in right field at Boston. The Red Sox will start right-hander Tom Brewer (10-12).

Baltimore, packed with newcomers, named young Jerry Walker (11-10) to face the Senators' Pete Ramos (13-19) in the Orioles' opener.

The Senators, second to Cleveland in the AL with a club-record 163 home runs last season, started unloading against loser Tom Sturdivant in the second inning after President Eisenhower had thrown out the first ball at Griffith Stadium Monday. Jim Lemon homered in a three-run second, and Bob Allison, Earl Battey, obtained in a White Sox swap, and Billy Consolo hammered away in a five-run fourth.

Pascual, 26, a curve-balling right-hander, had no trouble at all except for a second-inning home run by Williams that tied the thumper with Lou Gehrig for No. 4 on the all-time list. Pascual, who won his last five decisions of '59, cracked Washington's strikeout record, set by Walter Johnson in 1910, by fanning Gene Stephens for No. 15 in the ninth inning.

The National League, which stole headlines from the AL by opening a week earlier, was idle. Today's games send Los Angeles to San Francisco for an early first place fight; Philadelphia to Pittsburgh and Chicago to St. Louis. Milwaukee and Cincinnati are idle.

Struthers Gains 2nd Win

Potter Nine Drops Third

East Liverpool's string hit three straight Monday when the Potters dropped a 3-2 decision to Struthers in its home opener at Patterson Field.

It was the second time this season that Struthers has nipped the Potters by one run.

With the score tied 2-2, Struthers pushed across the winning run in the sixth inning when Plany, the leadoff man, singled, was sacrificed to second and then came home on Barber's single.

Both teams had scored single runs in the first and second innings.

East Liverpool managed to get men on base in the sixth and seventh innings, but two neat double plays by the visitors killed the rally each time.

Gary Steffen wound up as the loser after giving up five hits and fanning seven. Plany limited the Potters to only two hits, walked five and struck out nine.

A double by shortstop Kenny Cunningham and Goodballet's single were the only base hits for the Potters.

The Potters are scheduled to meet Weirton today at 4 p. m. at Patterson Field.

Next OSU Scrimmage Set For Wednesday

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Ohio State footballers, still stiff from four days of idle Easter vacation, passed up a scrimmage Monday in favor of individual workouts and drills.

Coach Woody Hayes' boys plan their next scrimmage Wednesday.

During Monday's 2½-hour practice, the backfield spent about an hour working through new plays.

After two weeks out with an injured leg muscle, sophomore fullback Roger Detrick was running at full speed.

After more than 20 seasons with the Southern Assn., President Charlie Hurth has resigned.

Beaver Local Nine To Host Chester

Beaver Local High's baseball squad will entertain Chester High Tuesday afternoon in one of two home games scheduled this week.

Newell will provide the opposition for a game Thursday afternoon at Beaver Local.

The Beavers were defeated Friday by Springfield, 7-4, at the Jefferson County School. Dave Myer, who relieved starter Lloyd Zeigler, was tagged with the loss.

Canfield To Open Racing Season On Saturday Night

CANFIELD — The Canfield Speedway will open its doors on the 1960 racing season Saturday night with time trials beginning at 7 and the first race getting underway at 8:30.

The modified bombs and late models will share the honors on opening night in an 8-race program.

The program will include two feature events — 20 laps for the late models and 25 for the modifies.

Pughtown Area Lake Will Open Wednesday

Crab Apple Lake a half-mile west of Pughtown will be open for fishing Wednesday.

Charles Van Dyne, manager, said the lake has been stocked with trout, bass, crappies, channel cat and blue gills and that no license is needed to fish.

Fishing will be from sunrise to sunset.

Johansson, Patterson May Sign Pact Today

By MURRAY ROSE
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—If the lawyers clear up the details, heavyweight champion Ingemar Johansson and Floyd Patterson may be able to sign official contracts late today for their return fight at the Polo Grounds June 20 or 22.

"I hope so," said the unbeaten Swede, who arrived Monday night from Switzerland. "From what I understand everything is supposed to be ready. I want to fly back to Switzerland tomorrow and start hard training."

According to the promoters, Feature Sports Inc., one of the major barriers in the way of the fight was cleared Monday when FSI reached an agreement for the purchase of all stock of Floyd Patterson Enterprises. This stock is held by Patterson and his manager, Cus D'Amato.

The manager presently is unlicensed in New York but the ex-champion has said he will fight in New York whether D'Amato is in his corner or not.

Two other obstacles have to be cleared by the promoters, however, before they can get around to the important business of selling tickets and the television rights.

First, the State Athletic Commission wants to get a long look at the contracts.

Another state agency was deeply concerned. Attorney General Louis Lefkowitz called in all of the principals for a conference today to discuss some of the hangovers of the first fight last June 26.

Sign or not, Johansson and Patterson are getting an education. If the legal-beagling keeps up, they may qualify for law degrees before they step into the ring.

Hardin-Simmons will play three home football games at Abilene, Tex., next fall. They are Arizona State, West Texas State and New Mexico State.

Winners In East Liverpool Beagle Trial Are Announced

Winners have been named in the East Liverpool Beagle Club's Plan A field trial held Saturday and Sunday at the club grounds on the old Y. & O. Rd.

Alfred Bayless, secretary, reported that 93 beagles participated in the license-qualifying trial. The second Plan A license qualifying trial will be held Nov. 12-13.

Trophies were given to each first-place hound, ribbons to all places and trophies to each absolute winner. The absolute winner trophies were donated by Paul Johnston of Chester and Harry Springer of Newell.

Field marshals for the two - day event were Earl Springer, Charles White, Denzil Conger, Richard Mosser and Glenn Sprowls. A. P. (Bud) Mitchell, a field representative of New York from the American Kennel Club, visited the trial Saturday. Albert Hathaway of McKees Rocks, Pa., international beagle federation secretary-treasurer, also was present.

The Saturday winners in the 13-inch female class and their owners were:

First, Fd. Ch. Kapri Busy Bee, Francis Toot of Magnolia; Second, Fd. Ch. Red Bay Susie Que, Alfred Bayless, Newell; Third, Smokey Mary G., Don Heaston, Canton; Fourth, Archway May, Joe Arch and Al Hathaway, McKees Rocks; NBQ, Fd. Ch. Irene Terry Kay, Larry Diddle, East Liverpool.

The 15-inch class female winners were: First, Red Bay Becky, Alfred Bayless, Newell; Second, Fd. Ch. Heath's Sparkle, Eileen Heath, St. Clairsville; Third, Harmon Creek Dolly, Henry Pierce, Steubenville; Fourth, E. J. Judy, Edwin Grist, Follansbee; NBQ, Lough Ree Rebecca, Glenn Sprowls, East Liverpool.

The absolute winner was Fd. Ch. Heath's Sparkle. Bernie Baxter and Larry Diddle were judges for the 15-inch class. Harry Springer and Robert Appel judged the 13-inch class.

The Sunday winners in the 13-inch class for males were:

First, Nobil Hill Spot, Don Kryder, Canton; Second, Soo Line Little Rebel, Arthur Lewis, Bloomingdale; Third, Heath's Pat, Frank Sharp, Martins Ferry; Fourth, Kapri Sargent, Francis Toot, Magnolia; NBI, Chick's Cherry Ebony, Joe Kideer, Houston, Pa.

Winners for males in the 15-inch class Sunday were:

Little Blue Rusty was the absolute winner.

Meals were served to approximately 175. The kitchen committee members included Mrs. Riley Taylor, Mrs. Richard Mosser, Mrs. Richard Wolfe, Mrs. John Wise, Mrs. Alfred Bayless, Mrs. Harry Springer, Don Hall, John Watson, John Wise, Miss Sue Montgomery and Miss Sally Sprowls.

Best In Majors, Senators' Pilot Says Of Pascual

By WHITNEY SHOEMAKER

WASHINGTON (AP) — "Best pitcher in the American League. No — in both doggone leagues."

Manager Cookie Lavagetto of the Washington Senators was speaking of Camilo Pascual, the slick right-hander from Cuba.

Pascual hurled the Senators to a three-hit 10-1 rout of the Boston Red Sox in the opening game of the American League season Monday before President Eisenhower and a crowd of 28,237 jammed into Griffith Stadium.

Ted Williams, Boston's sore-necked slugger, belted one of the longest home runs ever witnessed in Washington. And the Senators unleashed their own home run might, with Jim Lemon, Bob Allison, new catcher Earl Battey and Billy Consolo hitting over the fence. But Pascual was the hero.

The slender 26-year-old pitcher built up the game's only real tension and evoked its greatest ovation in the ninth when he missed the plate with two balls, then whistled three straight strikes past Gene Stephens.

The Stephens strikeout was Pascual's 15th and broke a record set by famed Walter Johnson. Johnson twice fanned 14, in 1910 and 1924, and Jim Shaw, an almost forgotten Senator, did it once, in 1914.

Fullmer-Giardello Title Fight Waited

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer

BOZEMAN, Mont. (AP) — This is cow country, far off the beaten path for the fight game. Rainbow trout glitter in the mountain streams. Elk line the road to nearby Yellowstone National Park.

The snow-capped Rockies provide a backdrop for one of the most unusual fight promotions in years. Men in high-heeled cowboy boots and 10-gallon hats are debating the merits of champion Gene Fullmer and challenger Joey Giardello who meet Wednesday night for the National Boxing Assn. version of the world middleweight title in the Montana State College fieldhouse.

Not since Jack Dempsey and Doc Kearns sacked Shelby in 1923 for the heavyweight match with Tom Gibbons has a title bout been staged within the boundaries of this mountain state. The bitter taste of that costly promotion in Shelby, some 200 miles away, still lingers.

Nobody will go broke this time. Thanks to the television sponsors who are putting up a reported $100,000 and a booming gate sale that already has produced $85,000, the promotion appears to be a guaranteed success.

Fullmer and his entire crew of handlers, sparmates and manager are housed in a girls' dormitory on the campus of a fast-growing college.

Giardello, a 12-5 underdog, has finished training at Livingston, some 25 miles to the east.

Warren Man Appeals Conviction For Holdup

LISBON — Atty. Francis Diana of Youngstown Monday filed with the 7th District Court of Appeals an appeal in behalf of James H. Maras, 20, of Warren, who has been sentenced for armed robbery after he was convicted by a Common Pleas Court jury.

Maras was found guilty March 30 of the armed robbery at Barnett's Motel west of Salem last Dec. 11, in which $650 was taken.

Judge Raymond S. Buzzard sentenced him to 10-25 years in the Ohio State Penitentiary after refusing Maras' motion for a new trial April 8.

Johansson, Patterson May Sign Pact Today

By MURRAY ROSE
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—If the lawyers clear up the details, heavyweight champion Ingemar Johansson and Floyd Patterson may be able to sign official contracts late today for their return fight at the Polo Grounds June 20 or 22.

"I hope so," said the unbeaten Swede, who arrived Monday night from Switzerland. "From what I understand everything is supposed to be ready. I want to fly back to Switzerland tomorrow and start hard training."

According to the promoters, Feature Sports Inc., one of the major barriers in the way of the fight was cleared Monday when FSI reached an agreement for the purchase of all stock of Floyd Patterson Enterprises. This stock is held by Patterson and his manager, Cus D'Amato.

The manager presently is unlicensed in New York but the ex-champion has said he will fight in New York whether D'Amato is in his corner or not.

Two other obstacles have to be cleared by the promoters, however, before they can get around to the important business of selling tickets and the television rights.

First, the State Athletic Commission wants to get a long look at the contracts.

Another state agency was deeply concerned. Attorney General Louis Lefkowitz called in all of the principals for a conference today to discuss some of the hangovers of the first fight last June 26.

Sign or not, Johansson and Patterson are getting an education. If the legal-beagling keeps up, they may qualify for law degrees before they step into the ring.

Hardin-Simmons will play three home football games at Abilene, Tex., next fall. They are Arizona State, West Texas State and New Mexico State.

Best In Majors, Senators' Pilot Says Of Pascual

By WHITNEY SHOEMAKER

WASHINGTON (AP) — "Best pitcher in the American League. No — in both doggone leagues."

Manager Cookie Lavagetto of the Washington Senators was speaking of Camilo Pascual, the slick right-hander from Cuba.

Pascual hurled the Senators to a three-hit 10-1 rout of the Boston Red Sox in the opening game of the American League season Monday before President Eisenhower and a crowd of 28,237 jammed into Griffith Stadium.

Ted Williams, Boston's sore-necked slugger, belted one of the longest home runs ever witnessed in Washington. And the Senators unleashed their own home run might, with Jim Lemon, Bob Allison, new catcher Earl Battey and Billy Consolo hitting over the fence. But Pascual was the hero.

The slender 26-year-old pitcher built up the game's only real tension and evoked its greatest ovation in the ninth when he missed the plate with two balls, then whistled three straight strikes past Gene Stephens.

The Stephens strikeout was Pascual's 15th and broke a record set by famed Walter Johnson. Johnson twice fanned 14, in 1910 and 1924, and Jim Shaw, an almost forgotten Senator, did it once, in 1914.

Fullmer-Giardello Title Fight Waited

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer

BOZEMAN, Mont. (AP) — This is cow country, far off the beaten path for the fight game. Rainbow trout glitter in the mountain streams. Elk line the road to nearby Yellowstone National Park.

The snow-capped Rockies provide a backdrop for one of the most unusual fight promotions in years. Men in high-heeled cowboy boots and 10-gallon hats are debating the merits of champion Gene Fullmer and challenger Joey Giardello who meet Wednesday night for the National Boxing Assn. version of the world middleweight title in the Montana State College fieldhouse.

Not since Jack Dempsey and Doc Kearns sacked Shelby in 1923 for the heavyweight match with Tom Gibbons has a title bout been staged within the boundaries of this mountain state. The bitter taste of that costly promotion in Shelby, some 200 miles away, still lingers.

Nobody will go broke this time. Thanks to the television sponsors who are putting up a reported $100,000 and a booming gate sale that already has produced $85,000, the promotion appears to be a guaranteed success.

Fullmer and his entire crew of handlers, sparmates and manager are housed in a girls' dormitory on the campus of a fast-growing college.

Giardello, a 12-5 underdog, has finished training at Livingston, some 25 miles to the east.

Warren Man Appeals Conviction For Holdup

LISBON — Atty. Francis Diana of Youngstown Monday filed with the 7th District Court of Appeals an appeal in behalf of James H. Maras, 20, of Warren, who has been sentenced for armed robbery after he was convicted by a Common Pleas Court jury.

Maras was found guilty March 30 of the armed robbery at Barnett's Motel west of Salem last Dec. 11, in which $650 was taken.

Judge Raymond S. Buzzard sentenced him to 10-25 years in the Ohio State Penitentiary after refusing Maras' motion for a new trial April 8.

The prices and demand have been very strong on everything. We need more hogs and calves to supply our buyers. If you have any livestock to sell we would be glad to handle them for you. Prompt payment is made.
We have good truck service.
Call Lisbon, HArrison 4-5049. Please make your calls early.
Our regular horse, pony and merchandise sale every Wednesday evening at 7 P. M.
Cattle sales every Saturday at 12 Noon.
Any business you may give us or send to us will be greatly appreciated.

Bringing Up A Family

By GARRY C. MEYERS

Children Should Feel Equally Loved

A big problem in every family with more than one child is for parents to find ways to enjoy each and every child and for each child to enjoy the parents and all his brothers and sisters. Jealousy is not limited to the time when a new baby arrives. It may arise as the children grow older and may continue after they are grown up, even when they have children of their own. Yet is wonderful when several children of the same family enjoy one another most of the time. Here are some suggestions: 1. Keep asking yourself how you would feel in each child's place. Does he feel he is as worthy and as much loved by you as the other children are? If you see he does not, you won't change his feelings by mere talk. You will need to set the stage so he may, after weeks, months or years, feel more loved and secure.

By Garry Meyer.

IF ONE WINS less approval and attention outside the family, enjoys fewer playmates and achieves less at play or work, then you should strive to help him gain in these directions, or as compensations in other directions.

2. If one child gets rebuked and punished far more than another, you can be sure he will feel he is less loved, will feel more jealous.

The problem then is gradually to guide him effectively with fewer disapprovals and more approvals, and this won't be easy.

3. Having established effective obedience in each child, you should aim to train each one to respect the right and possessions of the others. Except for a few common playthings, let each have some possession of his own. Then the way is cleared for co-operative sharing and doing things together with growing satisfactions.

4. When some of the children grow old enough to take on required jobs, don't have these jobs overlap.

HAVE, JIM, 8, clear the table after dinner this week, and Julia, 10, help set the table and carry food to it. Exchange these jobs next week, but don't have both children do the same job together. 5. Take account of age difference in regard to privileges and requirements.

6. Help each child cultivate some playmates of his own age outside the family.

7. Lead off in family fun at meals, when all may participate enjoyably. Make the dinner hour a happy and joyous occasion for all, with radio and TV silent. Provide outings and trips for the whole family.

8. As early as possiible, help several children nearest of age to learn to play quiet games together, maybe with some playmates joining.

9. Expect much fighting and quarreling. But when one child is always the underdog or you can't stand it, separate them for an appreciable, definite time.

10. Aim most of all to be a kind of catalyst, causing frequent periods of fun among your children, with their playmates often participating.

Post To Sponsor Junior Ball Team

American Legion Post 374 Monday night voted to sponsor a junior baseball team again this year.

Ivor Wilson was named athletic director and Wayne Craige was appointed manager. The baseball committee named by Allen Goodman, commander, includes himself, Ray Cusick and Walter Galloway.

The post will conduct a Cancer Fund solicitation today at Pennsylvania Ave. and Boyce St. Cars will be halted for donations.

A dance will be held Saturday night at 9 at the post in East End. Vince Mundy's orchestra will play.

Following the regular meeting, the post was host to the city honor roll committee.

Progress reports were heard. Wilbur Harmon, chairman, presided. The next meeting will be May 11 at 7 p. m. at the Disabled American Veterans post.

Another Group Notified To Pay Old Water Bills

The second list of notices was mailed Monday by the Wellsville water department to residents and business places with delinquent water bills.

The department said 20 of the notices were sent out and the deadline for payment is April 30.

Earlier this month a list of 20 was mailed and the water was turned off at 5 homes yesterday where the residents failed to comply. Three of the householders immediately made arrangements to pay and their water was turned on but two still were without service today.

The drive to collect some $10,000 in back bills owed the city was started 2 weeks ago.

The department said the notices will continued to be sent out with regularity until the books are cleared. Turnoffs definitely will continue until payments are made, officials said.

Climax To Racial Tension

Negroes And White Youths Clash In Savannah Fight

By The Associated Press

A savage fight between Negroes and white youths climaxed weeks of racial tension in Savannah, Ga., where Negroes have been staging sit-down demonstrations and boycotting stores with segreg. ted lunch counters.

Ax handles, pipes, knives and other weapons were swung in the brief but vicious clash in a park Monday night. A white youth was hospitalized with a serious knife wound in the neck. Two other white youths and a Negro were treated at a hospital and released.

Police jailed two Negroes and seven white persons and began an extensive search of the area for 20 others believed to have taken part in the fight in the Georgia coastal city.

Cause of the burst of violence was not determined. Investigators said the teen-agers who were arrested gave conflicting accounts.

Melvin Bryan, 18, suffered a deep stab wound in the side of the neck.

Allen Louis Johnson, 22-year-old Negro, received a badly bruised elbow when he was struck by an ax handle.

The battle in the park occurred a few hours after police reported a white man struck a Negro student during a lunch counter sit-down demonstration at the S. H. Kress & Co. store. It was the second such incident in three days.

A white man knocked a Negro demonstrator from a lunch counter stool in the same store Saturday. The Negro's jaw was broken.

Former President Harry S. Truman told newsmen at Ithaca, N. Y., he wouldn't be surprised "if the sit-downs in the South were inspired by Communists."

Seven Negro ministers staged a silent prayer session on a safety zone at an intersection in downtown Chattanooga, Tenn. One of the signs they carried read, "We pray for our city in Christian love. Stop Jim Crow."

Negroes picketed a downtown variety store and staged sit-ins at three lunch counters in Chattanooga.

A Negro doctor reported he was arrested for swimming in the Gulf of Mexico at Biloxi, Miss., near a swank hotel.

In Marshall, Tex., a judge ordered four Negro students to stand trial on charges growing out of lunch counter sit-ins March 30. He dismissed motions to quash the charges.

Pickup Truck And Car Damaged In Collision

A pickup truck driven by Clarence Keay, 50, of Wellsville R. D. 1 and a car operated by William Palmer, 18, of Toronto R. D. 1 were damaged in a collision on Route 45 about a half mile north of Wellsville Monday night.

The State Highway Patrol at Lisbon said Keay, headed north, made a turn as Palmer attempted to pass. Neither driver was injured, but both vehicles had to be towed away.
